Friendly Classroom For A Small Planet:

Friendly Classroom for a Small Planet Children Creative Staff,1993-01-01 The Friendly Classroom for a Small Planet Priscilla Prutzman,1978 The Friendly Classroom for a Small Planet Children's Creative Response to Conflict Program Staff,Priscilla Prutzman,Children's Creative Response to Conflict Program,1992-01-01 Keeping the Peace Susanne Wichert,1998-07-01 Keeping the Peace is a handbook for parents daycare providers kindergarten teachers and playgroup leaders striving to create harmonious groups bolster children s self esteem and foster cooperative and creative interactions between kids aged from two and a half to six It includes carefully designed and clearly presented activities anecdotes from the author s own extensive journals and the theories behind the design Books, Not Bombs Charles F. Howlett,Ian Harris,2010-12-01 Books Not Bombs Teaching Peace Since the Dawn of the Republic is an important work relevant to peace scholars practitioners and students This incisive book offers an exciting and comprehensive historical analysis of the origins and development of peace education from the creation of the New Republic at the end of the Eighteenth Century to the beginning of the Twenty First century It examines efforts to educate the American populace young and old both inside the classroom and outside in terms of peace societies and endowed organizations While many in the field of peace education focus their energies on conflict resolution and teaching peace pedagogically Books Not Bombs approaches the topic from an entirely new perspective It undertakes a thorough examination of the evolution of peace ideology within the context of opposing war and promoting social justice inside and outside schoolhouse gates It seeks to offer explanations on how attempts to prevent violence have been communicated through the lens of history Cross Curricular Contexts, Themes And Dimensions In Primary Schools Gajendra K. Verma,2005-06-21 The final volume of four the authors consider how the concerns of ethnic groups may be addressed within the framework of the National Curriculum Despite the indecision surrounding primary school curriculum it remains that the multicultural nature of the population and of schools will develop Counselling Helen Cowie,Andrea Pecherek,2017-09-18 Originally published in 1994 the main function of this book was to provide to counsellors trainee counsellors and teachers with pastoral care responsibilities the knowledge and skills to support effective counselling By drawing on their extensive pastoral and counselling experience gained in education and counselling the authors produced a work which will also appeal to others involved in the care and protection of children and young people including educational social workers nurses the police and educational psychologists The authors integrate the development of counselling skills with a reflective stance on issues approaches and ideas They seek thus to increase the readers capacity to work sensitively and imaginatively with their clients the sometimes troubled children and young people in primary and secondary schools Horrendous Death and Health Daniel Leviton,1991 Some kinds of death are caused by people deliberately or accidentally This work argues that horrendous death by war homicide poverty and other man made means is the greatest public health problem of our time and can only be defeated by strong co operative action Professionalization, Partnership, and Power Hugh G. Petrie,1995-01-01 Provides insights into and results of a wide variety of experiments with professional development schools in the field of education Spiritual and Political Dimensions of Nonviolence and Peace ,2006-01-01 This book is a collection of philosophical papers that explores theoretical and practical aspects and implications of nonviolence as a means of establishing peace The papers range from spiritual and political dimensions of nonviolence to issues of justice and values and proposals for action and change Peace Education from the Grassroots Ian Harris,2013-09-01 Historians often ignore the day to day struggles of ordinary people to improve their lives They tend to focus on the accomplishments of illustrious leaders Peace Education from the Grassroots tells the stories of concerned citizens teachers and grassroots peace activists who have struggled to counteract high levels of violence by teaching about the sources for violence and strategies for peace The stories told here come from the grass roots meaning the educators are close to the forms of violence they are addressing This collection of essays tells how citizens at the grassroots level developed peace education initiatives in thirteen different nations Belgium Canada El Salvador Germany India Jamaica Japan Mexico the Philippines South Korea Spain Uganda and the United States A fourteenth article describes the efforts of the International Red Cross to implement a human rights curriculum to teachers on the ground in the Balkans Iran Senegal and the United Sates These chapters describe a variety of schools colleges peace movement organizations community based organizations and international nongovernmental organizations engaged in peace education Elise Boulding Mary Lee Morrison,2015-09-15 Elise Boulding has been among the most influential of social reformers to advocate the integration of peace studies and women s studies Her ideas inspired a number of works addressing the role of the family in producing social change and discussing women s unique capacity for promoting peace through nurturing and networking Boulding s additional ideas on transnational networks and their relationship to global understanding are considered seminal contributions to modern peace studies and have earned her the title of matriarch of the 20th century peace movement This biography is divided into three parts The first and third deal chronologically with the life of Elise Boulding beginning with her childhood experiences as a Scandinavian immigrant The 1940 Nazi invasion of Norway significantly influenced her concepts of pacifism and Quaker spiritualism laying the foundation for her future work as a leader in the Women s International League for Peace and Freedom and her dynamic professional partnership with and marriage to the internationally known Quaker economist and poet Kenneth Boulding Part Two expounds upon Boulding s philosophy of education her role as a member of the Religious Society of Friends her espousal of the conceptual evolution of cultures of peace and her theoretical work in women s studies and peace research In recognition of these achievements Boulding has been the recipient of more than 19 awards and was a 1990 nominee for the Nobel Peace Prize The Practice of Facilitation Harry M. Webne-Behrman,1998-07-28 A practical guide for those who facilitate group interactions within any public or private organization this book gives specific strategies for conducting effective meetings resolving conflicts within a group and building consensus among group members and managing the work of groups over time Webne Behrman unique combination of practical advice and conceptual analysis With examples from his extensive consulting experience and case studies from other sources this book will be of value not only to experienced facilitators mediators and consultants but also to executives and managers who need to become familiar with group facilitation Webne Behrman points out that a facilitator is actually a manager of a group within an organization an important and diversified role Not only do facilitators lead work teams in solving complex business problems but in the public sector they help resolve problems that may have rendered communities inoperative They also manage interpersonal disputes to improve working relationships and help build consensus on contentious social and political issues so as to help legislators create sound public policy Webne Behrman explains The book will serve as a companion to the practitioner at times of greatest urgency Included are outlines of the stages of effective meetings strategies for managing conflict ways to build consensus and other specific advice on how to approach and solve problems Peacemaking: Family Activities for Justice and Peace, Vol. 2 Jacqueline Haessly, 2011-10 Peacemaking Family Activities for Justice and Peace consists of two volumes Vol 1 Facing Challenges and Embracing Opportunities integrates theory and practical advice for families educators and community leaders on eight themes Vol 2 Examining Values Developing Skills and Acting for Peace in the Family the Community and the World includes a variety of family activities some light and lively some that foster personal discovery and some that encourage deeper reflection on each of these eight themes Each volume includes a section devoted to Interfaith Prayer Services as well as a Resource Guide and Bibliography The activities can be adapted for people of all ages Socially Constructed School Violence Kimberly M. Williams, 2005 Socially Constructed School Violence Lessons from the Field argues that the way we understand what constitutes violence is socially constructed and that people from different social locations that is gender race social class geographic location and so on will have varied perspectives on what is violent Based on ethnographic work at an urban alternative school for students expelled for bringing weapons to school and an affluent suburban school eighteen miles away this book describes various ways violence can be constructed Specifically this book discusses personal and structural forms of violence that students teachers administrators and other school staff encounter Using powerful examples from the ethnographic analysis this book describes some of the valuable lessons learned about how we can work to prevent school violence Making Choices for Multicultural Education Christine E. Sleeter, Carl A. Grant, 2008-10-13 Focusing on what multicultural education actually looks like in the classroom Making Choices for Multicultural Education Sixth Edition encourages all to examine the latest theoretical perspectives on multicultural education as well as personal beliefs about classroom diversity The authors show how schools reflect broad patterns of institutional discrimination and then offer five different approaches to addressing such problems in the classroom Men's Work Paul Kivel, 2010-06-04 In his ground breaking work author Paul Kivel helps men confront the political social and personal forces that generate and reward misogyny hatred anger and violent behavior Sexual harassment child abuse incest rape murder war it's impossible today to hear a news report and not be informed of violent acts perpetrated by men Acknowledging that there are no easy answers to the problem of male violence particularly in a world that seems to thrive on aggression and physical force Men's Work reaches straight to its root causes In his ground breaking work author Paul Kivel helps men confront the political social and personal forces that generate and reward misogyny hatred anger and violent behavior Combining years of personal study and reflection with his work with men in the Oakland Men's Project Men's Work presents an innovative and workable approach to stopping male violence Kivel shows men how to reclaim the power and responsibility needed to unlearn the lessons of control and aggression Paul Kivel is a nationally known expert on men's issues Through his work at the Oakland Men's Project he helps men confront and change violent behaviors and teaches alternatives to violence in their relationships He also trains teachers therapists probation officers and agency staff who work with men exploring such topics as male female relationships alternatives to violence family violence and sexual assault Kivel resides in Oakland California Resources in Education, 1985 Peace Education, 3d ed. Ian M. Harris, Mary Lee Morrison, 2012-12-13 Now in its third edition Peace Education provides a comprehensive approach to educating for a just and sustainable future It begins with religious and historical trends that have molded our understanding of peace and then presents a variety of ways to practice peace education in schools and communities and explains how it can motivate students The teaching and practice of peace education provides a basis of valuable knowledge about resolving conflicts and transforming violence without the use of force Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Understanding Geographical and Environmental Education Michael C. Williams, 1995-12-07 These papers aim to provide a substantial review of the literature pertaining to a comprehensive range of traditional and contemporary research paradigms and research methods The book is designed as a reference work for novice researchers in the fields of geographical and environmental education
