Trans Rights and Wrongs Isabel C. Jaramillo, Laura

Carlson, 2021-06-23 This book maps various national legal responses to gender mobility including sex and name registration access to gender modification interventions and anti discrimination protection or lack thereof and regulations The importance of the underlying legislation and history is underlined in order to understand the law's functions concerning discrimination, exclusion and violence as well as the problematic nature of introducing biology into the regulation of human relations and using it to justify pain and suffering. The respective chapters also highlight how various governmental authorities as well as civil society have been integral in fostering or impeding the welfare of trans persons from judges and legislators to medical commissions and law students. A collective effort of scholars scattered around the globe, this book recognizes the international trend toward self-determination in sex classification and a generous guarantee of rights for individuals expressing diverse gender identities. The book advocates the dissemination of a model for the protection of rights that not only focuses on formal equality but also addresses the administrative obstacles that trans persons face in their daily lives. In addition, it underscores the importance of courts in either advancing or obstructing the realization of individual rights.

Developing Materials for Innovative Teaching and Sustainable Learning Andrzej Cirocki, Raichle Farrelly, Taylor Sapp, 2024-10-30. This volume features current innovative and effective ways of developing instructional materials for diverse English Language Teaching (ELT) contexts. It is divided into four sections, each featuring pedagogical materials designed for specific groups of learners. The sections focus on materials for general English, ESP and EAP, CLIL and ELT teacher education courses. The chapters, written by experienced educators from around the world, are highly practical and detail the process of designing materials for innovative and sustainable language education. The contributors reflect on their own practice, describe the materials design process, explain the guiding principles and connect the design process with the local context and educational policies. They also offer practical tips to inspire classroom practitioners to create their own materials promoting innovative teaching and sustainable learning. Ultimately, their chapters aim to encourage a world where teaching involves creativity and adaptability, leading to transformative learning for both teachers and learners.

Security, Education and Development in Contemporary Africa M. Raymond Izarali, Oliver Masakure, Edward Shizha, 2016-12-01. This volume delineates the critical link among security, education and development in Africa and provides a multidisciplinary framework of analyses and possible solutions. Africa has had a long history that embodies layers of mass-scale criminality and exploitation, not merely from neocolonial and apartheid policies but also from political greed. This has impacted adversely on security, education and development in a way that deprivation of education and underdevelopment in turn re-creates security issues. The volume aims firstly to help augment scholarly inquiry into the nexus among security, education and development through the multidisciplinary framework of analyses; secondly to provide policymakers and educators with tools and a framework to comprehend the complexity and magnitude of the issues to which they ought to be sensitive and respond; and finally to provide caregivers and childcare agencies of the state a comprehensible framework of underlying multifaceted sources of trauma experienced by children in extraordinary circumstances. It is organized in four sections: theoretical conceptualization on security and development; country cases on security and development; security and educational development and country cases on security and education Serving as a significant compass to understand and respond to the complex interplay and impact of security education and development in Africa it is of great use to graduates and scholars interested in Africa Politics IPE security studies and development studies      Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law Charles J. Russo, 2013-07-11 The Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law addresses legal issues from institutions of higher learning in seventeen countries on all six inhabited continents in a reader friendly manner All chapters follow the same outline on institutional issues faculty rights student rights and emerging issues so that similarities and differences can be compared An introductory chapter provides an overview on the legal status of higher education as selected in various international covenants In addition a concluding chapter draws the themes addressed throughout the book together and centers on the concept of best practice management This book serves as valuable resource for educational practitioners in higher education insofar as it provides them with an enhanced awareness of strategies that are being used to manage problems commonly faced in multiple educational settings      The Law, Policy and Politics of the UN Human Rights Council Bertrand G. Ramcharan, 2015-05-19 The UN Human Rights Council is the leading human rights organ of the United Nations and ten years after it was established it has attracted commendation as well as severe criticism Its universal periodic review is widely recognized as a valuable process of international cooperation to advance the universal implementation of human rights However it has been criticized for not acting effectively and fairly in dealing with situations of shocking violations of human rights in many parts of the world It is an international organ with the highest responsibilities to uphold universal values but at the same time it is a political organ of United Nations Member States and it shows the characteristics of both a values based body and a theatre of political drama It is the merit of this book to present the Human Rights Council in terms of its mandates roles and organization while seeking to remind the membership and the international community at large that the Council must be anchored in the modern human rights law of the Charter of which the author gives a superb presentation The book then proceeds to make the case that human rights are part of international constitutional law and this is exceedingly important at a time when universal values have come under stress from various quarters including from terrorist formations The argument of the book is essentially that the modern human rights law of the Charter and the human rights provisions of international constitutional law must take precedence for everyone everywhere
