Strategic Review ,1988 dedicated to the advancement and understanding of those principles and practices military and political which serve the vital security interests of the United States

Red Air Sanu Kainikara,2007-10 The Russian Air Force carries the mantle of the erstwhile Red Air Force of the Soviet Union and has a long and illustrious history backed by grand traditions and customs The Russian Air Force is still coming to grips with its changed circumstances after the collapse of the Soviet Union and is perhaps in the best shape of the three armed forces to be able to lend credence to the Russian Federation s claim to international influence and power projection capabilities Doctrine is the reflection of a nation s character and air power doctrine is influenced by the strategic culture of a nation Nowhere else is this more apparent than in the case of the Russian Air Force The Red Air Force has been directly influenced by the political upheavals in the Soviet Union and now Russia but has displayed exemplary resilience in continuing to provide adequate support for government policies The impact of political ideology on the development of doctrine and air power has not been greater in any other air force around the world This book is an extension of a doctoral thesis produced in 2005 and is essential reading for anyone trying to come to grips with the intricate relationship that exists between national security imperatives political ideology and the development of military doctrine Back cover
