Three Decades of Engendering History Antonia I. Castaneda, 2014-12-15 For over three decades the work of Antonia I Casta eda has shaped the fields of Western History and Chicana Studies From her early articles on Chicana representation and political economy to her most recent work mapping gendered violence and gendered resistance in the history of the U S Southwest her work is consistently taught in classrooms and cited extensively Yet Casta eda s work has been scattered throughout journals and anthologies a paper chase for historians to track down Three Decades of Engendering History ends the chase This volume edited by Linda Heidenreich collects ten of Casta eda s best articles including the widely circulated article Engendering the History of Alta California 1769 1848 in which she took a direct and honest look at sex and gender relations in colonial California Demonstrating that there is no romantic past to which we can turn she exposed stories of violence against women as well as stories of survival and resistance Other articles included are the prize winning Women of Color and the Rewriting of Western History and two recent articles Lullabies y Canciones de Cuna and La Despedida The latter two represent Casta eda s most recent work excavating mapping and bringing forth the long and strong post WWII history of Tejanas Finally the volume includes three interviews with Antonia Casta eda conducted by Luz Mar a Gordillo that contribute the important narrative of her lived experiences political perspective her commitment to initiate and develop scholarship that highlights gender and Chicanas as a legitimate line of inquiry and her drive to center Chicanas as historical subjects      Essayists on the Essay Carl H. Klaus, Ned Stuckey-French, 2012-03-15 The first historically and internationally comprehensive collection of its kind Essayists on the Essay is a path breaking work that is nothing less than a richly varied sourcebook for anyone interested in the theory practice and art of the essay This unique work includes a selection of fifty distinctive pieces by American Canadian English European and South American essayists from Montaigne to the present many of which have not previously been anthologized or translated as well as a detailed bibliographical and thematic guide to hundreds of additional works about the essay From a buoyant introduction that provides a sweeping historical and analytic overview of essayists thinking about their genre a collective poetics of the essay to the detailed headnotes offering pointed information about both the essayists themselves and the anthologized selections to the richly detailed bibliographic sections Essayists on the Essay is essential to anyone who cares about the form This collection provides teachers scholars essayists and readers with the materials they need to take a fresh look at this important but often overlooked form that has for too long been relegated to the role of service genre used primarily to write about other more literary genres or to teach young people how to write Here in a single celebratory volume are four centuries of commentary and theory reminding us of the essay s storied history its international appeal and its relationship not just with poetry and fiction but also with radio film video and new media In Relation to the Whole Rackstraw Downes,2000 Essays about the role of art and the artist when they do not comply with the discourse of the mainstream Habermas and Literature Geoff Boucher,2021-06-03 Although Habermas has written about the cultural role of literature and about literary works he has not systematically articulated a literary critical method as a component of either communicative reason or post metaphysical thinking Habermas and Literature brings Habermasian concepts and categories into contact with aesthetic and cultural theories in and around the Frankfurt School and beyond Its central claim is that Habermas contribution to literary and cultural criticism is the concept of literary rationality and the notion that literature performs a key role in the formation of the modern social imaginary Habermas and Literature maintains that literary works have two faces discursive intervention in the public sphere and personal integration of imaginative disclosures that depend upon two modalities of literary reception critique and identification It develops the resulting literary theory through detailed discussion of the theories advanced by Habermas followed in each case by synthetic and reconstructive argumentation that brings the framework of communicative reason into dialogue with literary methods aesthetic theories and psychoanalytic categories It does so through close engagement with debates around aesthetic rationality world disclosure social imaginaries post secular society and the utopian demand for happiness articulated by artworks In the process the Habermasian position is critically reconstructed when necessary with reference to psychoanalytic and literary theories and tested in relation to demanding fiction and popular works Teaching

Suggestions for Essays of Three Decades Arno Lehmann Bader,1939 A Gorgon's Mask Lewis A. Lawson,2005 The thesis of A Gorgon s mask The Mother in Thomas Mann s Fiction depends upon three psychoanalytic concepts Freud s early work on the relationship between the infant and its mother and on the psychology of artistic creation Annie Reich s analysis of the grotesque comic sublimation and Edmund Bergler s analysis of writer s block Mann s crisis of sexual anxiety in late adolescence is presented as the defining moment for his entire artistic life In the throes of that crisis he included a sketch of a female as Gorgon in a book that would not escape his mother s notice But to defend himself from being overcome by the Gorgon mother s stare he employed the grotesque comic sublimation hiding the mother figure behind fictional characters physically attractive but psychologically repellent all the while couching his fiction in an ironic tone that evoked humor however lacking in humor the subtext might be In this manner he could deny to himself that the mother figure always lurked in his work and by that denial deny that he was a victim of oral regression For as Edmund Bergler argues the creative writer who acknowledges his oral dependency will inevitably succumb to writer's block Mann's late work reveals that his defense against the Gorgon is crumbling In Doctor Faustus Mann portrays Adrian Leverkühn as ultimately the victim of oral regression but the fact that Mann was able to compete the novel despite severe physical illness and psychological distress demonstrates that he himself was still holding writer's block at bay In Confessions of Felix Krull Confidence Man a narrative that he had abandoned forty years before Mann was finally forced to acknowledge that he was depleted of creative vitality but not of his capacity for irony brilliantly couching the victorious return of the repressed in ambiguity This study will be of interest to general readers who enjoy Mann's narrative art to students of Mann's work especially its psychological and mythological aspects and to students of the psychology of artistic creativity Letters of Thomas Mann, 1889-1955

Thomas Mann, 1990-01-01 Mann's pivotal role during the Nazi period as perhaps the most eloquent spokesman for the other Germany that lived in exile means that anyone studying the history of our century must begin with him These letters are literary and cultural documents that have few equals in our age James K Lyon University of California San Diego Mann's pivotal role during the Nazi period as perhaps the most eloquent spokesman for the other Germany that lived in exile means that anyone studying the history of our century must begin with him These letters are literary and cultural documents that have few equals in our age James K Lyon University of California San Diego The Mind in Exile Stanley

Corngold, 2024-11-19 A unique look at Thomas Mann's intellectual and political transformation during the crucial years of his exile in the United States In September 1938 Thomas Mann the Nobel Prize winning author of Death in Venice and The Magic Mountain fled Nazi Germany for the United States Heralded as the greatest living man of letters Mann settled in Princeton New Jersey where for nearly three years he was stunningly productive as a novelist university lecturer and public intellectual In The Mind in Exile Stanley Corngold portrays in vivid detail this crucial station in Mann's journey from arch European conservative to liberal conservative to ardent social democrat On the knife edge of an exile that would last fully fourteen years Mann declared Where I am there is Germany I carry my German culture in me At Princeton Mann nourished an authentic German culture that he furiously observed was going to the dogs under Hitler Here he wrote great chunks of his brilliant novel Lotte in Weimar The Beloved Returns the witty novella The Transposed Heads and the first chapters of Joseph the Provider which contain intimations of his beloved President Roosevelt's economic policies Each of Mann's university lectures on Goethe Freud Wagner attracted nearly 1 000 auditors among them the baseball catcher linguist and OSS spy Moe Berg Meanwhile Mann had the determination to travel throughout the United States where he delivered countless speeches in defense of democratic values In Princeton Mann exercised his stupendous capacity for work in a circle of friends all highly accomplished exiles including Hermann Broch Albert Einstein and Erich Kahler The Mind in Exile portrays this luminous constellation of intellectuals at an extraordinary time and place James Merrill, Postmodern Magus Evans Lansing Smith, 2008-09 One of the unique voices in our century James Merrill was known for his mastery of prosody his ability to write books that were not just collected poems but unified works in which each individual poem contributed to the whole and his astonishing evolution from the formalist lyric tradition that influenced his early work to the spiritual epics of his later career Merrill's accomplishments were recognized with a Pulitzer Prize in 1977 for Divine Comedies and a National Book Critics Circle Award in 1983 for The Changing Light at Sandover. In this meticulously researched carefully argued work Evans Lansing Smith argues that the nekya the circular Homeric narrative describing the descent into the underworld and reemergence in the same or similar place confers shape and significance upon the entirety of James Merrill's poetry. Smith illustrates how pervasive this myth is in Merrill's work not just in The Changing Light at Sandover where it naturally serves as the central premise of the entire trilogy but in all of the poet's books before and after that central text. By focusing on the details of versification and prosody Smith demonstrates the ingenious fusion of form and content that distinguishes Merrill as a poet. Moving beyond purely literary interpretations of the poetry Smith illuminates the numerous allusions to music art theology philosophy religion and mythology found throughout Merrill's work. Letters of Heinrich and Thomas Mann, 1900-1949 Thomas Mann, Heinrich Mann, 1998-01-01 Presents the correspondence of Thomas and Heinrich Mann

Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length. The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays. The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies. The Observing Self (Routledge Revivals) Graham Good, 2014-08-01 First published in 1988 this title is a study of the essay as a literary genre not just in terms of its general intellectual and literary history but as an exploration of the creative possibilities of the form. The rise of the essay is discussed in relation to the rise of the novel and the emergence of empiricism in science but the main focus of Graham Good's study is on the inner workings of the essay itself. Drawing on criticism by Adorno and Lukacs Graham Good presents the genre as an expression of individualism freed from tradition and authority in which the self constructs itself and its object through independent observation. Through analysis of the work of such essayists as Montaigne Bacon Virginia Woolf T S Eliot and George Orwell the potential of the genre for independence and individualism is illustrated and the essay is resituated as an intellectually challenging form of creative and critical writing.
