Human Rights In The People's Republic Of China Yuan-li Wu, 2019-04-10 This book examines the effects that political institutions the legal system and economic policies have had on the human rights record in the PRC since 1949 The authors first address the problems of assessing political liberties in a nation that emphasizes economic over civil rights and that has traditionally valued collective rights over individual Rainbow's End Steven P. Millenarian Vision, Capitalist Reality Todd A. Diacon, 1991-08-29 Why did a millenarian movement erupt in the Brazilian interior in 1912 Setting out to answer this deceptively simple question Todd A Diacon delivers a fascinating account of a culture in crisis Combining oral history with detailed archival research Millenarian Vision Capitalist Reality depicts a peasant community whose security in economic social and religious relations was suddenly disrupted by the intrusion of international capital Diacon shows how a deadly triumvirate comprised of foreign capital state power and local bosses engineered a land tenure revolution that threatened smallholders subsistence sparking rebellion among the Contestado peasants Unlike most analysis of millenarian movements Diacon combines a material analysis with a careful exploration of the movement's millenarian ideology to demonstrate how a particular combination of external and internal forces produced a crisis of values in the Contestado society. Such a crisis, Diacon concludes, gave a special power to the millenarian vision that promised not only outward reform but inner salvation as well. This work offers a significant contribution to the literature of millenarian movements, popular religion, peasant rebellions, and the transition to capitalism in Brazil.

Neopatrimonialism in Africa and Beyond Daniel C. Bach, Mamoudou Gazibo, 2013-03-01. Neopatrimonialism, a system whereby rulers use state resources for personal benefit and to secure the loyalty of clients in the general population, is central to any teaching or conceptualisation of contemporary African politics. This book is a theoretical and comparative study of neopatrimonialism in Africa and across world regions. Although such practices are widespread in other parts of the world, the African neopatrimonial state has also become a global prototype of the anti-developmental state. This volume calls for a reappraisal of the genesis and interpretations of the concepts of patrimonialism and neopatrimonialism. Expert contributors consider recent debates in Africa through the study of democracy, clientelism, the big man syndrome, Kenya, the rise of godfatherism, Nigeria, warlordism, Liberia, and the neopatrimonial state on a day-to-day basis. Niger. They discuss patrimonialism and neopatrimonialism from Latin America to Europe, Central Asia, and Asia Pacific, to weave a comparative analysis of the interplay between public policies and private interest. Neopatrimonialism in Africa and Beyond is an important and timely volume that will be of interest to students and scholars of international politics, African studies, sociology, and international development.

Paul and the Power of Sin T. L. Carter, 2001-12-13. Paul and the Power of Sin, first published in 2001, seeks to ground Paul's language of sin in the socio-cultural context of his original letters. T. L. Carter draws on the work of social anthropologist Mary Douglas to conduct a cross-cultural analysis of the symbolism of the power of sin in the letters, examining thoroughly Douglas's Grid and Group model and defending its use as a heuristic tool for New Testament scholars. He uses this model to examine the social location of Paul and the communities to which he wrote and offers a fresh insight into key passages from 1 Corinthians, Galatians, and Romans. Carter concludes that an important part of Paul's purpose was to safeguard the position of law-free Gentile believers by redrawing social boundaries along eschatological rather than ethnic lines.

Court and Politics in Papal Rome, 1492-1700 Gianvittorio Signorotto, Maria Antonietta Visceglia, 2002-03-21 This 2002 book attempts to overcome the traditional historiographical approach to the role of the early modern papacy by focusing on the actual mechanisms of power in the papal court The period covered extends from the Renaissance to the aftermath of the peace of Westphalia in 1648 after which the papacy was reduced to a mainly spiritual role Based on research in Italian and other European archives the book concentrates on the factions at the Roman court and in the college of cardinals The sacred college came under great international pressure during the election of a new pope and consequently such figures as foreign ambassadors and foreign cardinals are examined as well as political liaisons and social contacts at court Finally the book includes an analysis of the ambiguous nature of Roman ceremonial which was both religious and secular a reflection of the power struggle both in Rome and in Europe

Patronage in Sixteenth- and Seventeenth-Century France Sharon Kettering, 2024-10-28 The dual themes of this volume are the characteristics of patronage relationships and their political uses in early modern France The first essays provide an overview of the scholarly literature and suggest that the obligatory reciprocity of the patron client exchange was a defining characteristic The third and fourth essays compare patronage relationships with kinship and friendship while the following two focus on the patronage role of noblewomen Professor Kettering then looks at the role of brokerage in state formation in early modern France comparing this with other early modern societies In the final section she explores the role of patronage in the religious wars of the late 16th century and in the civil war of the Fronde a half century later and the ways in which it was affected by the changing lifestyles of the great nobles during the late 17th century
