Friend Of My Youth:

Friend of My Youth Alice Munro, 1991-05-07 WINNER OF THE NOBEL PRIZE IN LITERATURE 2013 The ten miraculously accomplished stories in Alice Munro's Friend of My Youth not only astonish and delight but also convey the unspoken mysteries at the heart of all human experience Friend of My Youth is a wonderful collection of stories beautifully written and deeply felt Michiko Kakutani New York Times

Friend of My Youth Alice Munro, 2012-04-25 A wickedly funny Newsweek collection of ten short stories from Nobel Prize winning author Alice Munro one of the most eloquent and gifted writers of contemporary fiction Michiko Kakutani The New York Times Each of her collections demonstrates such linguistic skill delicacy of vision and moral strength and clarity Chicago Tribune A woman haunted by dreams of her dead mother An adulterous couple stepping over the line where the initial excitement ends and the pain begins A widow visiting a Scottish village in search of her husband's past and instead discovering unsettling truths about a total stranger The miraculously accomplished stories in this collection not only astonish and delight but also convey the unspoken mysteries at the heart of all human experience The mastery the almost numinous ability to say the unsayable makes Friend of My Youth a genuine literary event

Friend of My Youth Alice Munro, 1991-05 In the powerful haunting stories of Munro's new collection men and women in the midst of contemporary quandaries and crises recall the long buried yearnings dreams and hard choices that have given shape to their lives

Alice Munro Coral Ann Howells, 1998-10-15 Alice Munro is Canada's greatest short story writer This book the first full length study of her work published in Britain explores the appeal of Munro's fictions of small town Canadian life with their precise attention to social surfaces and their fascination with local gossip and scandal This is a world of open secrets and Howells highlights Munro's distinctive storytelling methods which combine the familiar and the unfamiliar slipping between realism and fantasy to make visible what is usually hidden within everyday life These are women's narratives full of silent female knowledge of female bodies love stories and romantic fantasies as well as female casualties Munro takes up the traditional subjects of women's fiction through her stories significantly female plots stories of entrapment and escape attempts where secrecy and silence become strategies of resistance Munro's enthusiasm for the work of other women writers from Emily Brontë and L M Montgomery to Eudora Welty is emphasized as Munro continues to experiment with the short story form creating worlds which are both touchable and mysterious

Literary Sisterhoods Deborah Heller, 2005 In literary works by women authors ranging from Mme de Staël George Eliot and Anna Banti to contemporary writers Alice Munro and Grace Paley Deborah Heller examines how women writers over the past two centuries have represented the challenges of being both a woman and an artist Literary Sisterhoods examines the untold connections between the woman author and her subject between woman authors and among women artists the world over Heller teases out a convincing assertion of sisterhoods for a diverse range of authors and works despite the differences of the cultures and eras they represent Heller's book builds on feminist criticism and scholarship that has helped make us aware of the distinctive perspectives on female experience revealed in women's writing Literary Sisterhoods explores how women authors construct their female protagonists' quests for creative self-expression. Situating these narrative journeys in their own times and cultures, Heller shows how they contribute to a common tradition that speaks to readers today. Alice Munro and the Art of Time Laura K. Davis, 2025-08-25 Alice Munro and the Art of Time reveals how one of the world's greatest writers of short stories challenged and reconfigured traditional assumptions about time. In chapters that analyze selected stories and collections from across Munro's career, Laura K. Davis examines the formal and conceptual function of temporality in Munro's oeuvre, considering the relationship between the past and the present, material experiences of being, story structure, memory, and memoir. Clear and compelling interpretations of Munro's stories offer insights into her writing process, her representations of character and setting, and the complexities of her narrative techniques, which often evade linearity and chronology, emphasizing instead revision, repetition, and the body. By highlighting the connections between time and various tropes in Munro's stories, including identity, ephemerality, and environmental change, this study provides new, exciting avenues for engaging with Munro's work. The Remarkable Lushington Family David Taylor, 2020-07-15 Drawing on previously unpublished archival materials, this study spans three generations of the Lushington family. It investigates their personal histories through the themes of social, artistic, and cultural history. The author analyzes the Lushington family's relationships with well-known figures like Lady Byron, Queen Caroline, and members of the Bloomsbury Group. Most importantly, this study examines Lushington family members' roles within larger trends, including abolitionism, the Pre-Raphaelite movement, and Positivism. The Christian's penny magazine, and friend of the people [ed. by J. Campbell and F.S. Williams]. Congregational Union of England and Wales, 1868 Contemporary Indian English Literature Cecile Sandten, Indrani Karmakar, Oliver von Knebel Doeberitz, 2024-02-12 Contemporary Indian English Literature focuses on the recent history of Indian literature in English since the publication of Salman Rushdie's novel Midnight's Children (1981), a watershed moment for Indian writing in English in the global literary landscape. The chapters in this volume consider a wide range of poets, novelists, short-fiction writers, and dramatists who have notably contributed to the proliferation of Indian literature in English from the late 20th century to the present. The volume provides an introduction to current developments in Indian English literature and explains general ideas as well as the specific features and styles of selected writers from this wide spectrum. It addresses students working in this field at university level and includes thorough reading lists and study questions to encourage students to read, reflect on, and write about Indian English literature critically. The Deeper Harmonies, and Other Poems George Frederic Viett, 1905 Life Writing, Representation and Identity Mukul Chaturvedi, 2024-03-27 This book focuses on varied forms of self-referential storytelling or life writing and its emergence as a democratic and inclusive genre, both globally and in India, and its intersections with history, fiction, memory, truth, and identity. The book examines the practice of life writing and its scope for accommodating diverse voices, distinct identities, collaborations, and nonhierarchical connections as it gives voice to oral silenced and marginalized communities It explores forms like auto biographical fiction digital storytelling graphic memoirs and testimonies of migration and exile among others The eclectic collection of essays in this volume draws attention towards the transformative possibilities of life writing as it engages with issues of resistance recuperation re inscribing individual and collective memories histories and promotes an understanding of multicultural others Focusing on the multiple ways in which the production circulation and consumption of life writing has helped to reimagine and redefine individual and collective identities in different cultural and geopolitical contexts the collection breaks new ground by initiating a cross cultural perspective in life writing studies The book aims to encourage critical engagement with a vastly growing body of literature that has seen a publishing and translation boom in contemporary times both globally and in India With life writing emerging as a robust area of research this edited collection provides a much needed impetus to critically engage with issues of self representation memory and identity in recent times This volume will serve as a significant and rich resource for university students researchers and academics of literature comparative studies cultural studies history indigenous studies and digital and media studies

Figuring Grief Karen E. Smythe,1992-11-09

The title Figuring Grief refers to the narrative process whereby mourning is depicted In her textual analysis Smythe explores various connections between representation and consolation Drawing on genre and narratological theory she outlines the development of the fiction elegy as a sub genre and suggests that the modernist writings of Woolf and Joyce are paradigmatic examples of the form She then uses these paradigms as suggestive reading models for the interpretation of works by Gallant Munro and other contemporary fiction elegists Figuring Grief offers new readings of specific works and suggests that new ways of reading are both demanded and rewarded by a poetics of elegy

Variety. A collection of original poems. By a Lady

,1802 National Plots Andrea Cabajsky,Brett Josef Grubisic,2010-10-04 Fiction that reconsiders challenges reshapes and or upholds national narratives of history has long been an integral aspect of Canadian literature Works by writers of historical fiction from early practitioners such as John Richardson to contemporary figures such as Alice Munro and George Elliott Clarke propose new views and understandings of Canadian history and individual relationships to it Critical evaluation of these works sheds light on the complexity of these depictions The contributors in National Plots Historical Fiction and Changing Ideas of Canada critically examine texts with subject matter ranging from George Vancouver's west coast explorations to the eradication of the Beothuk in Newfoundland Reflecting diverse methodologies and theoretical approaches the essays seek to explicate depictions of the historical in individual texts and to explore larger questions relating to historical fiction as a genre with complex and divergent political motivations and goals Although the topics of the essays vary widely as a whole the collection raises and answers questions about the significance of the roles historical fiction has played within Canadian culture for nearly two centuries
