Escape from Red China Robert Loh, 2017-07-31 The experiences and attitudes of a man who lived under Chinese Communism rising to a position of importance before his decision to flee to the West whose story describes much of life and society under Maoism Robert Loh is the first educated Chinese to give a view from the inside of life in Red China Son of a well to do family who was sent to study political science in the United States during the period when the authority of the Nationalist Government was disintegrating Loh chose to return to Shanghai to contribute what he could toward reshaping China into a major world power Robert Loh is at pains to make clear that he could not have survived and indeed lived a relatively privileged life in communist China without giving in to much that he hated and despised Escape from Red China, by R. Loh as Told to H. Evans Robert Loh, 1963 Communications and National Integration in Communist China Alan P. L. Liu, 1975-01-01 Monograph on the role of the mass media in political education in China describes how radio film and press are used to put across communist political ideology with a view to promoting nationalism and changing people's behaviour and attitudes Bibliography pp 215 to 221 map references and statistical tables Communist Persecution of Churches in Red China and Northern Korea United States. Congress. House. Committee on Un-American Activities, 1959 Five Protestant leaders from Formosa Hong Kong and Southern Korea describe the persecution and horrible atrocities visited on Christians in Communist China and Northern Korea by the Communist governments Their testimony reveals that these governments are engaged in an intense campaign to wipe out all vestiges of Christianity in areas under their control

Flowing with the Pearl River: Memoir of a Red China Girl Amy Chan Zhou, 2022-03-15 Amy Chan Zhou's searing memoir about growing up in rural Communist China features descriptions of pastoral beauty and tales of the simple joys of raising farm animals or catching fish in a local river However her childhood is scarred by the primitive conditions her family's everyday struggle to obtain food and the horror of witnessing relatives being tortured on a stage during public denouncing meetings As the Communists take control of China in 1949 we follow the harrowing experiences of Chan Zhou's great grandparents father and mother during the 1950s 60s and 70s when landlords business owners artists and scholars were branded as bad elements and class enemies As a teenager in the 1970s while selling vegetables on the black market Chan Zhou is accused of being a little capitalist trader The death of Mao ultimately saves Chan Zhou from being sent to a detention center and her family's destiny is forever altered by Deng Xiaoping's reform that allows her family to reunite in Hong Kong and subsequently emigrate to the United States A blend of Wild Swans and The Red Scarf Girl Flowing with the Pearl River is a vividly accurate portrayal of one family's painful experiences during Communism and the Cultural Revolution in China and their eventual escape to freedom Turkey in the Cold War C.
