Essays on John Cowper Powys Belinda Humfrey, 1972 John Cowper Powys and the Afterlife of Romanticism Kim Wheatley, 2025-01-09 This study bridges the chronological divide between the Romantic era and the first six decades of the 20th century interpreting John Cowper Powys 1872-1963 as a major under recognized contributor to the cultural transmission of Romanticism Kim Wheatley's John Cowper Powys and the Afterlife of Romanticism uncovers the surprising extent to which this multi faceted Modernist era author reworked key concerns of the Romantic poets Wheatley shows how Powys's prose rewritings of Romantic poetry contribute to the story of the posthumous life of Romanticism especially its environmental legacy In particular the book expands our understanding of the early 20th century reception of William Wordsworth and John Keats Wheatley argues that Powys anticipates and presciently interrogates recent revisionary critical approaches to the Romantics primarily materialist eco critical approaches and therefore invites a fresh environmentalist criticism open to the transcendental and the supernatural Chapters range across Powys's extensive oeuvre investigating his treatment of Wordsworth and Keats in his works of fiction autobiographical writings popular philosophical books and essays of literary appreciation including his Autobiography 1934 his four major Wessex novels Wolf Solent 1929 A Glastonbury Romance 1932 Weymouth Sands 1934 and Maiden Castle 1936 and his later Welsh historical novels Owen Glendower 1941 and Porius 1951 Wheatley demonstrates how Powys uniquely combines sense based nature worship the leveling of animate and inanimate and care for disabled human beings along with mystical and magical themes into an all encompassing ecological vision more capacious than any imagined by the Romantics themselves John Cowper Powys in Search of a Landscape C.A. Coates, 1982-06-18 Essays on John Cowper Powys Belinda Humfrey, 1982 The Letters of John Cowper Powys to Glyn Hughes John Cowper Powys, 1994 The Ecstatic World of John Cowper Powys Harald William Fawcner, 1986 A Bibliography of the Writings of John Cowper Powys, 1872-1963 Dante Thomas, 1975 Presences and Absences - Transdisciplinary Essays Katarína Labudová, Nóra Séllei, 2013-10-03 This volume discusses the question of presence and or absence from a transdisciplinary perspective and intends to provide insights into how a wide range of disciplines addresses this issue which has been at the centre of philosophical theoretical and critical debates in the past decades As the essays in the volume prove apparently diverse areas can have a lot in common and talk to each other in sometimes surprising ways The topics discussed include modals in various languages and black slave funeral sermons pragmatic markers and the Australian Stolen Generation the transcendental in poems by Ann Bradstreet Arthur Symonds and Philip Larkin short stories by Katherine Mansfield generic presences in Virginia Woolf and contemporary journalism haunting presences in fin de siècle ghost stories and in a contemporary horror film mythical structures in John Cowper Powys and Margaret Atwood and gender politics in Pat Barker and Sarah Waters The analyses as they talk to each other create multiple dialogues without imposing closures and ultimate interpretations on the plethora of possible meanings emerging from the juxtaposition of these essays This transdisciplinary volume written in an erudite but reader friendly language will be of great interest to both the academic world as well as a broader readership interested in how linguistic phenomena in general cultural myths of all kinds various cinematic literary and journalistic genres from diverse periods can be approached and opened up to new readings and meanings from the perspective of presences and absences

Mid-Century Romance John T. Connor, 2024-07-22 Mid Century Romance chronicles a revival of the historical novel in the middle decades of the twentieth century in the cultures of British modernism and international communism Born of a national turn in world politics these novels met the turbulence of mid century history with narratives of national becoming roadmaps to situate their readers in the pattern of social change Their writers were often mindful of the genre s romantic era heritage they saw themselves as following in the footsteps of Sir Walter Scott and they drew on the same rescued remains of primitive poetry and popular antiquities that romanticism first used to construct its versions of national identity culture and tradition This book shows how the impulse to salvage traces of ancestral culture and press them to new purpose links the mid century national historical novel to the rise of radical social history and magical realism Post war anticommunism shaped a tradition of the novel as a preserve of art and the individual Mid Century Romance counters with a different genealogy of the British and world novel whose object is society and the future of community the nation and its people It situates its cast of British writers including the modernists Hope Mirrlees and Virginia Woolf the communists Jack Lindsay and Sylvia Townsend Warner the eccentric modernist and sometime fellow traveller John Cowper Powys and the New Left luminary Raymond Williams in a transnational perspective that reaches from Bihar India to Bahia Brazil
