Making Modernism Soviet Pamela Kachurin,2013 This book provides an understanding of the ideological engagement of Russian modern artists such as Kazimir Malevich Alexander Rodchenko and Vera Ermolaeva with the political and social agenda of the Bolsheviks in the chaotic years immediately following the Russian Revolution Focusing on the relationship between power brokers and cultural institutions under conditions of state patronage the author lays to rest the myth of the imposition of control from above upon a victimized artistic community Drawing on extensive archival research she shows that Russian modernists used their positions within the expanding Soviet arts bureaucracy to build up networks of like minded colleagues Their commitment to one another and to the task of creating a socially transformative visual language for the new Soviet context allowed them to produce some of their most famous works of art But it also contributed to the Sovietization of the art world that eventually sealed their fate

Thomas Hirschhorn Christina Braun,2018-03-06 Thomas Hirschhorn a leading installation artist whose work is owned and exhibited by modern art museums throughout Europe and the United States is known for compelling often site specific and interactive environments tackling issues of critical theory global politics and consumerism His work initially engages the viewer through sheer superabundance Combining found images and texts bound up in handcrafted constructions of cardboard foil and packing tape the artworks reflect the intellectual scavenging and sensory overload that characterize our own attempts to grapple with the excess of information in daily life Christina Braun the first to compile and systematically analyze the extensive source material on this artist s theoretical principles sheds light on the complicated yet constitutive relations between Hirschhorn s work and theory Her study now translated into English makes a major contribution to the study of contemporary art

The Icon and the Square Maria Taroutina, 2018-11-26 In The Icon and the Square Maria Taroutina examines how the traditional interests of institutions such as the crown the church and the Imperial Academy of Arts temporarily aligned with the radical leftist and revolutionary avant garde at the turn of the twentieth century through a shared interest in the Byzantine past offering a counternarrative to prevailing notions of Russian modernism Focusing on the works of four different artists Mikhail Vrubel Vasily Kandinsky Kazimir Malevich and Vladimir Tatlin Taroutina shows how engagement with medieval pictorial traditions drove each artist to transform his own practice pushing beyond the established boundaries of his respective artistic and intellectual milieu She also contextualizes and complements her study of the work of these artists with an examination of the activities of a number of important cultural associations and institutions over the course of several decades As a result The Icon and the Square gives a more complete picture of Russian modernism one that attends to the dialogue between generations of artists curators collectors critics and theorists The Icon and the Square retrieves a neglected but vital history that was deliberately suppressed by the atheist Soviet regime and subsequently ignored in favor of the secular formalism of mainstream modernist criticism Taroutina's timely study which coincides with the centennial reassessments of Russian and Soviet modernism is sure to invigorate conversation among scholars of art history modernism and Russian culture Painting and Sculpture in Europe, 1880-1940 George Heard Hamilton, 1993-01-01 This new edition of a book that offers the best available grounding in its huge subject as the Sunday Times called it includes color plates and a revised and expanded bibliography Professor Hamilton traces the origins and growth of modern art assessing the intrinsic qualities of individual works and describing the social forces in play The result is an authoritative guide through the forest of artistic labels Impressionism and Expressionism Symbolism Cubism Constructivism Surrealism etc and to the achievements of Degas and Cezanne Ensor and Munch Matisse and Kandinsky Picasso Braque and Epstein Mondrian Dali Modigliani Utrillo and Chagall Klee Henry Moore and many other artists in a revolutionary age Arkography Gunnar Olsson, 2020-05-01 In this fascinating text Gunnar Olsson tells the story of an arkographer who with Pallas Athene's blessings travels down the Red River Valley navigates the Kantian Island of Truth and takes a house tour through the Crystal Palace the latter edifice an imagination grown out of Gunnael Jensson's sculpture Mappa Mundi Universalis This travel story carries the arkographer from the oldest creation epics extant to the power struggles of today nothing less than a codification of the taken for granted a mapping of the no man's land between the five senses of the body and the sixth sense of culture By constantly asking how we are made so obedient and predictable the explorer searches for the present day counterparts to the biblical ark the chest that held the commandments and the rules of behavior that came with them hence the term arkography a word hinting at an as yet unrecognized discipline In Arkography Olsson strips bare the governing techniques of self-declared authorities including those of the God of the Old Testament and countless dictators the latter supported by a horde of lackeys often disguised as elected representatives and governmental functionaries From beginning to end Arkography is an illustration of how every creation epic is a variation on the theme of chaos turning into cosmic order A palimpsest of layered meanings a play of things and relations identity and difference One and many you and me
