Escrito Con Un Nictografo:

Escrito con un nictógrafo Arturo Carrera, 2005 Severo Sarduy and the Neo-baroque Image of Thought in the Visual Arts Rolando Perez, 2012 Severo Sarduy never enjoyed the same level of notoriety as did other Latin American writers. On the other hand, he never lacked for excellent critical interpretations of his work from critics like Roberto González Echevarría, Renée Prieto, Gustavo Guerrero, and other reputable scholars. Missing, however, from what is otherwise an impressive body of critical commentary is a study of the importance of painting and architecture first to his theory and second to his creative work. In order to fill this lacuna in Sarduy studies, Rolando Pérez's book undertakes a critical approach to Sarduy's essays. Barroco Escrito sobre un cuerpo Barroco y neobarroco and La simulación from the standpoint of art history. In short, no book on Sarduy until now has traced the multifaceted art historical background that informed the work of this challenging and exciting writer. It will be a book that many a critic of Sarduy and the Latin American baroque will consult in years to come.

Polypoetry 30 years 1987 - 2017 Enzo Minarelli, Frederico Fernandes, 2018-10-23 This book aims to draw maps about Polypoetry manifestations around Europe and Americas. It gathers scholars and artists who dedicated their work for understanding the avant garde expressions in print, sound, and visual languages, as well as to demonstrate how the experimentalism affects the world in a political and aesthetical perspective. In order to put different ideas in a framework, the first part of this book, European Maps of Polypoetry, brings a debate about the space of Polypoetry in relationship with other avant garde manifestations. The second one, Intertwining voices, drives our attention to the Americas, focusing on how visual and digital poetry, music, and festivals embraced Polypoetry ideas in a way to build a broader art network between Europe and the Americas.

Moving Verses Ben Bollig, 2021 Moving Verses analyses the relationship between poetry and cinema in Argentina. How do film and poetry transform each other when placed into productive dialogue? Case studies include Argentina's most exciting and radical contemporary directors, as well as established modern masters, with a critical framework drawing on contemporary studies of intermediality and impure cinema.

Politics and Public Space in Contemporary Argentine Poetry Ben Bollig, 2016-10-06 This book addresses the connection between political themes and literary form in the most recent Argentine poetry. Ben Bollig uses the concepts of lyric and state as twin coordinates for both an assessment of how Argentinian poets have conceived a political role for their work and how poems come to speak to us about politics. Drawing on concepts from contemporary literary theory, this striking study combines textual analysis with historical research to shed light on the ways in which new modes of circulation help to shape poetry today.

From the Forbidden Garden Alejandra Pizarnik, Antonio Beneyto, 2003-12 This selection of thirty letters and two postcards written between September 2, 1969, and September 12, 1972, includes most of Pizarnik's correspondence with Spanish writer, editor, artist, Antonio Beneyto. From these informative letters, we learn about her influences, the artists, poets, and writers she preferred, and her reactions to them. She collaborated on various projects and cultivated many literary and personal ties with writers of the stature of Julio Cortazar Olga Orozco Octavio Paz Pieyre de Mandiargues Silvina Ocampo and Luisa Sofovich among others Although the corpus of Pizarnik's writing available in English has expanded in the last twelve years it is still far from adequate This is the first time that a selection of letters from Alejandra Pizarnik to Antonio Beneyto has been published in English The translators hope that this volume will serve English speaking audiences as a new bridge to her work
