Behind the Iron Curtain Jeffrey M. Byford, 2012-06-14. Behind the Iron Curtain: A Teacher's Guide to East Germany and Cold War Activities discusses teaching Cold War activities through an East German perspective. The book is comprised of eight chapters that examine various pedagogical approaches and historical background associated with East Germany's role throughout the Cold War. Topics in this book include multiple methods of differentiated instruction, the beginnings of East Germany, the creation of the Ministry for State Security, the Berlin Wall, youth and education, a planned economy, life and society of East Germans and the events that led to the fall of communism. The heart of this book includes eighteen lessons associated with life behind the Iron Curtain.

Between Stress and Hope Rebecca Jacoby, Giora Keinan, 2003-10-30. This volume focuses on the concepts of stress and hope, their psychological and physical outcomes. Past research has focused primarily or exclusively on either stress or hope and its effect on health. This work discusses them side by side and highlights their interrelations. Various theoretical approaches dealing with stress and hope are discussed and a review of the most recent empirical data is presented. Also included are reports on individuals and groups that have been exposed to various stressful situations such as racial prejudice, life threatening illness or imprisonment. The role of hope in coping with these situations is emphasized. Contributors to this edited collection are at the cutting edge of theory and research in the fields of stress and hope. Students and scholars studying health psychology, stress management or stress and coping will appreciate the information presented as will those involved with medical science, nursing and sociology.
