Visvavatan Abhijit Naskar, Thus speaks Naskar Letter to My Soldiers I am only the beginning the beginning of a new kind of humans humans who belong to not one culture but many cultures humans who speak not one language but many languages humans who study scriptures and science with equal enthusiasm yet pledge allegiance to neither and know how to use both in the benefit of humanity humans who aim for neither belief nor disbelief but warmth and understanding humans who are more concerned with the real hard problem of inhumanity than the outdated hard problem of consciousness humans who sacrifice their life treating the real hard question of hate rather than the mythical hard question of god I am only the beginning the first spark if you may the best are yet to come Women and Labour in Late Colonial India Samita

Sen,1999-05-06 Samita Sen s history of labouring women in Calcutta in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries considers how social constructions of gender shaped their lives Dr Sen demonstrates how in contrast to the experience of their male counterparts the long term trends in the Indian economy devalued women s labour establishing patterns of urban migration and changing gender equations within the family She relates these trends to the spread of dowry enforced widowhood and child marriage The book provides insight into the lives of poor urban women who were often perceived as prostitutes or social pariahs Even trade unions refused to address their problems and they remained on the margins of organized political protest The study will make a significant contribution to the understanding of the social and economic history of colonial India and to notions of gender construction Catalogue of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1938 The Geographical Journal ,1928 The Gaidinliu Uprising in British India Sajal

Nag,2024-03-19 This book studies the Gaidinliu uprising led by Rani Gaidinliu a spiritual and political leader from Northeast India It follows the journey of Gaidinliu who was at the forefront of the revolt which turned into a political movement seeking to drive out the British from Manipur and the surrounding Naga areas The book looks at the Gaidinliu movement as one of many tribal responses to colonial transformation deprivation alienation and extreme oppression of the tribal formations in India It also critically analyses the diverse colonial modes of tackling the different types of opposition to its rule and examines how the State devised to permanently erase the idea of rebellion from the minds of its subjects as a future strategy A unique contribution the book will be indispensable to political science modern history gender studies subaltern studies political theory tribal studies political sociology political history colonialism post colonial studies and South Asia studies particularly those interested in Northeast India Report of the Indian Famine Commission, 1898 India.
