Dictionary of Media Literacy Ellen Eliceiri, Art Silverblatt, 1997-06-30 The Dictionary of Media Literacy is a reference work that contains key concepts, terms, organizations, issues, and individuals of note related to the field of media literacy. Media literacy is an international movement with many countries developing media literacy programs. This work significantly contributes to the study and understanding of this new and evolving field. In that we all live in a world in which we are inundated by information conveyed through the channels of mass communication, this dictionary will be a resource for scholars, students, and individuals seeking to understand information delivered in this context. Resources in Education, 1999-10 Proceedings of the 1990 Academy of Marketing Science (AMS) Annual Conference B. J. Dunlap, 2015-01-02 This volume includes the full proceedings from the 1990 Academy of Marketing Science AMS Annual Conference held in New Orleans, Louisiana. The research and presentations offered in this volume cover many aspects of marketing science, including marketing strategy, consumer behavior, international marketing, industrial marketing, marketing education, among others. Founded in 1971, the Academy of Marketing Science is an international organization dedicated to promoting timely explorations of phenomena related to the science of marketing in theory, research, and practice. Among its services to members and the community at large, the Academy offers conferences, congresses, and symposia that attract delegates from around the world. Presentations from these events are published in this Proceedings series, which offers a comprehensive archive of volumes reflecting the evolution of the field. Volumes deliver cutting-edge research and insights complementing the Academy's flagship journals, Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science (JAMS) and AMS Review. Volumes are edited by leading scholars and practitioners across a wide range of subject areas in marketing science. Advances in Information Systems Research, Education and Practice David Avison, George M.
