providing 2 500 hours of live coverage including every competitive event much in high definition and some in 3D The BBC also had 12 million requests for video on mobile phones and 9 2 million browsers on its mobile Olympics website and app This pattern will only intensify at future sport mega events like the 2014 FIFA World Cup and 2016 Summer Olympics both of which will take place in Brazil Increasingly when people talk of the screen that delivers footage of their favorite professional sport they are describing desktop laptop and tablet computer screens as well as television and mobile handsets Digital Media Sport analyzes the intersecting issues of technological change market power and cultural practices that shape the contemporary global sports media landscape The complexity of these related issues demands an interdisciplinary approach that is adopted here in a series of thematically organized essays by international scholars working in media studies Internet studies sociology cultural studies and sport studies

New Media and Sport Katrien Lefever, 2012-10-04 During the past decade the media landscape and the coverage of sports events have changed fundamentally Sports fans can consume the sports content of their choice on the platform they prefer and at the time they want Furthermore thanks to electronic devices and Internet content can now be created and distributed by every sports fan As a result it is argued that media regulation which traditionally contains rules safeguarding access to information and diversity would become redundant Moreover it is sometimes proposed to leave the regulation of the broadcasting market solely to competition law This book illustrates that media law is still needed even in an era of abundance to guarantee public s access to live and full sports coverage Dealing with the impact of new media on both media and competition law this book will greatly appeal to academics and stakeholders from various disciplines such as legal and public policy political science media and communications studies journalism and European studies Additionally it contains valuable information and points of view for policy makers lawyers and international and intergovernmental organisations active in media development The book contains an up to date analysis and overview of the different competition authorities decisions and media provisions dealing with the sale acquisition and exploitation of sports broadcasting rights Katrien Lefever is Senior Legal Researcher at IBBT The Interdisciplinary Centre for Law and ICT ICRI KU Leuven Belgium The book appears in the ASSER International Sports Law Series under the editorship of Prof Dr Robert Siekmann Dr Janwillem Soek and Marco van der Harst LL M
