From Apocalypse To Genesis Ecology Feminism And Christianity:

From Apocalypse to Genesis Anne Primavesi, 1990-12-31 Praying and Campaigning with Environmental Christians Maria Nita, 2016-07-30 This book presents an ethnographic study of environmental Christian networks involved in the climate and transition towns movements Maria Nita examines the ways in which green Christians engage with their communities and networks as well as other activist networks in the broader green movement The book interrogates key categories in the field of religious studies which intersect activist concerns including spirituality community and ritual In this sociological exploration the author uses existing research tools such as discourse analysis and proposes new theoretical models for the investigation of network expansion religious identity and relationality through ritual Nita examines the mechanisms underlying the greening of religion and thus offers an in depth analysis of prayers rituals and religious practices such as praying through painting fasting for the planet and sharing the green Eucharist in or with nature Bonhoeffer's Christocentric Theology and Fundamental Debates in Environmental Ethics Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2017-05-04 There is widespread understanding of the close connection between religion and the ecological crisis and that in order to amend this crisis theological resources are needed This monograph seeks to contribute to this endeavor by engaging the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer His theology is particularly suitable in this context due to its open ended nature and to the prophetic and radical nature of the questions he was prepared to ask that is why there are many other attempts to contextualize Bonhoeffer's theology in areas that he himself has not directly written about In this monograph Steven van den Heuvel first of all addresses the question of how to translate Bonhoeffer's theology in a methodologically sound way He settles on a modified form of the general method of correlation Then secondly van den Heuvel sets out to describe five major concepts in Bonhoeffer's work bringing these into critical interplay with discussions in environmental ethics and eco theology In making the correlations he thoroughly describes each concept situating it in the historic and intellectual background of Bonhoeffer's time He then transposes these concepts to contemporary environmental ethics describing what contribution Bonhoeffer's theology can make Woman, who owns you-? Sathupati Prasanna Sree, 2008 Papers presented at the International Seminar on Psycho Dynamics of Women in the Postmodern Literature of the East and West held at Visakhapatnam during 25-26 February 2006 Feminist Eschatology Emily Pennington, 2016-08-25 Many feminist theologians have made timely and valuable contributions to rethinking the eschaton by framing it as cyclical and by embracing endings as they are experienced by present relational fluid and sensuous bodies However any sense of eschatological finality or ultimacy has either been rejected or ignored Feminist Eschatology seeks to think differently about Christian eschatology in light of contributions from feminist theologians noting the numerous and varied critiques they have made of traditional models These critiques are identified as being directed towards three key claims eschatology is understood to be actuated by a domineering God populated by masculinised beings and disassociated from present lives Using a form of strategic feminism wherein traits associated with female bodies and some women's experiences of their bodies are used to rethink the end time of the eschaton this book contributes to the meaning and significance of both bodies and eschatology Theology for Earth Community Dieter T. Hessel, 2003-08-18 This volume brings together original essays by both seasoned professionals and emerging scholars who examine state of the art scholarship and pedagogy in ecologically alert theology Authors assess what various theologians have to offer and draw implications for reshaping religious and environmental studies as well as preparing the next generations of church leaders or pastoral workers What needs to be done these authors ask to bring biblical studies systematics social ethics practical theology spiritual formation and liturgy up to speed with eco justice thought and action on environmental questions

The Trinity and Creation in Augustine Scott A. Dunham, 2008-08-07 The first English language book on Augustine's Trinitarian doctrine of creation The Trinity and Creation in Augustine explores Augustine's relevance for contemporary environmental issues Modern environmentally conscious thinkers often see Augustine's doctrines in a negative light feeling they have been used to justify humankind's domination of nature Considering Augustine's thought in his own time and in ours Scott A Dunham offers a more nuanced view He begins with a consideration of the major themes that have characterized ecologically sensitive theologies and Augustine's place in those discussions The primary examination considers how Augustine's doctrine of the Trinity informed his interpretation of the opening chapters of Genesis especially his conceptions of divine creation providence and dominion This analysis of Augustine's Trinitarian interpretation of Genesis stands in contrast to recent characterizations of classical conceptions of creation The book concludes with a discussion of Augustine's relevance for modern theological thought by appraising Augustine's Trinitarian doctrine of creation in relation to ecological themes in theological ethics

Creatures of the Same God Andrew Linzey, 2009 I don't know why you're spending all your time on this They're only animals for heaven's sake That was the reaction of one of Andrew Linzey's fellow students at King's College London when he was studying theology in the 1970s Since then the now Rev Dr Andrew Linzey has been arguing that animals aren't only anything but rather that they matter to God and should do so to us In this collection of essays Linzey counters with his customary wit erudition and insight some contemporary and perhaps surprising challenges to animal rights from ecotheologians the Church and politicians He contends that far from the sometimes shallow judgments of those who think animals unworthy of theological consideration the Christian tradition has a wellspring of sources and resources available to taking animals seriously Instead of being marginal to the Christian experience Linzey concludes animals can take their rightful place alongside human beings as creatures of the same God There is a long forgotten spiritual tradition that two children both named Jesus were born in Bethlehem to two sets of parents named Joseph and Mary This tradition is supported by the different accounts of the nativity and life of Jesus Christ in the gospels of Matthew and Luke Although the Church chose to ignore this tradition something of it survived in early Christian art and symbolism The full tradition was preserved only in the literature of esoteric sects such as Gnosticism which remained outside the official teachings of institutionalized Christianity Handbook of the Philosophy of Climate Change Gianfranco Pellegrino, Marcello Di Paola, 2023-11-24 This Handbook offers a broad yet unified treatment of many philosophical issues connected with climate change ranging from foundational puzzles to detailed applications It extends to many branches of philosophy that are relevant to the understanding of the premises and implications of the impacts of climate change on human and nonhuman life on Earth More specifically the handbook examines the scientific accounts of climate change as well as its causes It explores the tools offered by social sciences and humanities to study the societal premises and impacts of climate change as well as delving deeper into the ethical and political issues connected with and resulting from climate change By doing so it puts it all in an ecological and historical context In addition the book offers solutions to some important philosophical puzzles and problems and indicates paths of interaction between philosophy and other disciplines The discussion about climate change and the mitigation adaptation policies spans many areas and levels from abstract science and philosophy to current on the ground politics However climate change is also a great philosophical puzzle Indeed its existential and practical relevance can be thought to largely derive from the philosophical complications it engenders Climate change is applied philosophy par excellence Preventing dangerous anthropogenic climate change needs very good philosophy applied to concrete and specific practical issues Climate change is an area where scholars from very different provenances should cooperate on equal terms having in view a common and really important purpose contribute to preventing great burdens and even the extinction of humankind and the destruction of hospitable and valuable non human nature

Kerygmatics of the New Millennium Lee Miena Skye, 2007 Introducing Feminist Christologies Lisa Isherwood, 2002-03-01 This volume critically engages with the problems traditional Christology raises for feminist theology It also explores the creative engagements of feminist theologians with the person of Jesus Passion and Reason Grace D. Cumming Long, 1993-01-01 This book provides readers with a Christian ethics from the perspective of women's experience rooted in passion and reason emotion and research Through a collage of autobiographical narratives and feminist theologies Cumming Long constructs an unconventional approach to moral questioning using the domestic arts to find creative ways to respond to the social crises of our day Planetary Solidarity Grace Ji-Sun Kim, Hilda P. Koster, 2017-08-23 Planetary Solidarity brings together leading Latina womanist Asian American Anglican American South American Asian European and African woman theologians on the issues of doctrine women and climate justice Because women make up the majority of the world's poor and tend to be more dependent on natural resources for their livelihoods and survival they are more vulnerable when it comes to climate related changes and catastrophes Representing a subfield of feminist theology that uses doctrine as interlocutor this book asks how Christian doctrine might address the interconnected suffering of women and the earth in an age of climate change While doctrine has often stifled change it also forms the thread that weaves Christian communities together Drawing on postcolonial ecofeminist womanist analysis and representing different ecclesial and denominational traditions contributors use doctrine to envision possibilities for a deep solidarity with the earth and one another while addressing the intersection of gender race class and ethnicity The book is organized around the following doctrines creation the triune God anthropology sin incarnation redemption the Holy Spirit ecclesiology and eschatology Turning to the Heavens and the Earth Julia Brumbaugh, Natalia Imperatori-Lee, 2016-05-16 The Earth needs our attention the best of our intellectual ethical and spiritual wisdom and action In this collection written in honor of Elizabeth A Johnson scholars from the United States and around the world contribute their insights on how theology today can and must turn to the world in new ways in light of contemporary science and our ecological crisis The essays in this collection advance theological visions for the human task of healing our destructive relationship with the earth and envision hope for our planet s future Contributors Kevin Glauber Ahern Erin Lothes Biviano Lisa Sowle Cahill Colleen Mary Carpenter David Cloutier Kathy Coffey Carol J Dempsey OP Denis Edwards William French Ivone Gebara John F Haught Mary Catherine Hilkert OP Sallie McFague Eric Daryl Meyer Richard W Miller J rgen Moltmann Jeannette Rodriguez Michele Saracino Image, Identity, and the Forming of the Augustinian Soul Matthew Drever, 2013-07-18 Through examination of Augustine s account of the human relation to God Matthew Drever finds a crucial resource for a religious reorientation and revaluation of the human person Rape Culture, Gender Violence, and Religion Caroline Blyth, Emily Colgan, Katie B. Edwards, 2018-03-29 This volume considers the complex relationships that exist between Christianity rape culture and gender violence Each chapter explores the various roles that Christian theologies teachings and practices have played in shaping contemporary understandings of gender violence and in sanctioning rape supportive cultural belief systems and practices Our contributors explore this topic from a range of disciplinary perspectives including theology gender and queer studies cultural studies pastoral care and counseling Together the chapters in this volume testify to the considerable influence that Christianity has had and continues to have in directing conversations within the Christian tradition around gender violence and rape culture They therefore invite readers to engage fruitfully in these conversations fostering transformative dialogues with the Christian community about our shared responsibility to tackle the current global crisis of gender violence A Theology of Engagement Ian S. Markham, 2008-04-15 This ground breaking book challenges readers to rethink the divide between liberal and orthodox approaches which characterises Christianity today Provides an alternative to the liberal orthodox divide in contemporary Christianity Defends Christianity s engagement with non Christian traditions Includes important discussion of theological method Illustrated with case studies involving human rights interfaith tolerance economics and ethics Becoming Divine Grace Jantzen, 1999 The book s contribution to feminist philosophy of religion is substantial and original It brings the continental and Anglo American traditions into substantive and productive conversation with each other Ellen Armour To what extent has the emergence of the study of religion in Western culture been gendered In this exciting book Grace Jantzen proposes a new philosophy of religion from a feminist perspective Hers is a vital and significant contribution which will be
