From Johnsons Kids To Lemonade Opera The American Classical Singer Comes Of Age:

From Johnson's Kids to Lemonade Opera Victoria Etnier Villamil, 2004 American baritone Lawrence Tibbett created an overnight sensation at the Metropolitan Opera in 1925 when the audience stopped the performance of Falstaff to honor their compatriot for his exceptional talent Tibbett's now legendary curtain call foreshadowed a startling new era for classically trained native singers who rarely received the public recognition or respect given to their European colleagues In this absorbing work Victoria Etnier Villamil chronicles the extraordinary time from 1935 to 1950 when American artists who felt intensely inferior to foreign performers journeyed from being unappreciated in their own country to standing without apology on stages at home and abroad Drawing on exhaustive primary research and extensive interviews Villamil tells the remarkable story of a generation of American opera singers whose profession image and art were forever altered by the upheavals of World War II as well as sweeping cultural and technological changes The author's in depth look at these breakthrough years explores such defining factors as Edward Johnson's drive to Americanize the Met in his first seasons as general manager the impact of the microphone on singers and singing styles and the importance of radio and motion pictures in introducing classical music voices to wider audiences Villamil also considers how travel restrictions imposed on European artists during the war unlocked opportunities for American artists and the role of political and Jewish refugees in enriching music education and training in this country In addition the author discusses thoroughly the founding of the New York City Opera the rise of regional and smaller opera companies including the enterprising and popular Lemonade Opera and advancements for African American classical singers Brimming with entertaining anecdotes and colorful figures both famous and little remembered the fascinating book concludes with an examination of this crucial period's legacy for the American classical music scene in the 1950s and beyond From Johnson's Kids to Lemonade Opera contains an invaluable appendix that provides biographical sketches of the over 250 opera and radio singers as well as art song specialists featured in this illuminating study

Kurt Weill's America Naomi Graber, 2021 When German Jewish composer Kurt Weill arrived in the United States in 1935 he found a nation nothing like he imagined This book tells the full story of Weill as outsider turned insider showing how he was keenly attuned to the difficult relationship America had with her immigrants but was slower to grasp the subtleties of race relations

artist The singer who introduced Home on the Range and launched many other American standards has been largely forgotten today This thorough biography details Thomas s life and career Beginning with his school days at the Peabody it traces his Broadway career as the star of Step This Way and Maytime and his highly successful career as a concert recording and opera star Appendices provide a discography of his recordings a list of operatic appearances in Brussels and the United States and the songs he performed on radio broadcasts from 1934 to 1948 Dreaming in Ensemble Lucy Caplan,2025

Lucy Caplan explores the flourishing of Black composers performers and critics of opera in America during the early twentieth century Working outside mainstream opera houses these artists fostered countercultural forms of expression that reimagined opera as a medium of Black aesthetic and political creativity Saying It With Songs Katherine

Spring,2013-10-03 Hollywood s conversion from silent to synchronized sound film production not only instigated the convergence of the film and music industries but also gave rise to an extraordinary period of songs in American cinema Saying It With Songs considers how the increasing interdependence of Hollywood studios and Tin Pan Alley music publishing firms influenced the commercial and narrative functions of popular songs While most scholarship on film music of the period focuses on adaptations of Broadway musicals this book examines the functions of songs in a variety of non musical genres including melodramas romantic comedies Westerns prison dramas and action adventure films and shows how filmmakers tested and refined their approach to songs in order to reconcile the spectacle of song performance the classical norms of storytelling and the conventions of background orchestral scoring from the period of silent cinema Written for film and music scholars alike as well as for general readers Saying It With Songs illuminates the origins of the popular song score aesthetic of American cinema Beyond the Handsomeness Nancy Spada,2023-07-01 A lightning rod for powerful emotions
