From Garvey To Marley Rastafari Theology:

From Garvey to Marley Noel Leo Erskine, 2007-04 This history of the theology and rituals of Rastafarianism features accents of the reggae rhythms of Bob Marley and the teachings and philosophy of Marcus Garvey the black nationalist who motivated many of his fellow Jamaicans to embrace their African ancestral roots Written by a trained theologian who was raised in the Jamaican village in which the Rastafarian faith originated the book offers both a serious inquiry into the movement and the perspective of an insider in conversation with elders of the faith who still live in the village Noel Leo Erskine isolates and defines the main tenets of Rastafarianism which emerged toward the end of the 20th century as a way of life and as a new international religion He includes biographical descriptions of the key players in the development of Rastafari theology provides details of its organization and ethos and discusses the role of women in the religion He also discusses the significance of Ethiopia to the faith practitioners view that country both as their homeland and as heaven on earth Examining the religion's relationship to Christianity Erskine relates the Rastas to 19th century Native Baptist and Revivalist traditions on the island and to the black theology movement in the United States The Rastas see the European and North American churches as representatives of an oppressive colonial class he writes The Rastafarian name for God Jah Is derived from Yahveh the God of the Hebrews and members of the faith connect their struggle for dignity and solidarity in Jamaican society with the struggle of the oppressed Israelites Jah and not the Bible is the decisive source of morality and truth for the Rastas The book will be important in the fields of African African American and Caribbean studies especially to the cultural and religious dimensions in each discipline Jacket Rastafari Reasoning and the RastaWoman Jeanne

Christensen, 2014-02-14 Rastafari Reasoning and the RastaWoman Gender Constructions in the Shaping of Rastafari Livity examines the complex ways that gender and race shaped a liberation movement propelled by the Caribbean evolution of an African spiritual ethos Jeanne Christensen proposes that Rastafari represents the most recent reworking of this spiritual ethos referred to as African religiosity The book contributes a new perspective to the literature on Rastafari and through a historical lens corrects the predominant static view of Rastafari women In certain Rastafari manifestations a growing livity developed by RastaMen eventually excluded women from an important ritual called Reasoning a conscious search for existential and ontological truth through self understanding performed in a group setting Restoring agency to the RastaWoman Christensen argues that RastaWomen intimately in touch with this spiritual ethos challenged oppressive structures within the movement itself They skirted official restrictions speaking out in public and written forums whenever such avenues presented themselves and searched for their own truth through conscious intentional self examination characteristic of the Reasoning ritual With its powerful theoretically informed narrative Rastafari Reasoning and the RastaWoman Gender Constructions in the Shaping of Rastafari Livity will appeal to students and scholars interested in religious transformation resistance movements gender issues critical race studies and the history and culture of the English speaking Caribbean Rastafari in the New Millennium Michael Barnett, 2014-06-05 In the dawn of the new African Millennium the Rastafari movement has achieved unheralded growth and visibility since its inception more than eighty years ago Moving beyond a pure spiritual movement its aesthetic component has influenced cultures of the Caribbean the United States and others across the globe Locating the Rastafari movement at a literal and figurative crossroad Barnett sets out to consider the possible paths the movement will chart Rastafari in the New Millennium covers a wide range of perspectives focusing not only on the movement's nuanced and complex religious ideology but also on its political philosophy cosmology and unique epistemology Barry Chevannes's essay addresses the concerns of death and repatriation highlighting the transformative challenges these issues pose to Rastafari Essays by Ian Boxill Edward Te Kohu Douglas Erin C MacLeod and Janet L DeCosmo among others offer rich accounts of the globalization of Rastafari from New Zealand to Ethiopia from Brazil to Nigeria Drawing on new research and global developments the contributors many of whom are leading scholars in the field reinvigorate the critical dialogue on the current state and future direction of the Rastafari movement Rastafari and the Arts Darren Middleton, 2015-02-11 Drawing on literary musical and visual representations of and by Rastafari Darren J N Middleton provides an introduction to Rasta through the arts broadly conceived The religious underpinnings of the Rasta movement are often overshadowed by Rasta's association with reggae music dub and performance poetry Rastafari and the Arts An Introduction takes a fresh view of Rasta considering the relationship between the artistic and religious dimensions of the movement in depth Middleton's analysis complements current introductions to Afro Caribbean religions and offers an engaging example of the role of popular culture in illuminating the beliefs and practices of emerging religions Recognizing that outsiders as well as insiders have shaped the Rasta movement since its modest beginnings in Jamaica Middleton includes interviews with members of both groups including Ejay Khan Barbara Makeda Blake Hannah Geoffrey Philp Asante Amen Reggae Rajahs Benjamin Zephaniah Monica Haim Blakk Rasta Rocky Dawuni and Marvin D Sterling Women and Resistance in the Early Rastafari Movement Daive Dunkley, 2021-10-13 Winner of the Barbara T Christian Literary Award Women and Resistance in the Early Rastafari Movement is a pioneering study of women's resistance in the emergent Rastafari movement in colonial Jamaica As D A Dunkley demonstrates Rastafari women had to contend not only with the various attempts made by the government and nonmembers to suppress the movement but also with oppression and silencing from among their own ranks Dunkley examines the lives and experiences of a group of Rastafari women between the movement's inception in the 1930s and Jamaica's independence from Britain in the 1960s uncovering their sense of agency and resistance against both male domination and societal opposition to their Rastafari identity Countering many years of scholarship that privilege the stories of Rastafari men Women and Resistance in the Early Rastafari Movement reclaims the voices and narratives of early Rastafari women in the history of the Black liberation struggle The African Diaspora and the Study of Religion T. Trost, 2007-12-25 This book focuses on the location of the religious heritage of Africa within the academic study of religion including indigenous African religions African Christianities African American forms of Islam the religions of African Americans Afro Caribbean religions and Afro Brazilian religions Black Missionary in an Age of Enslavement Noel Leo Erskine, 2024-08-06 Much discussion of Protestant Christianity and its missions in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries is focused on the work of English missionary William Carey and American Missionaries Adoniram and Ann Judson who travelled to India in 1793 and 1813 This book reframes this conventional understanding of mission studies and outreach by exploring the legacy and life of the enslaved American Baptist George Liele 1750 1825 the first African American ordained to the Christian ministry Black Missionary in an Age of Enslavement looks at Christianity and mission through the life and times of Liele highlighting his travels as an itinerant preacher in South Carolina Georgia Jamaica and through his prot g there David George Nova Scotia Sierra Leone and toward the end of his life England Liele knew what it meant to be both slave and free In Jamaica as in Savannah he was imprisoned for his faith and saw the survival of the church as pivotal Liele was a man of firsts the first African American ordained to the Christian ministry May 20 1775 and the first missionary to take the Christian gospel outside the United States It was Liele more than any other missionary who initiated the practice of offering education to native people both enslaved and free With the hymnal in one hand and the Bible in the other Liele taught the enslaved and free that they were destined for liberation Better Health through Spiritual Practices Dean D. VonDras Ph.D., 2017-08-18 An in depth examination of religious practices around the world and the fascinating science behind how they make us healthier Many religious and spiritual beliefs promote wellness through their practices or stated objectives for example focusing on simple living having compassion for others vegetarianism or meditation and mindfulness This refreshing work provides a review of the world s spiritual perspectives and traditions and explores how their guiding principles encourage healthy lifestyle choices An examination of religious and nonreligious perspectives from around the world from atheism Confucianism and Christianity to Islam Judaism Shamanism and Zoroastrianism reveals how faith beliefs and values influence behavior and inspire healthy living With contributions from leading international scholars the chapters include a discussion of Eastern and Western world religions and their practices such as fasting or the avoidance of alcohol and tobacco and how they may foster healthfulness A contemporary analysis of current research findings suggests possible interventions that individuals and health providers may utilize to enhance healthfulness A final chapter explores the connection between health illness and religious and nonreligious perspectives

Baptism, Superstitions, and the Supernatural Lesley George Anderson, 2022-07-07 Baptism Superstitions and the Supernatural by Rev Dr Lesley G Anderson is a book uniquely and unquestionably one of the most informative and remarkable of its type The sacrament of baptism is undoubtedly to this day an exceedingly controversial sacrament of the Christian Church The continuing differing debates arguments and views about adult believers versus infant baptism are examined Superstitions and the supernatural associated with this sacrament are given adequate attention in addition to the many other informative factors relating to this sacrament Further this sacrament is examined as a scriptural psychological theological and social reality The introduction of baptism as a liturgical phenomenon highlights the educational quality of this book as it takes the reader into the interesting and fascinating areas of baptism of blood baptism by fire baptism of the dead baptism of the Holy Spirit and baptism in the name of Jesus only In addition this book brings to the fore an intrinsic excitement and understanding about the symbols and symbolisms images and mysteries signs and wonders associated with this sacrament The role of the Holy Spirit and the centrality of Jesus in the baptismal act are of importance recognized If symbolically baptism means dying to sin and rising to new life with Christ does this apply only to adult believers This book explores the question against the background of research conducted in the Central American country of Belize that unearthed the views and beliefs of laypersons The reach of the work extends beyond Belize and Methodist traditions are compared with contrasting beliefs and practices of other denominations Popular superstitions associated with baptism are also explored as well as the impact of African cultural practices on Christian theology in the lived experience of Caribbean peoples Although this research was conducted in Belize it is borderless and boundless Of vital interest is the exploration of this sacrament in African religious beliefs and cultural practices According to Professor Neville Duncan former director of the Sir Arthur Lewis Institute of Social and Economic Studies at the University of the West Indies Mona Jamaica the book is theologically and sociologically stimulating while written from the Methodist perspective the issues raised will resonate with all Christian denominations All denominations noted in this book are given their due respect regardless of their beliefs and or baptismal practices

Global Garveyism Ronald J. Stephens, Adam Ewing, 2019-02-19 Illuminating the global impact of Marcus Garvey's Black nationalist philosophy Arguing that the accomplishments of Jamaican activist Marcus Garvey and his followers have been marginalized in narratives of the Black freedom struggle this volume builds on decades of overlooked research to reveal the profound impact of Garvey's post World War I Black nationalist philosophy around the globe and across the twentieth century These essays point to the breadth of Garveyism's spread and its reception in communities across the African diaspora examining the influence of Garvey's Universal Negro Improvement Association UNIA in Africa Australia North America and the Caribbean They highlight the underrecognized work of many Garveyite women and show how the UNIA played a key role in shaping labor unions political organizations churches and schools In addition contributors describe the importance of grassroots efforts for expanding the global movement the UNIA trained leaders to organize local centers of power whose political activism outside the movement helped Garvey's message escape its organizational bounds during the 1920s They trace the imprint of the movement on long term developments such as decolonization in Africa and the Caribbean the pan Aboriginal fight for land rights in Australia the civil rights and Black Power movements in the United States and the radical pan African movement Rejecting the idea that Garveyism was a brief and misguided phenomenon this volume exposes its scope significance and endurance Together contributors assert that Garvey initiated the most important mass movement in the history of the African diaspora and they urge readers to rethink the emergence of modern Black politics with Garveyism at the center Contributors Ronald J Stephens Adam Ewing Keisha N Blain Nicole Bourbonnais Jos Andr s Fern ndez Montes de Oca John Maynard Erik S McDuffie Frances Peace Sullivan Robert Trent Vinson Michael O West

Plantation Church Noel Leo Erskine,2014-01-07 In Plantation Church Noel Leo Erskine investigates the history of the Black Church as it developed both in the United States and the Caribbean after the arrival of enslaved Africans Messianic 'I' and Rastafari in New Testament Dialogue Delano Vincent Palmer,2010-04-13 Anyone familiar with the Rastafari movement and its connection with the Bible is struck by the prevalence of messianic I locution found in both As the phenomenon is important in the canonical Testaments more so within the New Testament this study seeks to investigate its significance in certain epistolary pieces Romans 7 14 25 15 14 33 the bio Narratives and the Apocalypse in their historical and cultural milieu The next stage of the investigation then compares the findings of the aforementioned New Testament books with corresponding statements of the Rasta community in order to determine their relevance for the ongoing Anglophone theological enterprise In sum this study seeks to bring into critical dialogue the permutative messianic I of the New Testament with the self understanding of Rastafari The Other Black Church Joseph L. Tucker Edmonds,2020-12-02 The Other Black Church Alternative Christian Movements and the Struggle for Black Freedom examines the movements led by Father Divine Charles Mason and Albert Cleage later known as Jaramogi Abebe Agyeman as alternative Christian movements in the middle of the twentieth century that radically re envisioned the limits and possibilities of Black citizenship These movements not only rethink the value and import of Christian texts and reimagined the role of the Black Christian prophetic tradition but they also outlined a new model of protest that challenged the language and logic of Black essentialism economic development and the role of the state By placing these movements in conversation with the long history of Black theology and Black religious studies this book suggests that alternative Christian movements are essential for thinking about African American critiques of and responses to the failures of U S based democracy These prophets of Black theological thought and their attention to the limits of the state and traditional Black religious formations are most fully appreciated when studied in light of their conversations and interactions with other key Black prophetic and theological figures of the mid twentieth century Ultimately The Other Black Church will use those conversations and archives from these movements to highlight their protest of the racial state to explore the limits of the Black church and to argue for their continued significance for thinking about the variety and vibrancy of Black protest specifically Black religious protest during the twentieth century

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser,2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Brother's Keeper Jason C. Parker, 2008-04-30

In 1962 amidst the Cuban Revolution Third World decolonization and the African American freedom movement Jamaica and Trinidad and Tobago became the first British West Indian colonies to gain independence These were not only the first new nations in the western hemisphere in more than fifty years they also won their independence without the bloodshed that marked so much of the decolonization struggle elsewhere Jason Parker's international history of the peaceful transition in these islands analyzes the roles of the United States Britain the West Indies and the transnational African diaspora in the process from its 1930s stirrings to its Cold War culmination Grounded in exhaustive research conducted in seven countries Brother's Keeper offers an original rethinking of the relationship between the Cold War and Third World decolonization

All the White Friends I Couldn't Keep Andre Henry, 2022-03-22 A leading voice for social justice reveals how he stopped arguing with white people who deny the ongoing legacy of racism and offers a proven path forward for Black people and people of color based on the history of nonviolent struggle A moving personal journey that lends practical insight for expanding and strengthening the global antiracist movement Patrisse Khan Cullors co founder of Black Lives Matter bestselling author of When They Call You a Terrorist When the rallying cry Black Lives Matter was heard across the world in 2013 Andre Henry was one of the millions for whom the movement caused a political awakening and a rupture in some of his closest relationships with white people As he began using his artistic gifts to share his experiences and perspective Henry was aggrieved to discover that many white Americans people he called friends and family were more interested in debating whether racism existed or whether Henry was being polite enough in the way he used his voice In this personal and thought provoking book Henry explores how the historical divides between Black people and non Black people are expressed through our most mundane interactions and why this struggle won't be resolved through civil discourse diversity hires interracial relationships or education What we need is a revolution one that moves beyond symbolic progress to disrupt systems of racial violence and inequality in tangible creative ways Sharing stories from his own path to activism from studying at seminary to becoming a student of nonviolent social change from working as a praise leader to singing about social justice and connecting those experiences to lessons from successful nonviolent struggles in America and around the world Andre Henry calls on Black people and people of color to divest from whiteness and its false promises trust what their lived experiences tell them and practice hope as a discipline as they work for lasting change Fortress Commentary on the Bible set Gale A.
