Encyclopedia of Political Economy Phillip O'Hara,1999-02-04 Content Description Includes bibliographical references and index The Ecological Crisis and the Logic of Capital Xueming Chen,2017-09-11 The worsening environmental crisis has become a serious threat to mankind The search for a solution to this crisis must begin by understanding its causes Taking an eco socialist perspective The Ecological Crisis and the Logic of Capital explores the logic of capitalism as a fundamental cause of today s environmental crisis in particular the thirst for profit and the capitalist mode of production By demonstrating the inherent antagonism between capital and ecology this book argues that proposals to resolve the crisis within the capitalist system are utopian that proposed remedies relying on scientific progress alternative energies low carbon technologies or the introduction of ecological ethics and new attitudes toward Nature into market mechanisms are doomed to failure without a radical overhaul of the principles that govern capitalism Islamic Liberalism Leonard Binder,1988-08-15 The resurgence of Islamic fundamentalism in the 1980s influenced many in the Islamic world to reject Western norms of liberal rationality and to return instead to their own tradition for political and cultural inspiration This rejection of foreign thought threatens to end the centuries long dialogue between Islam and the West a dialogue that has produced a nascent Middle Eastern liberalism along with many less desirable forms of discourse With Islamic Liberalism Leonard Binder hopes to reinvalidate that dialogue asking whether political liberalism can take root in the Middle East without a vigorous Islamic liberalism But Binder asks is an Islamic liberalism possible The Islamic political community presents special problems to the development of an indigenous liberalism That community is conceived of as divinely ordained and its notions of the good are to be derived from scriptural revelation not arrived at through rational discourse Liberal politics would seem to stand little chance of surviving in such an atmosphere let alone thriving Binder responds to the challenge of Edward Said's critique of Orientalism of a range of neo Marxian development theorists of Sayyid Qutb's fundamentalist vision of Samir Amin's vision of Egypt's role in the Arab awakening of Tariq al Bishri's new populism of Zaki Najib Mahmud's pragmatism and the structuralism of Arkoun and Laroui The deconstruction of these varied texts produces a number of persuasive hermeneutical conclusions that are sequentially woven together in a critical argument that refocuses our attention on the central question of political freedom and democracy In the course of constructing this argument Binder reopens the dialogue between Western modernity and Islamic authenticity and reveals the surprising extent to which there is a convergent interest in liberal democratic civil society Finally in a concluding chapter he addresses the prospects for liberalism in the three major bourgeois states of Islam Egypt Turkey and Iran
