practices the use of water as an engine for sustainable development small and large scale strategies for reducing the risks and uncertainties in water availability and food security the economic value of improved water supplies and the positive impact of small scale development projects Responsible Marine Aquaculture Robert R. Stickney,James P.

McVey,2002-01-01 With the expansion of the world aquaculture industry there has been increasing concern over sustainability and environmental impact This book addresses this topical issue concentrating on marine aquaculture

Groundwater in Urban Development Stephen S. D. Foster,Adrian Lawrence,Brian Morris,1998 This paper highlights key urban groundwater issues and management needs It also raises awareness and understanding of hydrogeological processes in urban areas and provides a framework for the proper and systematic consideration of groundwater dimensions in urban management This paper suggests options for greater sustainable development and management of groundwater in urban areas Comprehensive River Basin Development Barbara A. Miller,Richard B. Reidinger,1998-01-01 The Tennessee Valley Authority TVA in the United States represents one of the few successful examples of comprehensive river basin development Established to guide the development of the resources within the Tennessee River Basin TVA operates a wide variety of water power economic development and environmental programs within the region This report presents an overview of TVA s growth and development its institutions and its operational programs World Bank Group Assistance for Minerals Sector Development and Reform in Member Countries William Torrens Onorato,Peter Fox,John Strongman,1998-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 399 This paper examines the increased role of the private sector in developing and maintaining critical infrastructure It identifies governments quest to shift part of the burden of new infrastructure investments to the private sector for the economic development of firms and industry and the improvement of quality of life and given the constraints on public budgets to finance growing infrastructure needs Adequate infrastructure services include power telecommunications transport water supply and sanitation The paper also emphasizes the private sector involvement in bringing increased efficiency to investment and management and operation Urban Aquaculture A.

Desbonnet,P. Edwards,D. Baker,2005-01-01 Millions of people are moving from rural areas to coastal cities Meeting the basic human needs for protein foods in the future will be a difficult challenge Fishery products are the world s most important source of animal protein which has led to a doubling of the demand for fish since the 1950s As we can not expect to catch more food from the sea we must turn to farming the waters not just hunting them The new challenge for planners now is to accelerate aquaculture development and to plan for new production making urban areas of production particularly recycled urban wastewater This book includes papers from authors in the U S Europe and Asia that review these developing issues from the perspective of both developed and developing countries Subsidies in World Fisheries Matteo

Milazzo,1998-01-01 In the past six years the world s fishery sector has reached a turning point with global fish production reaching a plateau of approximately 100 million tons annually While aquaculture output continued to grow yields from capture fisheries were uneven and showed increasing signs of stagnation because of widespread overfishing and overcapitalization ineffective management deteriorating resource health declining or flat global harvests and inefficient economic and trade policies This paper examines the role of subsidies in fisheries World Bank Literature Amitava Kumar, 2003 World Bank literature is more than a concept it is a provocation a call to arms It is intended to prompt questions about each word to probe globalization political economy and the role of literary and cultural studies As asserted in this major work it signals a radical rewriting of academic debates a rigorous analysis of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund IMF and a consideration of literature that deals with new global realities Made more relevant than ever by momentous antiglobalization demonstrations in Seattle and Genoa World Bank Literature brings together essays by a distinguished group of economists cultural and literary critics social scientists and public policy analysts to ask how to understand the influence of the World Bank IMF on global economic power relations and cultural production The authors attack this question in myriad ways examining World Bank IMF documents as literature their impact on developing nations the relationship between literature and globalization the connection between the academy and the global economy and the emergence of coalitions confronting the new power World Bank Literature shows above all the multifarious and sometimes nefarious ways that abstract academic debates play themselves out concretely in social policy and cultural mores that reinforce traditional power structures Regional and International Trade Policy Csaba Csáki, John Nash, 1999-01-01 With appropriate preparation and policies the enlargement of the European Union EU will result in a broader and higher level integration of European agriculture create an environment more conducive to further liberalization of global agricultural trade and lead to further opening of European markets As part of the World Bank's Strategic Compact Initiative the Bank has coordinated activities to help the ten EU accession countries achieve EU membership These activities include the preparation of studies to facilitate implementation of necessary reforms and sponsoring seminars and workshops to disseminate and analyze the results This volume presents the major papers and summaries of one of the Workshop deliberations This volume includes the following topics lessons learned from other regional agricultural trade agreements the evolution of the Common Agricultural Policy CAP an analysis of the economic impact of trade flows the harmonization of agricultural policies within trade agreements the implications of the external trade environment for the accession countries the role of sanitary and phytosanitary trade rule in EU accession quantifying the incentive and farm income effects of agricultural support policies in transition economies major challenges to agricultural input regulation and trade during transition and EU accession concluding comments by the World Bank Latin American Insolvency Systems Malcolm Rowat, José Astigarraga, 1999 Modern society has eliminated the inhumane debtors prisons for handling the insolvent debtor and in their stead have enacted benign modern laws in the area of bankruptcy Unscrupulous merchants now use these benign laws for fraudulent purposes Based on case studies in Argentina Brazil Mexico and Venezuela this is the first publication to provide recommendations about the important legal and institutional issues that are involved in bankruptcy reform in a critical region of the global economy The authors note that effective bankruptcy policy balances several requirements for the conduct of a stable successful economy For example it might be in the greatest interests to all parties if a company is given an opportunity to restructure and make use of the scarce resources remaining in its possession On the other hand inefficient firms especially those that have long survived only on state subsidies may need to fail in order to free space in the market for more efficient better managed companies Finally there are the needs to enforce loan contracts and provide an equitable system of debt collection

The Impact of Drought on Sub-Saharan African Economies Charlotte Benson,Edward J. Clay,1998-01-01 Little effort has been made to research the nonagricultural or economywide macroneconomic impact of droughts in Sub Saharan Africa In an effort to fill the gap this paper reports the findings of an exploratory study of the subject It provides insights into the impact of drought in Sub Saharan Africa in the past and suggests policy options for dealing with future droughts

An Environmental Study of Artisanal, Small, and Medium Mining in Bolivia, Chile, and Peru Gary McMahon,1999-01-01 Mining exploration investment in the Latin American and Caribbean region has increased 130 percent in the last five years a figure which increases to 500 percent if Chile is excluded Governments have revamped mining legislation to enable private investment while becoming more sensitive to environmental factors In light of this legislation this report examines the environmental effects of artisanal small and medium mines in three Latin American Countries Bolivia Chile and Peru Four of the most important elements to be considered are The age of the mine Management of tailings The heterogeneity of the artisanal and small mine sectors The increasing need to take cultural considerations into account in the decision making process The paper contains results of the studies on the various mining sectors strategy and policy recommendations and country study summaries

Management of Water Resources Musa Asad,1999-01-01 Although procedures for pricing retail distribution have been established for a long time methods for pricing bulk or wholesale water supplies are still evolving How to finance the infrastructure and service of bulk water supply and how to use pricing to achieve efficient allocation and use of water as a resource are the central issues that emerge from discussions about bulk water pricing Efficiency will lead to allocating water resources better reducing water losses caused by poor maintenance of the supply systems and increased monitoring of water quality At first glance Brazil may not appear to be a relevant country from which to draw lessons in distributing scarce water resources since it contains 12 percent of the world s fresh water supply However with its vast territory and issues of regional drought and population explosion Brazil provides a unique environment in which to demonstrate how adequate pricing of bulk water on a regional level can help allocate water efficiently This paper offers a framework for bulk water pricing reform and examines the lessons from recent analytical work and practice in Brazil as well as relevant international experience It then offers recommendations for the development of both water pricing and allocation policies to facilitate continued implementation of bulk water pricing in Brazil

Concessions for Infrastructure Michel Kerf,1998-01-01 This paper examines the increased role of the private sector in developing and maintaining critical infrastructure It identifies governments quest to shift part of the burden of new infrastructure investments to the private sector for the economic development of firms and industry and the improvement of quality of life and given the constraints on public budgets to finance growing infrastructure needs Adequate infrastructure services include power telecommunications transport water supply and sanitation The paper also emphasizes the private sector involvement in bringing increased efficiency to investment and management and operation Environmental Management and Institutions in OECD Countries Magda Lovei,Charles Weiss,1998 As environmental protection is attracting increasing political attention and public support many developing countries are designing and putting into practice environmental institutions This study analyzes the experience of several OECD countries in order to identify factors that influence the role and success of environmental management possible causes of the discrepancy between national environmental objectives and actual performance and implications of lessons learned and recommendations for countries that are in the process of establishing or redesigning their environmental management systems Planning the Management, Operation, and Maintenance of Irrigation and Drainage Systems ,1998 This paper provides the basis for the preparation of manuals necessary for managers and staffs to perform needed activities at the proper time The guide provides a comprehensive list of issues that should be addressed in operation and maintenance manuals for irrigation and drainage systems and a listing of published materials and working papers which will assist in the formulation of plans for operation and maintenance The paper serves as a valuable tool to help improve the performance of irrigation and drainage systems and to assist managers in developing and improving effective organizations to serve water consumers better Evaporative Air-conditioning Gert Jan Bom,1999 Under the right conditions and applications evaporative air conditioning EAC technologies can provide excellent cooling and ventilation with minimal energy consumption Evaporative air conditioning technologies are being used increasingly in residential and commercial applications worldwide EAC technologies which rely on water as a coolant rather than on chemical refrigerants are economical to produce and use and have important environmental benefits This paper introduces the technical aspects of EAC reviews EAC s scope of application and surveys the specific climatic conditions under which EAC can be used most effectively in industrialized and developing countries Incentives for Joint Forest Management in India Ian Hill,Dermot Shields,1998 Joint Forest Management JFM has emerged as an important intervention in the management of India s forest resources This report sets out an analytical method for examining the costs and benefits of JFM arrangements Two pilot case studies in which the method was used demonstrate interesting outcomes regarding incentives for various groups to participate The main objective of this study is to develop a better understanding of the incentives for communities to participate in JFM
