Sutton, 2010-08-01 Although history is replete with tales of revenge Christian forgiveness provides an alternate response In this volume Pentecostal scholars from various disciplines offer their vision for forgiveness reconciliation and restoration The essayists offer long overdue Pentecostal perspectives through analysis of contemporary theological issues personal testimony and prophetic possibilities for restoration of individual relationships and communities Though Pentecostals remain committed to Spirit empowered witness as recorded in Luke Acts these scholars embrace a larger Lukan vision of Spirit initiated inclusivity marked by reconciliation The consistent refrain calls for forgiveness as an expression of God's love that does not demand justice but rather seeks to promote peace by bringing healing and reconciliation in relationships between people united by one Spirit      Erotic Faith Robert M. Polhemus, 1995-03 In this profoundly original and far reaching study Robert M Polhemus shows how novels have helped to make erotic love a matter of faith in modern life Erotic faith Polhemus argues is an emotional conviction ultimately religious in nature that meaning value hope and even the possibility of transcendence can be found in love Drawing on a wide range of disciplines Polhemus shows the reciprocity of love as subject the novel as form and faith as motive in important works by Jane Austen Walter Scott the Brontës Dickens George Eliot Trollope Thomas Hardy Joyce D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and Samuel Beckett Throughout Polhemus relates the novelists representation of love to that of such artists as Botticelli Vermeer Claude Lorrain Redon and Klimt Juxtaposing their paintings with nineteenth and twentieth century texts both reveals the ways in which novels develop and individualize common erotic and religious themes and illustrates how the novel has influenced our perception of all art      Franciscan Annals, 1883      A harlot's progress.
