Christian Theology for a Secular Society Mark G. McKim, 2008-01-01 It's hard to be the only one That single sentence from a teenage congregant sums up the conviction that motivated Christian Theology for a Secular Society In these dying days of Christendom the reality that most Western Christians face is living out their faith as a minority in the midst of a culture that is at every level personal institutional and societal secular in nature While most living in Western societies still affirm belief in God and often other vaguely recognizable Christian beliefs these affirmations frequently have little to do with how daily life is lived The idea that the God best known to us in Jesus Christ is actually in charge of life is foreign For most Christianity simply does not form an overarching system of meaning that shapes life Instead life is lived largely without reference to God And to live any other way is often hard In this volume Mark McKim sets out to do theology in this context How does one explain the core historic Christian doctrines in a way that makes sense in a secular culture and in a way that will gain a hearing What does it mean to be the church in this new situation Throughout McKim asks the question so what as he relates Christian teachings to a secular society and to what is actually happening in the local church McKim's goal is to enable the singing of the Lord's song in the new and strange land of a secular society

The Study of Theology Richard A. Muller, 1991 The Study of Theology address two major concerns the place of biblical hermeneutics and practical theology The author discusses the hermeneutical implications of biblical historical systematic and practical theology and presents a case for the relationship between exegesis and the other theological disciplines However the relationship between hermeneutics and practical theology is also essential According to the author the traditional forms of theology and preaching frequently fail the tests of exegesis and contemporary theologizing while at the same time most contemporary theology and exegesis fails to address directly the needs of the church Muller presents a case for the structure of hermeneutics and argues that it is essential to the church because theological training as a whole ought to reflect the life of the church and be of value to the life of the church

Smith III, 2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles First Corinthians Bible Commentary - a Bible commentary on First Corinthians , This verse by verse commentary on First Corinthians offers a thorough but very understandable commentary on the entirety of Paul s letter to the Corinthians Since the First Corinthians letter touches on a number of different subjects this volume also offers some special studies to more fully explore what the Bible says on additional topics like civil government the role of women in the church spiritual gifts etc If you want to have a better understanding of First Corinthians this commentary will help you Here is a small sample of the text Introduction to First Corinthians 13 Some consider 1 Cor 13 the love chapter of the Bible or a parenthetical description of love but this chapter is actually an integral part of Paul s discussion about spiritual gifts Since the Corinthians were rude jealous and boastful it was necessary for them to go beyond their present pursuit To the apostle the development of the character of the person was superior to the exercise of the gift His contrasts chap 13 are clear gifts without love vs gifts with love and the permanence of love vs the temporal nature of gifts Gromacki p 159 Stated another way verses 1 3 affirm that spiritual gifts were worthless without love verses 4 7 affirm that love was superior to the gifts and verses 8 13 assert that spiritual gifts were temporal but love abides Although 1 Cor 13 may seem familiar to many this chapter is often one of the most misunderstood parts of the New Testament The Corinthians elevation of spiritual gifts over love is seen in places such as 12 13 25 14 27 33 40 It is also found by contrasting the qualities in 1 Cor 13 with other sections of this epistle For instance love suffers long 13 4 but tongue speakers at Corinth were impatient 14 27 28 Love does not envy 13 4 but the Corinthians envied the gifts of others chapter 12 Love is not puffed up 13 4 but tongue speakers were proud compare 13 1 Love causes people to act in a kind and orderly way but some of the Corinthians behavior was disorderly 14 23 40 Love is not unseemly but the Corinthians were at risk of unseemly behavior in their families 1 Cor 7 36 as well as their Sunday assemblies 1 Cor 11 2 16 17 34 Agape love does not seek its own 13 5 but these Christians were seeking their own see 1 Cor 8 and the discussion about idol meat Love keeps people from rejoicing in evil 13 6 but the Corinthians rejoiced in evil 1 Cor 5 2 6 There were various things that provoked these brethren 13 5 and it seems they were keeping a record of evil 1 Cor 13 5 It was time for the members of this congregation to show some spiritual maturity and demonstrate the type of love that bears all things believes all things hopes in all things and endures all things 1 Cor 13 7      Christian Education ,1929
