

A surreal illustration of a race track. At the far end of the track, two giant, stylized hands are visible, each holding a string that runs down the length of the track. Several runners are on the track, and their movements are controlled by these strings, suggesting they are being manipulated. The scene is set against a dark, reddish-brown background with a grid of lines. The runners are in various stages of a stride, and their shadows are cast on the track. The overall atmosphere is one of control and manipulation.
