Escape Me Never:

Theatrics Bernard Shaw, J. Percy Smith, 1995-01-01 All the correspondence selected for this volume most of it hitherto unpublished relates to Bernard Shaw's theatre dealings and theatrical interest at the same time attesting to the histrionic instinct and theatrified imagination his own phrases of the man who penned them William Walton Stephen Lloyd, 2001 Using first hand accounts including contemporary correspondence articles and interviews this account of Walton's life also draws on material newly available relating to his friends and associates The reception of Facade and Walton's work in both films and radio are fully explored BOOK JACKET Popular Filmgoing in 1930s Britain John Sedgwick, 2000 In the 1930s there were close to a billion annual admissions to the cinema in Britain and it was by far the most popular paid for leisure activity This book is an exploration of that popularity The book establishes similarities and differences between national and regional tastes through case study analysis of cinemagoing in Historical Dictionary of German Theater William Grange, 2015-06-17 The German language theater is one of the most vibrant and generously endowed of any in the world It boasts long and honored traditions that include world renowned plays playwrights actors directors and designers and several German theater artists have had an enormous impact on theater practice around the globe Students continue to study German plays in dozens of languages and every year scores of German plays are produced in a wide variety of non German venues This second edition of Historical Dictionary of German Theater covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on directors designers producers and movements such as Regietheater post dramatic approaches to theater production the freie Szene of independent non subsidized groups the role of increasingly massive government subsidies and cities whose reputations as centers of innovation and excellence that have made the German language theater one of the most vibrant anywhere on earth This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about German Theater Popular culture and working-class taste in Britain, 1930-39 Robert James, 2013-07-19 This book examines the relationship between class and culture in 1930s Britain Focusing on the reading and cinema going tastes of the working classes Robert James landmark study combines rigorous historical analysis with a close textual reading of visual and written sources to appraise the role of popular leisure in this fascinating decade Drawing on a wealth of original research this lively and accessible book adds immeasurably to our knowledge of working class leisure pursuits in this contentious period It is a key intervention in the field providing both an imaginative approach to the subject and an abundance of new material to analyse thus making it an undergraduate and postgraduate must have It will be a particularly welcome addition for anyone interested in the fields of cultural and social history as well as film cultural and literary studies Shakespeare, Memory and Performance Peter Holland, Director Shakespeare Institute and Professor of Shakespeare Studies Peter Holland, 2006-11-02 This collection by leading Shakespeare scholars first published in 2006 brings together memory and performance A History of Film Music Mervyn Cooke, 2008-09-25 This book provides a comprehensive and lively introduction to the major trends in film scoring from the silent era to the present day focussing not only on dominant Hollywood practices but also offering an international perspective by including case studies of the national cinemas of the UK France India Italy Japan and the early Soviet Union The book balances wide ranging overviews of film genres modes of production and critical reception with detailed non technical descriptions of the interaction between image track and soundtrack in representative individual films In addition to the central focus on narrative cinema separate sections are also devoted to music in documentary and animated films film musicals and the uses of popular and classical music in the cinema The author analyses the varying technological and aesthetic issues that have shaped the history of film music and concludes with an account of the modern film composer s working practices

David Lean Howard Maxford, 2014-10-30 Oscar winning director David Lean was responsible for some of the most enduring images in British cinema including the romantic clinches between Trevor Howard and Celia Johnson in Brief Encounter and Pip s memorable dash across the marshes in Great expectations Lean became renowned for his visual epics painting the cinematic screen in such films as The Bridge on the River Kwai Lawrence of Arabia and Doctor Zhivago Yet despite the large canvas of these masterpieces Lean never lost sight of the human story within them In his study of Lean s career Howard Maxford takes behind the scenes look at each of the director s films chronicling their making and their subsequent reception by both audiences and critics Lean s early work as a film editor which led to his comission by Noel Coward to co direct the landmark war drama In Which We Serve is examined along with Lean s self imposed 14 year exile after a savage reception from critics to his penultimate film His exile ended triumphantly with the release of a Passage to India Lean the man away from the camera is also revealed including his six marriages and his strict Quaker upbringing An informative critical guide this David Lean companion offers a detailed examination of the work of one of cinema s true greats

Korngold in America Ben Winters, 2025 Korngold in America offers new ways of listening to the film scores and post Hollywood concert works of Erich Wolfgang Korngold 1897 1957 a Viennese raised Austro Hungarian composer who left Europe for Hollywood in the mid 1930s to write for Warner Bros It reassesses Korngold s place in twentieth century music historiography and dismantles many of the myths that have obscured a proper understanding of his work Drawing on previously unpublished archival materials Korngold in America reveals Korngold s commercial and artistic relationships with studio processes and staff highlights aspects of his compositional practice and traces the way in which he adapted his skills as a musical dramatist and experienced opera composer to the demands of film The book presents a more complete picture of Korngold s artistry than has hitherto been possible showing both the important role played by his music in the Hollywood films of which it is a part and the importance in turn of Hollywood films for his compositional identity In so doing it challenges assumptions about the relationship between Korngold s film scores and his works for the concert hall and opera house in ways that draw attention to the significance of Hollywood for histories of twentieth century music Diegetic Music in Opera and Film Robbert van der Lek, 2023-12-11 Beyond the Epic Gene Phillips, 2006-11-24 Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908 1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean's body of work Author Gene D Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career Phillips also explores Lean's lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson's Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry Korngold and His World Daniel Goldmark, Kevin C. Karnes, 2019-08-27 Erich Wolfgang Korngold 1897 1957 was the last compositional prodigy to emerge from the Austro-German tradition of Mozart and Mendelssohn He was lauded in his youth by everyone from Mahler to Puccini and his auspicious career in the early 1900s spanned chamber music opera and musical theater Today he is best known for his Hollywood film scores composed between 1935 and 1947 Soundtracks Stewart R. Craggs, 2019-05-03 First published in 1998 music scored for film has only relatively recently received the critical attention which it merits Many composers in the twentieth century have written works for films or documentaries a number feeling that this aspect of their output has been undervalued This dictionary complements other studies which have appeared in recent years which look at the technical and theoretical issues concerned with film music composition Arranged alphabetically by composer the volume comprises over 500 entries covering all nationalities Each entry includes very brief biographical information on the composer followed by a list of the films with dates for which he or she has composed Details of recordings are also given The dictionary's international coverage ensures that it will become a standard reference work for all those interested in the history of

twentieth century music and the development of film Vitaphone Films Roy Liebman, 2015-05-20 The headline of the Variety extra on October 27 1926 proclaimed Vitaphone¹ Thrills L A Vitaphone a subsidiary of Warner Bros formed in association with Western Electric was one of the major producers of talkies even though its sound on disc technology barely lasted four years The Vitaphone features and shorts that have survived intact or that have been so carefully restored preserve much of the show business history that might otherwise have been lost with the industry's fast paced advances in movie making This book is a catalogue of Vitaphone features and shorts The first section lists the features and shorts by release number The New York productions 1926 1940 are listed first followed by the West Coast productions 1927 1970 For shorts the following particulars if known and if applicable are given title alternate title's instrumental and vocal selections performed on screen composer's and performers of instrumental and vocal selections release date and synopsis of the film names of major cast members and directors set information if two or fewer sets were used and the amount paid to early performers For features entries list release dates genre and major cast members The section on performers includes only those who appeared in shorts listing dates and places of birth when known Studio Affairs Vincent Sherman, 2014-10-17 As a young Jewish boy growing up in Vienna Georgia Abe Orovitz could never have predicted the twists and turns his life would take Many years later as retired film director with more than thirty movies to his credit Vincent Sherman is no less surprised when he looks back on that life In Studio Affairs he retraces his life with candor and enthusiasm Sherman discusses the details of his three year relationship with Joan Crawford his inadvertent connection with the death of Bette Davis's second husband and his poignant romantic involvement with Rita Hayworth Providing counterpoint to these liaisons is the love and devotion of Sherman's wife Hedda who accepted her husband's occasional infidelities as part and parcel of his career Studio Affairs provides an inside look at the motion picture industry during the heyday of the studio system by one who worked his way from nearly starving actor and playwright to respected director In effect the book serves as a primer on the art of film directing Sherman quickly developed a reputation of being a consummate rewrite artist able to take whatever assignment given him and turn it into a first rate motion picture His skill at reworked scripts led him to bigger and bigger projects even as the salary set by his long term contract with Warner Brothers remained below that of most of his colleagues Though not originally signed to direct when asked to do so he drew on his experience putting together productions at summer camps across the borscht circuit in upstate New York Like so many talented individuals in Hollywood during the 1950s Sherman was targeted by the House Un American Activities Committee owing in part to his active support of the WPA Theatre project in New York two decades previous Time spent on the lesser known gray list kept him out of work for several years Eventually he again enjoyed some critical success but after the demise of the studio system life was never quite the same The quintessential studio director ended his career directing for television Vincent Sherman's path from Georgia to southern California is compelling and his legendary talent for good storytelling makes the book impossible to put down

Errol Flynn Thomas McNulty, 2015-05-07 Errol Flynn set the standard for the modern action hero in films like The Adventures of Robin Hood, Dodge City and The Sea Hawk. This biography follows Flynn from his birth in Tasmania, Australia, in 1909 to his death in Vancouver, Canada, in 1959. Included is analysis of his films, discussion of the 1943 rape trial that changed his life, a survey of the FBI's infamous surveillance and the first detailed account of his television appearances in the 1950s. First-hand interviews with Flynn's friends and colleagues are complemented by research from FBI files, correspondence, Flynn's diary, and other sources. Illustrated with rare and previously unpublished photographs, the study also gives attention to the historical backgrounds and cultural influences that contributed to Flynn's fame. The work takes an objective and analytical look at the actor's adventurous life. The study includes two appendices: the first is a collection of quotations from various celebrities, memories of his talent and style, and anecdotes about his wild pool parties. The second appendix is a filmography including all Flynn's work for film, stage, and television, with cast and crew information. The Liturgy and the Offices of Worship and Hymns of the American Province of the Unitas Fratrum, Or the Moravian Church Moravian Church in America, 1908 Dunleath Abbey Hanson Penn Diltz, 1889 Canadian Stationer and Office Appliance Journal ..., 1926 Jan 1930 Feb 1932 most issues include the Trade edition of the Canadian bookman Dearest Wilding Yvette Eastman, 2015-12-21 A candid and intimate chapter in the life of a modern woman, Yvette Eastman's vivid narrative also contributes richly to the life story of Theodore Dreiser. Dearest Wilding: A Memoir records the journey that took Yvette Szekely from an upper-middle-class scholar's home in Budapest to the intellectual and artistic centers of urban America in the 1920s and 1930s. In 1929, sixteen-year-old Yvette Szekely met Dreiser, who was fifty-eight at the time, and within a year he became her lover. Dreiser remained central to her life as lover, father figure, and mentor until his death in 1945. Her portrait of Dreiser, who is by no means idealized, is of a complex man, often troubled, suspicious, and jealous, but also caring and supportive. The book is much more than an account of a sixteen-year relationship; however, it describes Eastman's attempt to understand her bond with Dreiser, forcing her back to her childhood, to memories of her distinguished but distant father who remained in Hungary, and to the early experiences that made the aging Dreiser so important to her life. In an afterword, the author thoughtfully reflects on the patterns of love and loss that form part of her past. Dearest Wilding is a valuable primary source in literary history and among the last documents from this era. One of the most important figures in the memoir is Max Eastman, whose early relationship with Yvette Szekely resulted in marriage years later. As perhaps the last reminiscence of Dreiser and his circle that will ever appear, Dearest Wilding: A Memoir promises rewarding reading.
