New Essays in Japanese Aesthetics A. Minh Nguyen, 2017-12-29 This collection presents twenty seven new essays in Japanese aesthetics by leading experts in the field Beginning with an extended foreword by the renowned scholar and artist Stephen Addiss and a comprehensive introduction that surveys the history of Japanese aesthetics and the ways in which it is similar to and different from Western aesthetics this groundbreaking work brings together a large variety of disciplinary perspectives including philosophy literature and cultural politics to shed light on the artistic and aesthetic traditions of Japan and the central themes in Japanese art and aesthetics Contributors explore topics from the philosophical groundings for Japanese aesthetics and the Japanese aesthetics of imperfection and insufficiency to the Japanese love of and respect for nature and the paradoxical ability of Japanese art and culture to absorb enormous amounts of foreign influence and yet maintain its own unique identity New Essays in Japanese Aesthetics will appeal not only to a wide range of humanities scholars but also to graduate and undergraduate students of Japanese aesthetics art philosophy literature culture and civilization Masterfully articulating the contributors Japanese aesthetical concerns and their application to Japanese arts including literature theater film drawing painting calligraphy ceramics crafts music fashion comics cooking packaging gardening landscape architecture flower arrangement the martial arts and the tea ceremony these engaging and penetrating essays will also appeal to nonacademic professionals and general audiences This seminal work will be essential reading for anyone interested in gaining a deeper understanding of Japanese aesthetics The Composition of Degas' Art in Relation to Japanese Prints Koharu Miura, 1989 Frank Lloyd Wright and Japan Kevin Nute, 2000 Looks at Wright's formal and philosophical debt to Japanese art and architecture Eight areas of influence are examined in detail from Japanese prints to specific individuals and publications and are illustrated with text and drawn analyses Japanese Art - Transcultural Perspectives Melanie Trede, Christine Guth, Mio Wakita, 2024-12-02 The transcultural approach to Japanese art history embraced by the contributors to this volume centers on the dynamic aesthetic artistic and conceptual negotiations across cultural temporal and spatial boundaries It not only acknowledges material objects people and technologies as agents but also intangible practices such as knowledge and concepts as vital agencies of interaction in transcultural processes With its premise on connectivity trans territoriality networks and their transformative potential this research destabilizes categorical configurations such as center vs periphery and high vs low calling into question the classical canon of Japanese art history

Japanese Prints Leslie Elise Abrams, 1977 Composition Arthur Wesley Dow, 2023-12-22 First published in 1899 Arthur Wesley Dow's Composition has probably influenced more Americans than any other text to think of visual form and composition in relation to artistic modernity While Dow is known as the mentor of Georgia O Keeffe and Max Weber his legacy as a proponent of modern art has suffered undeserved neglect by recent artists and art historians In Composition Dow develops a system for teaching students to create freely constructed images on the basis of harmonic relations between lines colors and dark and light patterns Greatly influenced by Japanese art he expounds a theory of flat formal equilibrium as an essential component of telling pictorial creation Generations of teachers and their public school pupils learned from Dow's orientalism and adopted basic postimpressionist principles without even knowing the term The reappearance of Dow's practical well illustrated guide enhanced by Joseph Masheck's discussion of its historical ramifications is an important event for all concerned with the visual arts and the intellectual antecedents of American modernism First published in 1899 Arthur Wesley Dow's Composition has probably influenced more Americans than any other text to think of visual form and composition in relation to artistic modernity While Dow is known as the mentor of Georgia O'Keeffe and

Constance Ford Dowling, 1950 The Art Journal, 1875 Vol for 1867 includes Illustrated catalogue of the Paris Universal Exhibition The Independent Leonard Bacon, Joseph Parrish Thompson, Richard Salter Storrs, Joshua Leavitt, Henry Ward Beecher, Theodore Tilton, Henry Chandler Bowen, William Hayes Ward, Hamilton Holt, Fabian Franklin, Harold de Wolf Fuller, Christian Archibald Herter, 1923 Frank Lloyd Wright And Japan Revisited: Traditional Japanese Culture As A Means To Modern American Architecture Kevin Nute, 2024-12-13 Although it has long been accepted that America's most famous architect was influenced by Japanese culture the nature of Frank Lloyd Wright's debt to Japan has remained unclear This book argues that Japan had a more profound impact on Wright's approach to design and in particular on his notion of the organic than has previously been acknowledged It suggests that the influence of Ernest Fenollosa 1853-1908 the leading American authority on Japanese art at the turn of the 20th century who also happened to be the cousin of Wright's first employer in Chicago the Shingle Style architect Joseph Silsbee 1848-1913 was pivotal in bringing together what would become Wright's twin passions of Japanese art and the organic whole Building on the success of the original book which won the 1994 American Institute of Architects International Architectural Monograph Award this revised and expanded edition contains new sections on the Western image of Japan as other the question of cultural appropriation and Wright's translation of Japanese building forms into his own architectural language Essays on Japan Michael Marra, 2010-10-15 Essays on Japan is a compilation of Professor Michael F Marra's essays written in the past ten years on the topics of Japanese literature Japanese aesthetics and the space between the two subjects An Old Master and Other Political Essays Woodrow Wilson, Why has no one ever written on the art of academic lecturing and its many notable triumphs In some quarters new educational canons have spoken an emphatic condemnation of the college lecture and it would seem to be high time to consider its value as illustrative of an art about to be lost if not as exemplary of forces to be retained even if modified Are not our college classrooms in being robbed of the old time lecture and getting instead a science brief of data and bibliography being deprived also of that literary atmosphere which once pervaded them We are unquestionably gaining in thoroughness but are we gaining in thoughtfulness We are giving to many youths an insight it may be profound into specialties but are we

giving any of them a broad outlook There was too often a paralysis of dulness in the old lecture or rather in the old lecturer and written lectures like history and fashion in dress have an inveterate tendency to repeat themselves but on the contrary there was often a wealth of power also in the studied discourse of strong men Masters bent upon instructing and inspiring and there were many such had to penetrate that central secret of literature and spoken utterance the secret of style Their only instrument of conquest was the sword of penetrating speech Some of the subtlest and most lasting effects of genuine oratory have gone forth from secluded lecture desks into the hearts of quiet groups of students and it would seem to be good policy to endure much indifferent lecturing watchful trustees might reduce it to a minimum for the sake of leaving places open for the men who have in them the inestimable force of chastened eloquence For one man who can impart an undying impulse there are several score presupposing the requisite training who can impart a method and here is the well understood ground for the cumulating disfavor of college lecturing and the rapid substitution of laboratory drill But will not higher education be cut off from communion with the highest of all forces the force of personal inspiration in the field of great themes of thought if you interdict the literary method in the class room I am not inclined to consume very many words in insisting on this point for I believe that educators are now dealing more frankly with themselves than ever before and that so obvious a point will by no means escape full recognition before reformed methods of college and university instruction take their final shape But it is very well to be thinking explicitly about the matter meanwhile in order that the lecture may be got ready to come fully militant into the final battle for territory The best way to compass this end would seem to be to study the art of the old masters of learned discourse With Lanfranc one could get the infinite charm of the old monastic school life with Abelard the undying excitement of philosophical and religious controversy with Colet the fire of reforming zeal with Blackstone the satisfactions of clarified learning But Bee and Paris and Oxford have by no means monopolized the masters of this art and I should prefer for the nonce at least to choose an exemplar from Scotland and speak of Adam Smith It will no doubt be possible to speak of him without going over again the well worn ground of the topics usually associated with his great fame
