Bey, 2018-09-19 This new translation brings together two of Algerian author Maïssa Bey's important works for the first time in English Do You Hear in the Mountains is a compelling piece of autofiction in which three destinies meet dramatically on a train moving through France We meet an Algerian refugee whom we recognize as Bey herself She has escaped the civil war and cannot forget her father's commitment to independence nor his death under the torture of the French soldiers Sitting near her is a retired doctor whose military service in Algeria coincidentally took him to the same area at the time of that tragedy Their neighbor is a girl who would like to understand this past that is so painful to discuss The eleven diverse tales that follow presented under the title Under the Jasmin at Night exemplify some of Bey's recurring themes the Franco Algerian colonial legacy and the feminine condition Together these works provide an unforgettable picture of a turbulent history that reaches across generations and continents CARAF Caribbean and African Literature Translated from French
