Payne, Carol Sills Strickland, 2008-04-12 The self conscious use of education as an instrument of liberation among African Americans is exactly as old as education among African Americans This dynamic anthology is about those forms of education intended to help people think more critically about the social forces shaping their lives and think more confidently about their ability to react against those forces Featuring articles by educator activists this collection explores the largely forgotten history of attempts by African Americans to use education as a tool of collective liberation Together these contributions explore the variety of forms those attempts
