From Babel To Dragomans Interpreting The Middle East:

From Babel to Dragomans Bernard Lewis, 2004-05-02 Bernard Lewis is recognized around the globe as one of the leading authorities on Islam Hailed as the world's foremost Islamic scholar Wall Street Journal as a towering figure among experts on the culture and religion of the Muslim world Baltimore Sun and as the doyen of Middle Eastern studies New York Times Lewis is nothing less than a national treasure a trusted voice that politicians journalists historians and the general public have all turned to for insight into the Middle East Now this revered authority has brought together writings and lectures that he has written over four decades featuring his reflections on Middle Eastern history and foreign affairs the Iranian Revolution the state of Israel the writing of history and much more The essays cover such urgent and compelling topics as What Saddam Wrought Deconstructing Osama and His Evil Appeal The Middle East Westernized Despite Itself The Enemies of God and Can Islam Be Secularized The collection ranges from two English originals of articles published before only in foreign languages to previously unpublished writings to his highly regarded essays from publications such as Foreign Affairs and The New York Review of Books With more than fifty pieces in all plus a new introduction to the book by Lewis this is a valuable collection for everyone interested in the Middle East Here then is a rich repository of wisdom on one of the key areas of the modern world a wealth of profound reflections on Middle Eastern history culture politics and current events

Edward Said's Rhetoric of the Secular Mathieu E. Courville, 2011-10-20 Edward Said's Rhetoric of the Secular provides an important new reading of Edward W Said's work emphasizing not only the distinction but also the fuzzy borders between representations of the religious and the secular found within and throughout his oeuvre and at the core of some of his most customary rhetorical strategies Mathieu Courville begins by examining Said's own reflections on his life before moving on to key debates about Said's work within Religious Studies and Middle Eastern Studies and his relationship to French critical theorists Through close attention to Said's use of the literal and the figurative when dealing with religious national and cultural matters Courville discerns a pattern that illuminates what Said means by secular Said's work shows that the secular is not the utter opposite of religion in the modern globalized world but may exist in a productive tension with it Encyclopedia of United States National Security Richard J. Samuels, 2006 Covers the origin development and results of all major national security policies over the last seven decades A thoroughly interdisciplinary work the encyclopedia views national security from a historical economic political and technological perspective Britain in the Islamic World Justin Quinn Olmstead, 2019-08-22 This collection examines the role of Britain in the Islamic world It offers insight into the social political diplomatic and military issues that arose over the centuries of British involvement in the region particularly focusing on the nineteenth and twentieth centuries British involvement can be separated into three phases Discovery Colonization and Decolonization and Post Empire Decisions made by individual traders and high governmental officials are examined to understand how Great Britain impacted the Islamic world through these periods and conversely how events in the Islamic world influenced British decisions within the empire in protection of the empire and in the wake of the empire The essays consider early perceptions of Islam the role of trade British Ottoman relations and colonial rule and control through religion They explore British influence in a number of countries including Somalia Egypt Palestine Iran Iraq the Gulf States India and beyond The final part of the book addresses the lasting impact of British imperial rule in the Islamic world Humanities

Thinking History, Fighting Evil David Bruce MacDonald,2009-01-01 This accessible study critiques the rise of a new exceptionalism a victim centered nationalism promoted by American conservatives since the 1980s borrowing imagery and vocabulary from the civil rights era and political correctness movements of the left Thinking History Fighting Evil explores the instrumentalization of anti Americanism and anti-Semitism in the service of U S foreign policy paying attention to how conservatives approach far enemies Islamism near enemies Europe and Latin America and the enemies within the domestic left

Comprehending Antisemitism through the Ages: A Historical Perspective Armin Lange,Kerstin Mayerhofer,Dina Porat,Lawrence H. Schiffman,2021-08-23 This volume traces the history of antisemitism from antiquity through contemporary manifestations of the discrimination of Jews It documents the religious sociological political and economic contexts in which antisemitism thrived and thrives and shows how such circumstances served as support and reinforcement for a curtailment of the Jews social status The volume sheds light on historical processes of discrimination and identifies them as a key factor in the contemporary and future fight against antisemitism Writing History in the Medieval Islamic World Fozia Bora,2019-06-13 In the encyclopaedic fourteenth century Arabic chronicles produced in Mamluk cities bore textual witness to both recent and bygone history including that of the Fatimids 969 1171CE For in two centuries of rule over Egypt and North Africa the Isma ili Fatimids had left few self generated historiographical records Instead it fell to Ayyubid and Mamluk historians to represent the dynasty to posterity This monograph sets out to explain how later historians preserved interpreted and re organised earlier textual sources Mamluk historians engaged in a sophisticated archival practice within historiography rather than uncritically reproducing earlier reports In a new diplomatic edition translation and analysis of Mamluk historian Ibn al Furat s account of late Fatimid rule in The History of Dynasties and Kings a widely known but barely copied universal chronicle of Islamic history Fozia Bora traces the survival of historiographical narratives from Fatimid Egypt Through Ibn al Furat s text Bora demonstrates archivality as the heuristic key to Mamluk historical writing This book is essential for all scholars working on the written culture and history of the medieval Islamic world and paves the way for a more nuanced reading of pre modern Arabic chronicles and of the epistemic environment in which they were produced Making War In The Name Of God Christopher Catherwood,2008-10-01 From Islam declaring Jihad against the west to Arab against Jew to Catholic against Protestant one question resonates with the global threat we face today Why does God inspire the killing of Man Renowned historian Christopher Catherwood vividly recounts a saga of passion and prejudice that laid the foundation for our own troubled age Beginning with the death in 632 of Muhammad as much political leader and general as prophet Islam commenced its breathtaking spread which under Muhammad s successors eventually conquered an empire larger than Rome s Even as this vast realm broke apart into Sunni and Shiite factions the Christian retaliation ruthlessly and unscrupulously unleashed in 1095 with the First Crusade sparked a clash between East and West that continues to this day The pattern would repeat itself again and again with the Ottoman invasion of the Balkans in which the same Islamic faith that had once been an institution of tolerance in places like Spain became an instrument of expansion with the wars of the Reformation when Catholic and Protestant slaughtered each other in the name of the Prince of Peace and with the endless conflicts of today s Middle East savagely fought over by three faiths that all worship the same God Based on exhaustive research and written with an unflinching unbiased eye toward revealing the often painful truth Making War in the Name of God unveils humanity s ancient habit of sanctifying bloodshed and exposes a past that we forget at our peril Christopher Catherwood teaches history at Cambridge University in England and at the University of Richmond Virginia A fellow of the Royal Historical Society he is the author of several acclaimed books including Churchill s Folly How Winston Churchill Created Modern Iraq A God Divided Understanding the Differences Between Islam Christianity and Judaism and Whose Side

Is God On Cosmopolitan Archaeologies Lynn Meskell, 2009-04-17 A collection exploring the implications of applying the cosmopolitan ideals of obligations to others and respect for cultural difference to archaeological practice The Origins of Secular Institutions H. Zeynep Bulutgil, 2022 An original theory and meticulous analysis of how advocates of political secularization emerged historically and why they succeeded in some contexts but not others Why do some countries adopt secular institutions while others do not In The Origins of Secular Institutions Zeynep Bulutgil develops a theory that combines ideational and organizational mechanisms to explain how institutional secularization occurs She first focuses on why political groups with a secularizing agenda emerge Her argument is that the circulation of Enlightenment literature among the elite and associations through which the elite could exchange ideas were the main factors that influenced the early emergence of secularizing political movements She then turns to the conditions under which these movements succeed Secularizing political groups are at a comparative disadvantage when it comes to recruiting grassroots support because unlike religious actors they cannot rely on a pre existing institutional structure They become likely to overcome this obstacle if they have time to build a robust organization before religious political movements emerge Bulutgil supports these arguments by combining statistical analysis of original historical data with comparative analysis of countries in Europe France Spain The United Kingdom and the Middle East North Africa Turkey Morocco and Tunisia An authoritative explanation of why political secularization occurred in some countries but not others this book will reshape our understanding of an issue of unsurpassed importance for over two centuries the effects of modernity on politics The Political Economy of Iran Farhad Gohardani, Zahra Tizro, 2019-03-07 This study entails a theoretical reading of the Iranian modern history and follows an interdisciplinary agenda at the intersection of philosophy psychoanalysis economics and politics and intends to offer a novel framework for the analysis of socio economic development in Iran in the modern era A brief review of Iranian modern history from the Constitutional Revolution to the Oil Nationalization Movement the 1979 Islamic Revolution and the recent Reformist and Green Movements demonstrates that Iranian people travelled full circle This historical experience of socio economic development revolving around the bitter question of Why are we backward and its manifestation in perpetual socio political instability and violence is the subject matter of this study Michel Foucault's conceived relation between the production of truth and production of wealth captures the essence of hypothesis offered in this study Foucault 1980 93 94 maintains that In the last analysis we must produce truth as we must produce wealth indeed we must produce truth in order to produce wealth in the first place Based on a hybrid methodology combining hermeneutics of understanding and hermeneutics of suspicion this monograph proposes that the failure to produce wealth has had particular roots in the failure in the production of truth and trust At the heart of the proposed theoretical model is the following formula the Iranian subject's confused preference structure culminates in the formation of unstable coalitions which in turn leads to institutional failure creating a chaotic social order and a turbulent history as experienced by the

Iranian nation in the modern era As such the society oscillates between the chaotic states of socio political anarchy emanating from irreconcilable differences between and within social assemblages and their affiliated hybrid forms of regimes of truth in the springs of freedom and repressive states of order in the winters of discontent Each time after the experience of chaos the order is restored based on the emergence of a final arbiter Iranian leviathan as the evolved coping strategy for achieving conflict resolution This highly volatile truth cycle produces the experience of socio economic backwardness and violence The explanatory power of the theoretical framework offered in the study exploring the relation between the production of truth trust and wealth is demonstrated via providing historical examples from strong events of Iranian modern history The significant policy implications of the model are explored This monograph will appeal to researchers scholars graduate students policy makers and anyone interested in the Middle Eastern politics Iran development studies and political economy

A Concise History of the Arabs John McHugo,2012-08-21 This brilliant and erudite history by the award winning Arabist provides vital context for understanding the contemporary Middle East Patrick Seale author of Asad The Struggle for the Middle East From Algeria and Libya to Egypt Syria and Saudi Arabia the Arab world commands Western headlines Nowhere else does the unfolding of events have such significant consequences for America And yet its complex politics and cultures elude the grasp of most Western readers and commentators A Concise History of the Arabs provides an essential road map to understanding the Arab world today and in the years ahead Noted Arab scholar John McHugo guides readers through the political social and intellectual history of the Arabs from the Roman Empire to the present day Taking readers beyond the headlines McHugo vividly describes the crucial turning points in Arab history from the Prophet Muhammad s mission and the expansion of Islam to the region s interaction with Western ideas and the rise of Islamism This lucidly told history reveals how the Arab world came into its present form why major shifts like the Arab Spring were inevitable and what may lie ahead for the region A Choice Outstanding Academic Title this accessible history is the product of wide reading hard thinking and years of direct experience of the Middle East There are lively and informative insights on almost every page Patrick Seale author of Asad The Struggle for the Middle East

The Arab-American Handbook Nawar Shora,2009 Tune up your knowledge of the Arab and Muslim worlds with this easy to read text The Arab American Handbook contains useful reference material and comment by a wide variety of participants and observers The book includes a thumbnail history the essentials of Islam social insights cultural norms The perfect tool for teachers employers travelers law enforcement Government workers and the general public will find that they can quickly penetrate the stereotypes and misconceptions to appreciate the tenor and nuance of Arab and Muslim life Without a better grasp of this subject the citizens of liberal democracies are unsafe at home and at a disadvantage in the global competition for hearts and minds

A History of Eastern Europe Robert Bideleux,Ian Jeffries,2007-09-12 This welcome second edition of A History of Eastern Europe provides a thematic historical survey of the formative processes of political social and economic change which have played paramount roles in shaping the evolution and development of the region. Subjects covered include Eastern Europe in ancient medieval and early modern times, the legacies of Byzantium, the Ottoman Empire and the Habsburg Empire, the impact of the region's powerful Russian and Germanic neighbours, rival concepts of Central and Eastern Europe, the experience and consequences of the two World Wars, varieties of fascism in Eastern Europe, the impact of Communism from the 1940s to the 1980s, post-Communist democratization and marketization, the eastward enlargement of the EU. A History of Eastern Europe now includes two new chronologies, one for the Balkans and one for East Central Europe, and a glossary of key terms and concepts providing comprehensive coverage of a complex past from antiquity to the present day.

Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East Jamie Stokes, 2009. Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East is a two-volume A to Z reference to the history and culture of the peoples of Africa and the Middle East.

Islam and Warfare Onder Bakircioglu, 2014-10-30. The question of how Islamic law regulates the notions of just recourse to and just conduct in war has long been the topic of heated controversy and is often subject to oversimplification in scholarship and journalism. This book traces the rationale for aggression within the Islamic tradition and assesses the meaning and evolution of the contentious concept of jihad. The book reveals that there has never been a unified position on what Islamic warfare tangibly entails due to the complexity of relevant sources and discordant historical dynamics that have shaped the contours of jihad. Onder Bakircioglu advocates a dynamic reading of Islamic law and military tradition, one which prioritises the demands of contemporary international relations and considers the meaning and application of jihad as contingent on the socio-political forces of each historical epoch. This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of international law, Islamic law, war and security studies, and the law of armed conflict.

Islamic Radicalism and Global Jihad Devin R. Springer, 2009-01-06. Jihadist ideology inspires a diverse and decentralized collection of radical groups to fight alleged enemies of Islam and to attempt to restore a holy caliphate to unite Muslim peoples across the Middle East, Africa, and Asia. Islamic Radicalism and Global Jihad provides unique insights into the philosophical foundations, strategic vision, organizational dynamics, and tactics of the modern jihadist movement, with specific attention to its primary driver, Al Qaeda. Devin R. Springer, Regens, and Edger draw heavily on Arabic language sources, seldom seen in the West, to explain what jihadists want and how radical thinkers have distorted the teachings of Islam to convince followers to pursue terrorism as a religious duty. With sophisticated and systematic analysis, the authors lead their readers on a fascinating intellectual journey through the differing ideas, goals, and vulnerabilities of the jihadist movement as it has evolved over time. The authors also impart wisdom from their own professional experience with terrorism, counterinsurgency, and intelligence to provide scholars, students, counterterrorism professionals, and general readers with this accessible overview of key radical Islamic thinkers and today's jihadists.
