remarkable account of the impact of postmodern philosophy on the question of ethics and politics commendable also for its balanced view of Heidegger's relationship to politics and ethics an excellent account of Heidegger's philosophical understanding of technology Choice This book takes as its point of departure the question of ethics that values and their pursuit in the West often perpetuate their own worst enemies At issue are the dangers in the structures and movements of images values and ways of knowing that are most intimately a part of our lives Diversity of Belonging in Europe

Susannah Eckersley, Claske Vos, 2022-12-27 Diversity of Belonging in Europe analyzes conflicting notions of identity and belonging in contemporary Europe. Addressing the creation, negotiation and re-use of diverse spaces and places of belonging, the book examines their fascinating complexities in the context of a changing Europe. Taking an innovative interdisciplinary approach, the volume examines renegotiations of belonging played out through cultural encounters with difference and change in diverse public spaces and contested places. Highlighting the interconnections between social change and culture, heritage and memory, the chapters analyze multilayered public spaces and the negotiations over culture and belonging that are connected to them. Through analyses of diverse case studies, the editors and authors draw out the significance of the participation or exclusion of differing community grassroots and activist groups in such practices and discourses of belonging in relation to the contemporary emergence of identity conflicts and political uses of the past across Europe. They analyze the ways in which people's sense of belonging is connected to cultural heritage and memory practices undertaken in different public spaces including museums, cultural and community centres, city monuments and built heritage, neglected urban spaces and online fora. Diversity of Belonging in Europe provides a valuable contribution to the existing bodies of work on identities, migration, public space, memory and heritage. The book will be of interest to scholars and students with an interest in contested belonging, public spaces and the role of culture and heritage. Susannah Eckersley is Senior Lecturer at Newcastle University, UK, an Associated Research Fellow at the Leibniz Centre for Contemporary History ZZF in Potsdam, Germany, and the Project Leader of encounter points, a collaborative European research project on public spaces and belonging funded by HERA. Her expertise is in memory, museums, difficult heritage, migration, identities and belonging. Claske Vos is an anthropologist and Assistant Professor in the Department of European Studies at the Humanities Faculty of the University of Amsterdam, the Netherlands. Her current work focuses on the intersection of EU funding, cultural activism and enlargement. Her expertise is in European cultural policy, cultural heritage, Southeast Europe and European identity formation. More than a Monologue: Sexual Diversity and the Catholic Church J. Patrick Hornbeck II, Michael A. Norko, 2014-03-03 This volume like its companion Voices of Our Times collects essays drawn from a series of public conferences held in autumn 2011 entitled More than a Monologue. The series was the fruit of collaboration among four institutions of higher learning: two Catholic universities and two nondenominational divinity schools. The conferences aimed to raise awareness of and advance informed, compassionate and dialogical conversation about issues of sexual diversity within the Catholic community as well as in the broader civic worlds that the Catholic Church and Catholic people inhabit. They generated fresh, rich sets of scholarly and reflective contributions that promise to take forward the delicate work of theological, ethical and ecclesial development. Along with Voices of Our Times, this volume captures insights from the conferences and aims to foster what the Jesuit Superior General Fr Adolfo Nicolás has called the depth of thought and imagination needed to engage effectively with complex realities, especially in areas marked by brokenness, pain and the need for healing. The volumes will serve as vital resources for understanding and addressing better the too often fraught relations between LGBTQ lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer persons their loved ones and allies and the Catholic community Inquiry Thought and Expression explores dimensions of ministry ethics theology and law related to a range of LGBTQ concerns including Catholic teaching its reception among the faithful and the Roman Catholic Church's significant role in world societies Within the volume a series of essays on ministry explores various perspectives not frequently heard within the church Marriage equality and the treatment of LGBTQ individuals by and within the Roman Catholic Church are considered from the vantage points of law ethics and theology Themes of language and discourse are explored in analyses of the place of sexual diversity in church history thought and authority The two volumes of More than a Monologue like the conferences from which they developed actively move beyond the monologic voice of the institutional church on the subject of LGBTQ issues inviting and promoting open conversations about sexual diversity and the church Those who read Inquiry Thought and Expression will encounter not just an excellent resource for research and teaching in the area of moral theology but also an opportunity to actively listen to and engage in groundbreaking discussions about faith and sexuality within and outside the Catholic Church

The Situated Politics of Belonging Nira Yuval-Davis, Kalpana Kannabiran, Ulrike Vieten, 2006-06-27 This collection of essays examines the racialized and gendered effects of contemporary politics of belonging issues which lie at the heart of contemporary political and social lives It encompasses critical questions of identity and citizenship inclusion and exclusion emotional attachments violent conflicts and local global relationships The range geographically thematically and theoretically covered by the chapters reflects current concerns in the world today A timely contribution to the ongoing debates in the field it will be a valuable companion to scholars working in the areas of multiculturalism globalisation and culture race and ethnic studies gender studies and studies of post partition societies

Lived Citizenship on the Edge of Society Hanne Warming, Kristian Fahnøe, 2017-07-12 This edited collection presents the concept of lived citizenship as a fruitful avenue for exploring the role played by social work practices in the lives of people in vulnerable positions The book centres on the everyday experiences through which people practice negotiate understand and feel their citizenship The authors offer both empirical analyses of how social work influences the rights obligations identities and belongings of children homeless people migrants ethnic minorities and young people with mental disabilities and a theoretical framework for analysing the complexities of social work Drawing on the notion of intimate citizenship and an understanding of citizenship as socio spatial the theoretical framework addresses the challenges of enhancing the agency of social work clients and of promoting inclusive citizenship and how these challenges are shaped by emotions affect rationality materiality power relations policies and managerial strategies Lived Citizenship on the Edge of Society will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including social policy and social work

The Edge of Desire Tuhin A. Sinha, 2012-08-07 When journalist Shruti Ranjan newly wed wife of the Deputy Commissioner of Kishanganj in the lawless Bihar of the 1990s is brutally raped by a politically sheltered local goon all of her attempts at getting justice are crushed by a corrupt and complicit state government That s when the charismatic Sharad Malviya a leading member of the Opposition party offers her an unlikely solution his party s ticket to contest the Lok Sabha elections Left with little to choose from Shruti agrees only to realize that being catapulted to an enviable position of power in an all man s world comes at a price Caught between her mentor and her spouse both upright but ultimately flawed men and a host of envious others who continue to cast aspersions on her character she struggles to address the larger problems of the country

The Edge of Sex Lisa Speidel, Micah Jones, 2019-11-27 The Edge of Sex is an anthology of voices from the margins bringing together 37 writers to discuss their experiences of sex and sex education in America The anthology explores often overlooked and excluded identities with pieces on sexuality and disabilities survivors of assault sex work as women of color kink and BDSM being Muslim and queer reproductive rights and the challenges of culture and identity when grappling with gender fluidity and gendered expectations As they trace the negative effects of a restrictive fear based sex education particularly on marginalized individuals these stories unearth larger themes tensions with race and religion expectations from heteronormative society and pressures of femininity and masculinity Importantly they also highlight the resilience and empowerment of marginalized individuals within a culture designed to ostracize them The rich diverse and intersectional stories of The Edge of Sex paint a contextualized picture of sex education and make an urgent case for better representation and more inclusive consistent and comprehensive content By reading this anthology casual readers may learn more about their sexual selves clinicians can apply the material to their practices with clients and educators and students can expand their knowledge of feminist theory intersectional theory queer theory and sex education

The Edge of the Law Jacinto Cuví,2025-06-16 How street vendors tangle with the law in S o Paulo Brazil The daily delights and conveniences that any city dweller has become accustomed to such as cold water bottles on a summer afternoon in the park or a popsicle from a tray while you re sitting in traffic do not come cheap for those offering them With a little initiative and very little startup money an enterprising individual might sell you any of these things Such vendors form a significant share of the workforce in S o Paulo Brazil Some have the right to practice their trade others do not In The Edge of the Law sociologist Jacinto Cuví introduces us to this world of street vendors to tease out the relationship between constructions of legality and the experience of citizenship As the government undertakes a large scale plan to cancel street vending licenses and evict street vendors Cuví reveals how the rights of informal workers can be revoked or withheld and how the lines can be redrawn between those whose work is legal and those who work running from the police Alongside the mechanics of disenfranchisement Cuví captures the lived experience of criminalization dissecting the distribution of shallow rights among these vendors as they continually reinvent strategies to etch out a living while dealing with the constraints and pressures of informal citizenship at the edge of the law

On the Edge of Infinity Clemens Cavallin,2019-03-25 This book tells the story of Michael O'Brien one of the most popular Catholic novelists and painters of our times It covers his life from his childhood in the Canadian Arctic to the crucial decision in 1976 to devote himself wholly to Christian sacred arts followed by his inspiration to write fiction and his best selling apocalyptic novel Father Elijah The story then continues to the present with explorations of O'Brien's other works O'Brien's life is one of struggle against all odds to reestablish Christian culture in the materialist void created by the modern Western world It is a timely reminder of hope in trials and sufferings of endurance during marginalization and poverty This is the first biography of O'Brien and it also provides an introduction to his novels paintings and essays The author Clemens Cavallin was granted unrestricted access to Michael O'Brien's personal archive including his diary from the late 1970s until the present day By revealing sides of O'Brien's interior creative life including mystical experiences spiritual battles and illuminations he has painted a portrait of a contemporary visual and literary artist whose inspiration arises from an intense fusion of imagination and active faith

The Edge of Law Alex Jeffrey,2019-12-19 The Edge of Law explores the spatial implications of establishing a new legal institution in the wake of violent conflict Using the example of the establishment of the War Crimes Chamber of the Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina Alex Jeffrey argues that legal processes constantly demarcate a line of inclusion and exclusion materially territorially and corporally In contrast to accounts that have focused on the judicial outcomes of these transitional justice efforts The Edge of Law draws on long term fieldwork in Bosnia and Herzegovina to focus on the social and political consequences of the trials tracing the fraught mechanisms that have been used by international and local political elites to convey their legitimacy This book will be of interest to socio legal and geographical scholars working in the fields of transitional justice legal systems critical geopolitics and criminology
