Educational Psychology Cases For Teacher Decision Making:

Educational Psychology Cases for Teacher Decision-making Gordon E. Greenwood, H. Thompson Fillmer, 1999 Case material is presented mainly in dialogue format and cases are left open ended in order to provoke discussion analysis and decision making Each case begins with a listing of psychological theories and sets of principles for analyzing and resolving the case provides other relevant materials Case Studies in Educational Psychology Patricia P. Willems, Alyssa R. Gonzalez-DeHass, 2017-12-06 This case study book serves as a valuable tool for professors and instructors of educational psychology It contains 18 cases that represent current areas of interest in Educational Psychology embedded within current challenges that teachers face in today's elementary grade classrooms The cases are organized into six major parts Human Development Individual Differences and Diversity Learning Theories Motivation Classroom Management Instructional Approaches and Assessment and Evaluation Each case describes a detailed teaching scenario written from either the student or the teachers perspective To engage students in critical thinking perspective taking analysis problem solving and decision making the cases have been intentionally written without a conclusion Because the cases are open ended it allows the professor or instructor more flexibility and autonomy in how they use the cases Each case is followed by thought provoking questions highlighting the significant issues in the case from which to analyze the case and apply various theoretical viewpoints While the cases do not replace actual classroom experience they present a way to immerse students in the classroom's culture by providing them with real life teaching examples Case Studies for Teacher Decision Making Gordon E. Greenwood, Forrest W. Parkay, 1989 Professional Core Cases for Teacher Decision-making Gordon E. Greenwood, H. Teacher Beliefs and Classroom Performance James Rath, Amy C. McAninch, 2003-12-01 This volume of Advances in Teacher Education is about beliefs held by teachers and addresses the important topic of teacher beliefs from a variety of disciplinary perspectives Most of the authors who have contributed to this collection of essays assume that beliefs are propositions that are felt to be true by the person embracing them but that do not necessarily rest on the kind of evidence that justifies the use of the term knowledge Teacher beliefs are an important topic because it is hypothesized that teachers and teacher candidates use them to shape the information they receive from formal teacher preparation and to direct subsequent decision making in the classroom

EdPsych Modules Cheryl Cisero Durwin, Marla Reese-Weber, 2019-12-04 EdPsych Modules uses an innovative modular approach and case studies based on real life classroom situations to address the challenge of effectively connecting theory and research to practice Succinct stand alone modules are organized into themed units and offer instructors the flexibility to tailor the book s contents to the needs of their course The units begin with a set of case studies written for early childhood elementary middle and secondary classrooms providing students with direct insight into the dynamics influencing the future students they plan to teach All 25 modules highlight diversity emphasizing how psychological factors adapt and change based on external influences such as sex gender race language disability status and socioeconomic background The Fourth Edition includes
