Edgar Degas Karen Wilkin, Dominique H. Vasseur, 1994 Odd Man Out Carol M. ambiguity and even mystery Edgar Degas Nathalia Brodskaya, Edgar Degas, 2023-12-28 Degas was closest to Renoir in the impressionist's circle for both favoured the animated Parisian life of their day as a motif in their paintings Degas did not attend Gleyre's studio most likely he first met the future impressionists at the Caf Guerbois He started his apprenticeship in 1853 at the studio of Louis Ernest Barrias and beginning in 1854 studied under Louis Lamothe who revered Ingres above all others and transmitted his adoration for this master to Edgar Degas Starting in 1854 Degas travelled frequently to Italy first to Naples where he made the acquaintance of his numerous cousins and then to Rome and Florence where he copied tirelessly from the Old Masters His drawings and sketches already revealed very clear preferences Raphael Leonardo da Vinci Michelangelo and Mantegna but also Benozzo Gozzoli Ghirlandaio Titian Fra Angelico Uccello and Botticelli During the 1860s and 1870s he became a painter of racecourses horses and jockeys His fabulous painter's memory retained the particularities of movement of horses wherever he saw them After his first rather complex compositions depicting racecourses Degas learned the art of translating the nobility and elegance of horses their nervous movements and the formal beauty of their musculature Around the middle of the 1860s Degas made yet another discovery In 1866 he painted his first composition with ballet as a subject Mademoiselle Fiocre dans le ballet de la Source Mademoiselle Fiocre in the Ballet The Spring New York Brooklyn Museum Degas had always been a devotee of the theatre but from now on it would become more and more the focus of his art Degas first painting devoted solely to the ballet was Le Foyer de la danse l Op ra de la rue Le Peletier The Dancing Anteroom at the Opera on Rue Le Peletier Paris Mus e d Orsay In a carefully constructed composition with groups of figures balancing one another to the left and the right each ballet dancer is involved in her own activity each one is moving in a separate manner from the others Extended observation and an immense number of sketches were essential to executing such a task This is why Degas moved from the theatre on to the rehearsal halls where the dancers practised and took their lessons This was how Degas arrived at the second sphere of that immediate everyday life that was to interest him The ballet would remain his passion until the end of his days Degas and the Laundress Britany
