Each of the circumstances shifts the focus with the aim of securing effective and adequate protection of individual freedom as societies become increasingly diversified in cultural terms and issues arise of access to laws and public institutions, exemption from legal obligations for reasons of conscience, fair resolution of conflicts having their source in differing ethical, religious and philosophical outlooks and excuse for breach of law in case of involuntary ignorance.

Socioeconomic Status, Parenting, and Child Development Marc H. Bornstein, Robert H. Bradley, 2014-04-04

Socioeconomic Status, Parenting and Child Development presents cutting edge thinking and research on linkages among socioeconomic status, parenting and child development. The contributors represent an array of different disciplines and approach the issues from a variety of perspectives. Accordingly, their take on how SES matters in the lives of children varies. This volume is divided into two parts. Part I concerns the constructs and measurement of SES and Part II discusses the functions and effects of SES. Each part presents four substantive chapters on the topic followed by an interpretive and constructively critical commentary. The chapters, considered as a whole, attest to the value of systematically examining the components of SES and how each flows through an array of specific parenting practices and resources both within and outside the home environment to help shape the course of child development. The result is a more fully delineated picture of how SES impacts the lives of children in the 21st century, a picture that contains a road map for the next generation of studies of SES and its role in the rapidly evolving ecology of family life. The Child as Citizen Felton Earls, 2011-02-23

Marking the 20th anniversary of the United Nations General Assembly's adoption of the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC), this volume of the ANNALS considers conceptual, legal and practical issues related to the realization of children as citizens.
