ESP Today Pauline C. Robinson, 1991-01-01 Teacher Education for Languages for Specific Purposes Ron Howard, Gillian Brown, 1997 This work summarizes and synthesizes the substantial crime prevention literature to provide an approachable and comprehensive text for students It sets out a critical analysis in the context of the politics of criminal justice policy Practitioner Agency and Identity in English for Academic Purposes Alex Ding, Laetitia Monbec, 2024-05-02 This volume provides insights into EAP practitioners identity and agency in varied contexts and field positions Each chapter delves into a theoretical perspective Bourdieu s field theory Post humanism Legitimation Code Theory Symbolic Interactionism and a variety of methodologies enabling different questions to be explored Each chapter is also a window into the everyday life of practitioners as they navigate their professional lives and the specificities of their EAP contexts the politics and struggles over power domination legitimacy status ambition and recognition The authors concerns and strategies vary and show that the weight of powerful structures and collective habitus is difficult but not impossible to resist From a socio analysis of EAP and its narratives of origins to a discussion on Ethics in EAP and a critique of the Global South label the reader will explore contributions from Canada Hong Kong Malaysia Pakistan Singapore South Africa the UK and Zimbabwe The chapters reveal a field which is made up of a constellation of worlds each with its own logic but importantly a field with no centre The studies in the chapters are likely to intrigue inspire but also disrupt some readers expectations and challenge their assumptions about the field and its practitioners English for Academic Purposes R. Multilingualism Sarah Buschfeld, Patricia Ronan, Manuela Vida-Mannl, 2023-11-25 This textbook takes a broad perspective on multilingualism using a sociolinguistics and acquisition informed approach that treats multilingualism not solely as the mastery of two or more well defined language systems but rather as a continuum of linguistic repertoires and resources to be used in different settings and combinations The authors introduce traditional aspects of multilingualism including historical dimensions societal and individual multilingualism aspects of identities ideologies education and language policies before going on to examine newer manifestations such as multilingualism in migrant and refugee contexts in new media pop music and linguistic landscaping as well as the notion of grassroots multilingualism This textbook will be an ideal resource for postgraduate students of linguistics and multilingualism as well as advanced undergraduate students who are looking for a nuanced and holistic approach to the topic

Vistas of English for Specific Purposes Nadežda Stojković, 2015-10-05 English for Specific Purposes ESP is one of the most needed forms of English Language Teaching with regards to the adult population in today s global market economy where the English language is a prerequisite for the exchange and communication of professional ideas best practices and experiences and a necessary skill for advancement in one s career This comprehensive volume brings together the most insightful papers from the First International Conference on Teaching English for Specific and Academic Purposes titled Connect and Share held at the Faculty of Electronic Engineering of the University of Ni Serbia in May 2013 The collection covers a diverse and extensive list of topics and provides a number of invaluable contributions which prove the presence of ESP in all continents and in many different professions sciences and businesses Also of interest is the fact these papers highlight the interrelatedness of ESP and linguistics the methodology of teaching sociolinguistics and a number of other fields relevant to the study and practice of languages The chapters of this book prove that immense original creative and worthwhile research is being conducted in the ever growing and increasingly relevant field of ESP At the same time the book also offers rich insights into many innovative teaching practices that justify ESP as an important area of academic study

Contextualizing English for Academic Purposes in Higher Education Ian Bruce, Bee Bond, 2022-07-28 This book highlights the centrality of political and ideological issues as they relate to the positioning and practice of English for Academic Purposes EAP demonstrating that EAP cannot flourish as a profession or a discipline without an awareness of the macro and meso level political shifts that impact the wider university The volume states that the practices of EAP are in fact political acts and examines these as yet unexplored power dynamics The volume begins by considering key influences that have shaped universities and their governance and management over the last three decades and how these relate to the role and practice of EAP These influences include neoliberal economic policies governmental demands for widening participation globalization entrepreneurial approaches to higher education students as clients and therapeutism in universities Following consideration of these broader contextual issues specific chapters focus on politics and policies surrounding the recruitment and participation of international fee paying students their positioning and identity within English medium universities including issues relating to English language standards and academic integrity Further chapters then consider more local influences that shape EAP programmes such as their strategic roles within universities their management their teaching and wider academic impact

English for Academic Purposes Douglas E. Bell, 2024-09-10 Since its inception in the 1960s the field of English for Academic Purposes EAP has enjoyed a period of almost continual expansion and growth and now represents a multi million dollar industry worldwide This book provides readers with a critical and comprehensive overview of EAP's birth its historical development and its ongoing trajectory incorporating along the way the views of individuals who have played key roles in the field It examines a wide range of crucial topics in EAP including pedagogy materials and assessment and the role of EAP and those who teach it within the academy The book concludes with a glimpse into the future as the author discusses the strengths weaknesses and opportunities currently facing EAP and also evaluates some of the threats posed by issues such as privatisation and generative AI

Native and Non-Native Teacher Talk in the EFL Classroom Eric Nicaise, 2020-11-11 Native and Non Native Teacher Talk in the EFL Classroom explores and compares the linguistic features of native and non native English teacher talk with the aid of corpus linguistics Setting aside the wide range of audio and video materials available the EFL teacher is in many instances the main model of English to which students are exposed in secondary level education The basis of this book is to work towards a framework for the language that teachers of English need to be proficient in based on an empirical study of language used in the ELT classroom by both native and expert non native users Presenting a corpus informed treatment of the precise linguistic features used by EFL teachers within the framework of their most common teaching functions this book Relates directly to the teacher talk of secondary level EFL teachers Combines quantitative and qualitative approaches to data analysis Looks into pedagogical implications for ELT and proposes a flexible language development model based on evidence from the teacher training classroom Provides a corpus based repertoire of language for the classroom which is of relevance to native and non native student teachers and practising teachers Highlighting the need for much greater awareness of the impact of language use in both learning and teaching this book is a major resource for advanced students and researchers of TESOL classroom discourse corpus linguistics ELT English for professional purposes and teaching placement preparation Linguistic Studies in Academic and Professional English Juan Carlos Palmer Silveira,2004 A collection of articles that tries to reflect the relevance of the research on specific English The book will be an interesting resource for students and teachers of English as well as for professionals who wish to learn more about specific English University English for Academic Purposes in China Xiaofei Rao,2018-07-07 This book uses an in depth phenomenological interview approach to explain the generational characteristics of today s Chinese university youths and the critical dispositions they believe indispensable in acquiring English as an academic language in and outside school settings By presenting the authentic voices of the recruited participants the book clarifies how English for academic purposes EAP as an emerging global phenomenon and a research informed practice enables and empowers them for conscious self transformation and critical awareness development through language study The book also explores issues arising in the fields of general English language teaching as well as traditional and critical EAP and discusses university English language learners learning needs and rights The book further promotes a dynamic and transformative University EAP pedagogy of particularity practicality and possibility moving from the oppression of language education to its liberation and the increasing critical consciousness among the present and future university youths in a time of great social changes

Information Technology in Languages for Specific Purposes Elisabet Arnó Macià,Antonia Soler Cervera,Carmen Rueda Ramos,2006-10-13 I first used the Internet in fall 1993 as a Fulbright Scholar at Charles University in Prague I immediately recognized that the Internet would radically transform second language teaching and learning and within a year had written my first book on the topic E Mail for English Teaching The book galvanized a wave of growing interest in the relationship of the Internet to language learning and was soon followed by many more books on the topic by applied linguists or educators This volume though represents one of the first that specifically analyzes the relationship of new technologies to the teaching of languages for specific purposes LSP and in doing so makes an important contribution The overall impact of information and communication technology ICT on second language learning can be summarized in two ways both of which have special significance for teaching LSP First ICT has transformed the context of language learning The stunning growth of the Internet resulting in 24 trillion email messages sent in 2005 and more than 600 billion Web pages and 50 million blogs online in the same year has helped make possible the development of English as the world's first global language Ease
