Critical Times in Curriculum Thought Marcella L. Kysilka, 2011-05-01 This book is designed to be used at a master's level for a degree in curriculum and instruction teacher education or educational leadership. It could be used as a primary or a supplementary text. The book is divided into three parts. The first section focuses on the contributions of noted educators to the field of education: Florence Stratemeyer Haberman and Corrigan Hilda Taba, Barbara Stern, Alice Miel, Jennifer Deets, Booker T. Washington, Karen Riley, Ralph Tyler, Gerald Ponder, and Dixie Massey, and John Dewey, William Schubert, and Heidi Schubert. The authors of these chapters focused on contributions that were less known but particularly important in thinking about education. The second section of the book focuses on curriculum movements that were politically motivated and their impact on curriculum applications in the schools: Cold War, Sputnik, Peggy Moch, Civil Rights, William Ayers, Women's Rights, Susan Brown, Bilingual/multicultural education, Gloria Contreras, and Ron Wilhelm, and the growing economic divide, William Watkins. The last section of the book provides perspectives on factors that affected curriculum implementation as seen through the eyes of authors who have done considerable research in these areas: Social Justice, William Gaudelli, and Dennis Urban, Integrated Curriculum, Lynne Bailey, The Comprehensive High School, Marcella Kysilka, Technology in the Curriculum, Gretchen Schwarz, and Janet Dunlop, and Inclusive Curriculum, Allison Dickey. The book could be used in Alternative Certification Programs as well as the chapters focus on issues that are common in the public school sector. The chapters are short and meaty and provide a thorough understanding of the people, politics, and perspectives of the times.

Classroom Conversations Alexandra Miletta, 2008-10-07 In Classroom Conversations, two generations of educators, a mother and daughter, point us to the great thinkers who have shaped their beliefs and practices in education and who continue to influence teachers today. Nineteen essays by educators from Dewey to Delpit offer parents and new educators an education degree in a nutshell. The Miletta's frame these touchstone texts with commentary explaining why these writers resonate for them, sharing not only the personal meanings they have derived from the selections but why these writings have endured in the field over time. Brief biographies set each author in context for the lay reader. As educational fads and jargon come and go, parents and teachers alike will appreciate and find value in the wisdom distilled here. Classroom Conversations will help experienced teachers find renewed meaning in these seminal essays and will help younger teachers discover just how important the work they do can be. For parents, the book will inform and enrich their understanding of their children's educational experience.
