Goethe in English Derek Glass, Martin H. Jones, 2005 This bibliography was commissioned by the English Goethe Society as a contribution to the celebration in 1999 of the 250th anniversary of Goethe's birth. It sets out to record translations of his works into English that have been published in the twentieth century up to and including material published in that anniversary year. It aims to serve as wide a constituency as possible, be it as a simple reference tool for tracing a translation of a given work or as a documentary source for specialized studies of Goethe reception in the English speaking world. The work records publications during the century, not merely translations that originated during this period. It includes numerous reprintings of older material as well as some belated first publications of translations from the nineteenth century. It shows how frequent and how long enduring was the recourse of publishers and anthologists to a Goethe Victorian in diction, a signal factor in perceptions and misperceptions. Derek Glass was putting the finishing touches to the bibliography at the time of his sudden death in March 2004. Colleagues at Kings College London have edited the final manuscript, which is now published jointly by the English Goethe Society and the Modern Humanities Research Association, both as a worthy commemoration of Goethe's anniversary and as a tribute to Derek himself.

An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: General studies Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known. These include his prose fiction and poetry, his work as an historian and natural historian, and his relationship to the other arts, most notably his painting. It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material, all of this in several languages. Organised generically and by subject and individual work, the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods. It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material. It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years, and with frequent cross reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity. The bibliography is published in three parts: Volume 2 The Plays 978 0 947623 82 1 and Volume 3 Prose Poetry Miscellaneous 978 0 947623 83 8 are also now available. Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia, Norwich.

Criticism, Performance, and the Passions in the Eighteenth Century James Harriman-Smith, 2021-03-18 Great art is about emotion In the eighteenth century and especially for the English stage critics developed a sensitivity to both the passions of a performance and what they called the transitions between those passions It was these pivotal transitions scripted by authors and executed by actors that could make King Lear beautiful Hamlet terrifying Archer hilarious and Zara electrifying James Harriman Smith recovers a lost way of appreciating theatre as a set of transitions that produce simultaneously iconic and dynamic spectacles fascinating moments when anything seems possible Offering fresh readings and interpretations of Shakespearean and eighteenth century tragedy historical acting theory and early character criticism this volume demonstrates how a concern with transition binds drama to everything from lyric poetry and Newtonian science to fine art and sceptical enquiry into the nature of the self
