Money and Finance After the Crisis Brett Christophers, Andrew Leyshon, Geoff Mann, 2017-09-05 Money and Finance After the Crisis provides a critical multi disciplinary perspective on the post crisis financial world in all its complexity dynamism and unpredictability Contributions illuminate the diversity of ways in which money and finance continue to shape global political economy and society A multidisciplinary collection of essays that study the geographies of money and finance that have unfolded in the wake of the financial crisis Contributions discuss a wide range of contemporary social formations including the complexities of modern debt driven financial markets Chapters critically explore proliferating forms and spaces of financial power from the realms of orthodox finance capital to biodiversity conservation Contributions demonstrate the centrality of money and finance to contemporary capitalism and its political and cultural economies Handbook on the Geographies of Money and Finance Ron Martin, Jane Pollard, 2017-03-31 The aim of this timely work which appears in the wake of the worst global financial crisis since the late 1920s is to bring together high quality research based contributions from leading international scholars involved in constructing a geographical perspective on money Topics covered include the crisis the spatial circuits of finance regulation mainstream financial markets banking equity etc through to the various alternative and disruptive forms of money that have arisen in recent years It will be of interest to geographers political scientists sociologists economists planners and all those interested in how money shapes and reshapes socio economic space and conditions local and regional development Capital Flows and the Emerging Economies Sebastian

Edwards, 2008-04-15 The 1990s witnessed several acute currency crises among developing nations that invariably spread to other nearby at risk countries These episodes in Mexico Thailand South Korea Russia and Brazil were all exacerbated by speculative foreign investments and high volume movements of capital in and out of those countries Insufficient domestic controls and a sluggish international response further undermined these economies as well as the credibility of external oversight agencies like the International Monetary Fund This timely volume examines the correlation between volatile capital mobility currency instability and the threat of regional contagion focusing particular attention on the emergent economies of Latin America Southeast Asia and Eastern Europe Together these studies offer a new understanding of the empirical relationship between capital flows international trade and economic performance and also afford key insights into realms of major policy concern Foreign Banks and Global Finance in Modern China Ghassan Moazzin, 2022-07-07 Explores how foreign banks financially connected modern China to international capital markets and the global economy

Treasury's War Juan Zarate, 2013-09-10 For more than a decade America has been waging a new kind of war against the financial networks of rogue regimes proliferators terrorist groups and criminal syndicates Juan Zarate a chief architect of modern financial warfare and a former senior Treasury and White House official pulls back the curtain on this shadowy world In this gripping story he explains in unprecedented detail how a small dedicated group of officials redefined the Treasury's role and used its unique powers relationships and reputation to apply financial pressure against America's enemies This group unleashed a new brand of financial power one that leveraged the private sector and banks directly to isolate rogues from the international financial system By harnessing the forces of globalization and the centrality of the American market and dollar Treasury developed a new way of undermining America's foes Treasury and its tools soon became and remain critical in the most vital geopolitical challenges facing the United States including terrorism nuclear proliferation and the regimes in Iran North Korea and Syria This book is the definitive account by an unparalleled expert of how financial warfare has taken pride of place in American foreign policy and how America's competitors and enemies are now learning to use this type of power themselves This is the unique story of the United States financial war campaigns and the contours and uses of

Respatialising Finance Sarah Hall, 2021-07-01 RESPATIALISING FINANCE In Respatialising Finance Sarah Hall uses the internationalisation of the Chinese Renminbi (RMB) to work through a sympathetic conceptual and empirical critique of prevailing analyses of International Financial Centres (IFCs). Her conceptual re-framing stresses the politics, institutions and economics of IFCs and will be essential reading for all social scientists interested in the dynamism of contemporary finance and financial centres. Professor Jane Pollard, Centre for Urban and Regional Development Studies, CURDS, Newcastle University, UK. Through detailed study of Chinese RMB internationalisation and combining analytical insights from economic geography, sociology and international political economy, Sarah Hall shows why offshore networks anchored in territories such as the City of London are both core to global monetary and financial landscapes and provide a key terrain for state power and politics. Professor Paul Langley, Department of Geography, Durham University, UK. Respatialising Finance is one of the first detailed empirical studies of how and why London became the leading western financial centre within the wider Chinese economic and political project of internationalising its currency, the renminbi (RMB). This in-depth volume examines how political authorities in both London and Beijing identified the potential value of London's international financial centre in facilitating and legitimising RMB internationalisation and how they sought to operationalise this potential through a range of market-making activities. The text features original data from on-the-ground research in London and Beijing conducted with financial and legal professionals working in RMB markets and offers an original theoretical approach that brings economic geography into closer dialogue with international political economy Recent work on territory illustrates how financial centres are not simply containers and facilitators of global financial flows rather they serve as territorial fixes within the dynamic and crisis prone nature of global finance
