The background of the entire cover is a photograph of a person with long, dark, wavy hair seen from behind. They are looking out over a vast ocean at sunset. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the horizon, casting a warm, golden light across the sky and water. The waves are gentle and rhythmic. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Then Life C.J. Jones, 2008-12-08 I was addicted to crack cocaine for twelve years before I hit my rock bottom I became desperate to get off drugs I didn't know what to do or how to get the help I needed to get my life back on track I was afraid to change because I didn't think I could live my life without using drugs So I depended upon the people who were put in my life during my addiction Which led me to Genesis House in Detroit MI A Christian based treatment center for drug rehabilitation In this book I tell how I got where I am today I lived with nine other women with addictions from alcohol to heroine who were seeking the same thing I was life without drugs I will never forget the nine women I lived with for thirty days or their testimonies They were the best thing that ever happened to me We became a family I've been clean for eleven years and no longer have a craving for drugs and as time passed I felt that God saved my life for a reason And that reason was to share what I had To help the ones that are still suffering from their addictions and to let them know it's alright to be afraid but through our testimonies they will learn that there is life after drugs and to help them find their way to a better life for themselves There are families who have family member on drugs who don't know how to help them I hope through this book that I can help them save at least one person from drug addiction and lead them to a better way to live Without God I wouldn't be here and I thank him every day for giving me a second chance to live my life drug free Forgive & Forget Me Not Joe Forte,2003-02 The Spirit Ambulance Scott Stonington,2020-08-25 The Spirit Ambulance is a journey into decision making at the end of life in Thailand where families attempt to craft good deaths for their elders in the face of clashing ethical frameworks from a rapidly developing universal medical system to national and global human rights politics to contemporary movements in Buddhist metaphysics Scott Stonington's gripping ethnography documents how Thai families attempt to pay back a debt of life to their elders through intensive medical care followed by a medically assisted rush from the hospital to home to ensure a spiritually advantageous last breath The result is a powerful exploration of the nature of death and the complexities arising from the globalization of biomedical expertise and ethics around the world The Life of Benjamin Disraeli William Flavelle Monypenny,George Earle Buckle,1914 If You Could See what I See Sylvia Browne,2006 The renowned psychic presents the twenty one Gnostic tenets of her church the Society of Novus Spiritus relating its principles to her own experiences as a guide for others in the search for spiritual awareness Supporting Pet Owners Through Grief Ryane E. The National Magazine ,1901 National Magazine ... ,1901 Interrogating Neoliberalism and Cruel Optimism in Education Louise Azzarello, 2025-03-31 This book is a philosophical examination of the ways in which neoliberalism underpins and impedes public education. It proposes that education's adoption of neoliberal logic generates a sense of despair amongst educators who often enter the profession with the hope of building a better, more just world. Drawing on the author's 27 years of experience as a secondary classroom teacher and engaging with a range of theoretical concepts, cultural objects, and scenes of violence from her time in the classroom, The Radical Potency of Despair renders visible the ongoing harms that neoliberal logic creates for education and educators. The author proposes a new, ruptured fantasy of education and suggests that it is not hope that ignites educators who keep fighting for education, but rather despair. Despair is conceived of as a generative force provoking educators to hold time and space open for pedagogical encounters that interrupt the ongoing instrumentalization of education. The author further conceptualizes a notion of thinking with images as a pedagogical interruptive force. Thinking with images, she argues, gives students time and space to attend to what they see, thus affording them the chance to think differently about the violence of modern society. Such pedagogical interruptions are presented as a refusal of the normative order of education, countering present infrastructures that aim to constrain and instrumentalize education. A compelling and original volume, it will appeal to scholars, researchers, and upper-level students with interests in neoliberalism and education, the philosophy of education, critical pedagogy, and educational policy and politics.
