Essays In Aesthetic Education:

Essays on Aesthetic Education for the 21st Century, 2010-01-01 Essays on Aesthetic Education for the 21st Century co edited by Tracie Costantino and Boyd White brings together an international collection of authors representing diverse viewpoints to engage in dialogue about the ongoing critical relevance of aesthetics for contemporary art education Inspired by a conference symposium in which the four authors in the first section of the text titled Initiating a Dialogue explore a range of concepts including aesthetic experience beauty wonder and aesthetics this book enlarges the dialogue with eight additional chapters by authors from North America and Europe In addition to chapters that address issues of social awareness curriculum theory and research and applications to practice with pre service teachers there are several chapters that acknowledge historical influences on current notions of aesthetics as a basis on which to open the gate into the twenty first century This book will be a valuable resource for graduate students in art education and curriculum studies as well as practicing art educators pre service teachers and anyone interested in the significance of aesthetics not only in contemporary art education but the wider field of general education as well

Aa is for Aesthetic (RLE Edu K) Peter Abbs, 2012-05-16 This volume reaffirms the indispensable place of the arts in any coherent curriculum The author hopes that the specific arguments formulated in the book will advance the conservationist post Modernist aesthetic Enlightened Cherishing

Harry S. Broudy, 1994 Essays in Aesthetic Education David Swanger, 1990-01-01 This collection treats the topic of the situation of the arts in Western and specifically American culture The book s main purpose is to explain and in part remedy the anomalous position of the arts in US culture and consequently in the US educational system It examines the relationship between art and ideology epistemology and education it also wrestles with the problem of morality and art and discusses new ways to approach the arts in education The work incorporates close readings of Plato Coleridge Dewey and Read on the arts

A is for Aesthetic Peter Abbs, 2012 Culture and the Arts in Education Ralph Alexander Smith, 2006-01-21 This collection of Ralph Smith s writings provides a comprehensive overview of his extraordinary contributions to understanding the importance of aesthetics in education These essays record his lifelong efforts to construct a defensible rationale for the arts in general education and a workable curriculum for art education in our public schools K 16 The topics covered range from liberal education to arts education the relationship of art aesthetics and aesthetic education to teaching and curriculum the arts and the humanities and cultural diversity The Claims of Feeling Malcolm Ross, 1989 The essays in this book address a range of issues of the moment and although ranging widely across the field of aesthetic education have a strong sense of identity A commitment to the unique role of the arts in education as ways of knowing is made clear Key Concepts Trevor Pateman, 2016-05-05 First published in 1991 The arts can only thrive in a culture where there is conversation about them This is particularly true of the arts in an education context Yet often the discussion is poor because we do not have the necessary concepts for the elaboration of our aesthetic responses or sufficient familiarity with the contending schools of interpretation The aim of Key Concepts is to engender a broad and informed conversation about the arts By means of over sixty alphabetically ordered essays the author offers a map of aesthetics critical theory and the arts in education The essays are both informative and argumentative with cross references a supporting bibliography and suggestions for further reading Essays on Art Education in India And Others BABU NAMBOODIRI K,2020-08-18 In the writings based on factual incidents space and time are the relevant factors when describing it in the view of making it into a historical action Also the background of the writer the writer s wisdom on the particular issue describing and the writer s ability on narration of incidents accurately bound to space and time his psychological attitude towards the happenings in his surroundings most of the time without his own involvement are certain elements of relevance here Even though the historical happenings are of unique characteristics and its nature of existence with similar altitude unchangingly forever the sincere studios activities towards its objectiveness can establish the real time facts even to the future generations ever after centuries When we engage in deep studies with curiosity and a special inborn interest towards art the studios beings get a clear idea of the differences between factual incidences and documented evidences of incidents These kinds of arrivals at falsely fabricated ideas on the historical scenarios follows loss of believability on documentations and established versions of incidents The process of historical development has attracted me because it is propagated to maintain time space objectivity bound relations towards various objectivities These are some of the factors that directed and confirmed my arrival at these kinds of creative destinations

The Necessity of Aesthetic Education Laura D'Olimpio,2024-04-04 The Necessity of Aesthetic Education is a manifesto That which is experienced through engagement with art through the many various and diverse art forms and media is uniquely and essentially valuable to the lives of human beings In order to fully appreciate and gain the most out of the arts which offer a variety of aesthetic experience there are concepts skills and techniques integral to such understanding In this book Laura D Olimpio argues that aesthetic education ought to be a compulsory part of education for all school aged students from pre primary to high school on the basis of its distinctive value Such an argument is timely given the so called crisis in the arts and humanities with declining student numbers in subjects that do not have a direct vocational correlative and increased focus on science engineering technology and mathematics STEM subjects As funding cuts increasingly slash the support for the arts there is a need to argue for why the arts and arts education is valuable for their own sake as well as for the positive contributions they can and do make to society Through critical engagement with a range of thinkers including Maxine Greene John Dewey and Elliot Eisner D Olimpio offers a unique and important contribution to aesthetic education and to research within philosophy of education Art Education, Its Philosophy and Psychology Thomas Munro,1956

Rethinking Art Education Research through the Essay Stephen M. Morrow,2021-09-29 This book explores the pedagogical applications of critical thinking in art education and scholarship In the first part of the book the author delves into the ways that arts based educational research has incorporated critical thinking in order to illuminate the context for the subsequent study The second half of the book focuses on the essay as a genre used in creative nonfiction and film in order to enact the concept of critical thinking in art education In this way the book sheds light on a new landscape of thinking arts education and thinking scholarship through the essay that is practiced in creative nonfiction and cinema

Postmodern Dilemmas Jan Jagodzinski, 2019-08-22 In Postmodern Dilemmas Outrageous Essays in Art Art Education and Punk Deconstruction Experimental Writings in Art Art Education jan jagodzinski presents a series of essays covering a timespan of approximately ten years These essays chart the theory and practice of art art education as it relates to issues of postmodernity and poststructuralism concerning representation identity politics consumerism postmodern architecture ecology phallogentrism of the artistic canon pluriculturalism media and technology and AIDS As a former editor of The Journal of Social Theory in Art Education and a founding member for the Caucus on Social Theory in Art Education the author attempts to deconstruct the current art education paradigm which is largely based on modernist tenets and to reorient art education practice to social issues as developed in both media education and cultural studies Part of the intent in these two volumes is to undertake a sustained critique of the 1982 Art in the Mainstream A I M statement which continues to be considered as the core value for art education The distinct intention of this critique is to put forward a new value base for art art education in these postmodern times Many of the essays raise the need to be attentive to sex gender issues in art education and the need to read the artistic discourse otherwise There is a sustained critique of the art programs developed by the Getty Center for the Arts whose arts curriculum presents the paradigm case of late modernist thinking Some essays are written in a provocative form that tries to accommodate such content This is particularly the case in Punk Deconstruction where architectural discourse is deconstructed and which includes an artistic performance given by the author in 1987 This singular set of volumes combines scholarship in the areas of gender studies aesthetics art history art education poststructuralism and cultural studies in a unique blend of theory and practice for rethinking the field of art education

The Other Historical Essays Frederick Schiller, 2016-08-31 These historical essays were actually an occasion for Schiller to analyze according to his own criteria the greatness and frailties of past rulers This profiling of men in command and their government are dealt in essays such as Memorable facts about the life of Marshall of Vieilleville History of the turmoil in France which preceded the ascension of Henry IV The government of the Jesuits in Paraguay or Overview of the most remarkable state events in the times of Emperor Frederick I These essays are completed with other historical fragments and articles on the subject of Universal History

Zehou Li and the Aesthetics of Educational Maturity Flora Liying Wei, 2022-09-19 This book articulates a unique conception of aesthetic educational philosophy and its relation to the Chinese world drawing on the works of the prominent contemporary Chinese philosopher Zehou Li The book outlines an aesthetics approach to educational maturity that recognises both the contributions of Western Enlightenment ideals and Chinese traditions paving the way for an inclusive and post comparative philosophy It offers a nuanced discussion of Zehou Li's thought and how his work can be framed at the border between traditional and modern China between China and the West The book combines a discussion of aesthetics with educational theory and considers their combined implications for educational practice in particular in the first person perspectives of students parents and teachers in both local and global contexts Providing a way of doing philosophy of education that carefully considers interactions and overlaps between Western and Chinese civilisation the book will be of great interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of educational philosophy educational theory and Chinese and cross cultural philosophy
