British Romanticism and the Reception of Italian Old Master Art, 1793-1840 Maureen McCue, 2016-05-23 As a result of Napoleon's campaigns in Italy Old Master art flooded into Britain and its acquisition became an index of national prestige Maureen McCue argues that their responses to these works informed the writing of Romantic period authors enabling them to forge often surprising connections between Italian art the imagination and the period's political social and commercial realities Dr McCue examines poetry plays novels travel writing exhibition catalogues early guidebooks and private experiences recorded in letters and diaries by canonical and noncanonical authors including

Felicia Hemans William Buchanan Henry Sass Pierce Egan William Hazlitt Percy Shelley Lord Byron Anna Jameson Maria Graham Callcott and Samuel Rogers Her exploration of the idea of connoisseurship shows the ways in which a knowledge of Italian art became a key marker of cultural standing that was no longer limited to artists and aristocrats while her chapter on the literary production of post Waterloo Britain traces the development of a critical vocabulary equally applicable to the visual arts and literature In offering cultural historical and literary readings of the responses to Italian art by early nineteenth century writers Dr McCue illuminates the important role they played in shaping the themes that are central to our understanding of Romanticism "Striking Images, Iconoclasms Past and Present " Stacy Boldrick,2017-07-05 All cultures make and break images Striking Images Iconoclasms Past and Present explores how and why people have made and modified images and other cultural material from pre history into the 21st century With its impressive chronological sweep and disciplinary breadth this is the first book about iconoclasm the breaking of images and the transformation of broader sets of signs that includes contributions from archaeologists curators and museum conservators as well as historians of art literature and religious studies The chapters examine themes critical to the study of iconoclasm violence punishment memory intentionality ruins and relics and their survival The conclusion shows how cross disciplinary debate amongst the contributors informed Tate Britain s Art under Attack exhibition 2013 and addresses the challenges iconoclasm presents to the modern museum By juxtaposing objects and places usually considered in isolation Striking Images raises provocative questions about our understandings of cross cultural differences and the value of representational objects from the broken swords of pre historical bog graves to the Bamiyan Buddhas and contemporary art Are any such objects ever finished or are they simply subject to constant transformation In dialogue with each other the essays consider this question and expand the field of iconoclasm and cultural studies *Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature.
