Speaking Our Selves Asimwe Deborah Kawe, Robert H. Vorlicky, 2025-03-04 Speaking Our Selves brings together eight remarkable plays by women writers from the under represented African countries of Tanzania Mozambique Ethiopia Mali Burundi Benin and Sudan plus a play by award winning Ugandan playwright and volume coeditor Asimwe Kawe Four of the plays are translated into English from Kiswahili French or Kirundi and French while most of the plays preserve African indigenous languages including Runyankore Lusoga Mina Fon Bambara Luganda Kiswahili and Kirundi Although the plays are united in presenting women as central figures who own their voices they also represent a rich diversity of story telling Each unique dramaturgy is rooted in African forms of story telling that occasionally merge with recognizable Western forms to create hybrid dramatic forms These hybrid methods emphasize the striking ways in which African women writers continue to experiment with form moving beyond Western influenced dramaturgy if and when it jeopardizes their authentic ways of artistic expression and creation through language movement and music centered in African Cosmology The plays within Speaking Our Selves confront a range of ideas and issues including women embracing the potential of agency in often contested subject positions confronting their historical object positions in worlds of devastating patriarchal authority resisting toxic masculinity and persistent oppressive binaries of gender roles finding power in communities of women increasing their acumen in financial business and economic spheres facing tensions between traditional religious tenets and efforts toward secularization living with perpetual acts of violence toward their bodies and the rising mental health issues among girls and women across the continent Readers and audiences are challenged by these plays not to be passive witnesses by observing from safe vantage points but rather to be active participants in the stories being told
