The Last Love Song Tracy Daugherty, 2015-08-25 In The Last Love Song Tracy Daugherty the critically acclaimed author of Hiding Man a New Yorker and New York Times Notable book and Just One Catch and subject of the hit documentary The Center Will Not Hold on Netflix delves deep into the life of distinguished American author and journalist Joan Didion in this the first printed biography published about her life Joan Didion lived a life in the public and private eye with her late husband writer John Gregory Dunne whom she met while the two were working in New York City when Didion was at Vogue and Dunne was writing for Time They became wildly successful writing partners when they moved to Los Angeles and co wrote screenplays and adaptations together Didion is well known for her literary journalistic style in both fiction and non fiction Some of her most notable work includes Slouching Towards Bethlehem Run River and The Year of Magical Thinking a National Book Award winner and shortlisted for the Pulitzer Prize It dealt with the grief surrounding Didion after the loss of her husband and daughter Daugherty takes readers on a journey back through time following a young Didion in Sacramento through to her adult life as a writer interviewing those who know and knew her personally while maintaining a respectful distance from the reclusive literary great The Last Love Song reads like fiction lifelong fans and readers learning about Didion for the first time will be enthralled with this impressive tribute The Collected Letters of Charles Olson and J. H. Prynne Ryan Dobran, 2017-06-01 Edited by poet and scholar Ryan Dobran this volume of correspondence between the American poet Charles Olson 1910 1970 and the English poet J H Prynne b 1936 sheds light on a little known but incredibly influential aspect of twentieth century transatlantic literary culture Never before published the letters capture their shared passion for knowledge as well as their distinct writing styles Written between 1961 and Olson's death in 1970 the letters display the mutual admiration and intimacy that developed between the two poets after Prynne initiated their exchange when pursuing work for the literary magazine Prospect This work illustrates how Olson and Prynne influenced each other and it represents an important step toward understanding their contributions to poetics on both sides of the Atlantic American Literature Since 1900 Marcus Cunliffe,1975 The Lost Works of William Carlos Williams Robert J. Cirasa,1995 In each Williams took as the basic element or constituent sections of these two large scale literary structures the tacit lyrical sequences that had constituted his originally separate volumes of verse also added new groupings as he made changes to the old and fashioned them all into a unique series of lyrical sequence a lyrical super sequence that gave unified lyrical definition and compelling lyrical immediacy to the whole of his poetic development Twentieth-Century American Poetry Christopher MacGowan, 2008-04-15 Written by a leading authority on William Carlos Williams this book provides a wide ranging and stimulating guide to twentieth century American poetry A wide ranging and stimulating critical guide to twentieth century American poetry Written by a leading authority on the innovative modernist poet William Carlos Williams Explores the material historical and social contexts in which twentieth century American poetry was produced Includes a biographical dictionary of major writers with extended entries on poets ranging from Robert Frost to Adrienne Rich Contains a section on key texts considering major works such as The Waste Land North South Howl and Ariel The final section draws out key themes such as American poetry politics and war and the process of anthologizing at the end of the century Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1955 Love for Love John Burnside, Alec Finlay, 2000 This anthology was compiled by asking 50 poets to select their favourite love poem and write a poem of their own in response The contributors writing in English Gaelic and Scots include Andrew Greig Meg Bateman Stewart Conn Valerie Gilles Robin Robertson Robert Crawford Kate Clanchy and Rody Gorman Their chosen poems have been gathered from around the world and across the centuries and range from work by Pablo Neruda Nina Cassian and Pierre de Ronsard to Iain Crichton Smith Robert Creeley William Soutar and Norman McCaig American Literature in Transition, 1950-1960 Steven Belletto, 2017-12-28 American Literature in Transition 1950 1960 explores the under recognized complexity and variety of 1950s American literature by focalizing discussions through a series of keywords and formats that encourage readers to draw fresh connections among literary form and concepts institutions cultures and social phenomena important to the decade The first section draws attention to the relationship between literature and cultural phenomena that were new to the 1950s The second section demonstrates the range of subject positions important in the 1950s but still not visible in many accounts of the era The third section explores key literary schools or movements associated with the decade and explains how and why they developed at this particular cultural moment The final section focuses on specific forms or genres that grew to special prominence during the 1950s Taken together the chapters in the four sections not only encourage us to rethink familiar texts and figures in new lights but they also propose new archives for future study of the decade Listening to the Candle Peter Dale Scott, 1992 Listen To The Candle is a booklength reflection on the poet s life Listening followings Jakarta as the seconds step in a projected trilogy Self knowledge is more at issue than self alienation art perhaps overshadows politics Rilke is more the poem's guide than Elizabethan Women and the Poetry of Courtship Ilona Bell,1998 This 1999 book offers an original study of lyric pound form and social custom in the Elizabethan age Ilona Bell explores the tendency of Elizabethan love poems not only to represent an amorous thought but to conduct the courtship itself Where studies have focused on courtiership patronage and preferment at court her focus is on love poetry amorous courtship and relations between Elizabethan men and women The book examines the ways in which the tropes and rhetoric of love poetry were used to court Elizabethan women not only at court and in the great houses but in society at large and how the women responded to being wooed in prose poetry and speech Bringing together canonical male poets and women writers Ilona Bell investigates a range of texts addressed to written by read heard or transformed by Elizabethan women and charts the beginnings of a female lyric tradition

Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts Victor Karandashev,2016-12-24 This volume presents a conceptual historical anthropological and sociological review of how culture affects our experience and expression of romantic love What is

romantic love and how is it different from and similar to other kinds of love How is romantic love related to sex and marriage in human history and across contemporary cultures What cultural factors mediate attraction in love These are some of the questions the volume explores through its interdisciplinary yet focused lens Much of the current research evidence suggests that love is a universal emotion experienced by a majority of people in various historical eras and in all the world's cultures Yet love displays in different ways because culture has an impact on people s conceptions of love and the ways they feel think and behave in romantic relationships This volume summarizes classical knowledge on love and culture while at the same time focusing sharply on recent studies and cutting edge research that has advanced the field Divided into three parts the volume begins by defining and analyzing the concept of romantic love and interdisciplinary approach to its study in cultural context Part II traces the origin and evolution of romantic love both in various places throughout the world and various time periods throughout history Part III presents the revolutionary expansion of romantic love ideas and practices in the late 20th and early 21st centuries in various parts of the world focusing particularly on the development of romantic love as a cultural ideal of the modern cultures Finally the book concludes by summarizing the major achievements in this field of study and predicts future development A timely and thoughtful addition to the literature Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts delivers thought provoking insights to researchers in relationship scholarship sociology anthropology and cultural studies and all those interested in the universal human concept of love Overall I find Dr Victor Karandashev is an excellent and fine scholar who has a firm grasp of both the fundamental principles of cross cultural research and of anthropology In our increasingly connected world Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts updates and adds to the descriptions and explanations of similarities and differences in romantic love across generations and cultures Romantic love encompasses the life span rather than being a phenomenon largely confined to youthful years The topic of this project concerns the deepest of our sentiments and pervades life from birth to death This book contributes to better knowledge of this phenomenon across generations F lix Neto Professor of Psychology Faculdade de Psicologia e de Ci ncias da Educa o Universidade do Porto Portugal How We Love John Mark Falkenhain, 2019-08-09 2020 Association of Catholic Publishers second place award in general interest In this volume Br John Mark Falkenhain OSB a Benedictine monk and clinical psychologist provides a well researched and thorough program for celibacy formation for men and women adaptable to both religious and seminary settings Attending to the theological and the psycho sexual dimensions of what it means to pursue a life of chaste celibacy Br John Mark identifies and expands on four major content areas including motives for chaste celibacy theological aspects of celibate chastity sexual identity and skills for celibate living Formation goals and benchmarks for discernment are discussed for each content area and implications and suggestions for ongoing formation are offered Shakespeare and the Truth of Love I. Bednarz, 2012-04-02 A comprehensive study of Shakespeare's forgotten masterpiece The Phoenix and Turtle Bednarz confronts the question of why one of the greatest poems in the English language is customarily ignored or misconstrued by

American Cinema of the 1950s Murray Pomerance, 2005 Bringing together original essays by ten respected scholars in the field American Cinema of the 1950s explores the impact of the cultural environment of this decade on film and the impact of film on the American cultural milieu Contributors examine the signature films of the decade including From Here to Eternity Sunset Blvd Singin in the Rain Shane Rear Window and Rebel Without a Cause as well as lesser known but equally compelling films such as Dial 1119 Mystery Street Suddenly Summer Stock The Last Hunt and many others Poetic Community Stephen Voyce, 2013-01-01 Poetic Community examines the relationship between poetry and community formation in the decades after the Second World War In four detailed case studies of Black Mountain College in North Carolina the Caribbean Artists Movement in London the Women's Liberation Movement at sites throughout the US and the Toronto Research Group in Canada the book documents and compares a diverse group of social models small press networks and cultural coalitions informing literary practice during the Cold War era Drawing on a wealth of unpublished archival materials Stephen Voyce offers new and insightful comparative analysis of poets such as John Cage Charles Olson Adrienne Rich Kamau Brathwaite and bpNichol In contrast with prevailing critical tendencies that read mid century poetry in terms of expressive modes of individualism Poetic Community demonstrates that the most important literary innovations of the post war period were the results of intensive collaboration and social action opposing the Cold War's ideological enclosures

Elizabeth Jennings Dana Greene,2018-09-04 Elizabeth Jennings was one of the most popular prolific and widely anthologized lyric poets in the second half of the twentieth century This first biography based on extensive archival research and interviews with Jennings s contemporaries integrates her life and work and explores the inward war the poet experienced as a result of her gender religion and mental fragility Originally associated with the Movement Jennings was sui generis believing poetry was communication and communion She wrote of nature friendship childhood religion love and art endearing her to a wide audience Yet lifelong depression unbearable loneliness unrelenting fears poverty and physical illness plaqued her These were exacerbated by her gender in a male dominated literary world and an inherited Catholic worldview which initially inculcated guilt and shame However a tenacious drive to be a poet made her the most unconditionally loved writer of her generation Although her claim was that the poem is not the poet her life is tracked in her voluminous published and unpublished poetry and prose The themes of mental illness the importance of place the problems associated with being an unmarried woman artist her relationship with literary mentors and younger poets her non feminist feminism and her marginality and sympathy for the outcast are all explored It was poetry which saved her it helped her push back darkness and discover order in the midst of chaos Poetry was her raison d etre It was her life Handbook of Russian Literature Victor Terras, 1985-01-01 Profiles the careers of Russian authors scholars and critics and discusses the history of the Russian treatment of literary genres such as drama fiction and essays A Concise Companion to Postwar American Literature and Culture Josephine Hendin, 2008-04-15 This Concise Companion is a guide to the creative output of the United States in the postwar period in its diverse energies shapes and forms Embraces diversity covering Vietnam literature gay and lesbian literature American Jewish fiction Italian American literature Irish American writing emergent ethnic literatures African American writing jazz film drama and more Shows how different genres and approaches opened up creative possibilities and interacted in the postwar period Portrays the postwar United States split by differences of wealth and position by ethnicity and race and by agendas of left and right but united in the intensity of its creative drive The Genesis of the Chicago Renaissance Mary Hricko, 2013-09-05 This study examines the genesis of Chicago s two identified literary renaissance periods 1890 1920 and 1930 1950 through the writings of Dreiser Hughes Wright and Farrell The relationship of these four writers demonstrates a continuity of thought between the two renaissance periods By noting the affinities of these writers patterns such as the rise of the city novel the development of urban realism and the shift to modernism are identified as significant connections between the two periods Although Dreiser Wright and Farrell are more commonly thought of as Chicago writers this study argues that Langston Hughes is a transitional pivotal figure between the two periods Through close readings and contextualization the influence of Chicago writing on American literature in such areas as realism and naturalism as well as proletarian and ethnic fiction becomes apparent
