

Is Spiritism a religion? The answer is both yes and no. It is a religion in the sense that it is a system of beliefs and practices, but it is not a religion in the sense that it is not a faith in a supernatural power.

When a person is in a state of spiritual distress, it is often because they are not in touch with their own inner power. This is why it is so important to learn how to distinguish between good and bad spirits.

Good spirits are those that bring us peace and happiness. They are the spirits of the good and the just. Bad spirits are those that bring us pain and suffering. They are the spirits of the evil and the wicked.
