The Changing Image of the City Janet Rose Daly Bednarek,1992-01-01 The Changing Image of the City describes urban planning and development from the end of World War II to 1973 when major elements of the design of Nebraska s largest city were in place Janet Daly Bednarek shows how the approaches to planning shifted during a period that saw Omaha change from a hub of food processing and transportation to a postindustrial center dominated by insurance and by educational medical and other services Finally she surveys recent developments such as the Central Park Mall and the Old Market area in light of earlier plans and their implementation In considering the changes that have occurred in Omaha this book reveals much about the growth of professional urban planning in America In Omaha as elsewhere planners dealt with power brokers coped with rampant suburbanism and sprawling shopping malls searched for ways to reverse the inner city decay and concerned themselves with historic preservation beautification and quality of life Catalog of Copyright Entries.
