Moghadam, 1995-12-31 An examination of the political economy of agricultural development in Iran during the oil boom period of the 1960s and 1970s The author focuses on two interdependent aspects of agricultural development structural changes in property and labour relations and productive efficiency and growth of output Basing her approach on a consideration of the political social and historical contexts of change the author shows how developments in the agricultural sector affected the broader society The period under study is initially marked by the consolidation and enhancement of the power of the monarchy and ends with its downfall in 1979 Moghadam argues that structural changes in property and labour relations in the agricultural sector help account for the revolution and for the active role of the ulamar in it The Political Economy of Theocracy R. From Resilience to Revolution Sean L. Yom, 2015-12-01 Based on comparative historical analyses of Iran Jordan and Kuwait Sean L Yom examines the foreign interventions coalitional choices and state outcomes that made the political regimes of the modern Middle East A key text for foreign policy scholars From Resilience to Revolution shows how outside interference can corrupt the most basic choices of governance who to reward who to punish who to compensate and who to manipulate As colonial rule dissolved in the 1930s and 1950s Middle Eastern autocrats constructed new political states to solidify their reigns with varying results Why did equally ambitious authoritarians meet such unequal fates Yom ties the durability of Middle Eastern regimes to their geopolitical origins At the dawn of the postcolonial era many autocratic states had little support from their people and struggled to overcome widespread opposition When foreign powers intervened to bolster these regimes they unwittingly sabotaged the prospects for long term stability by discouraging leaders from reaching out to their people and bargaining for mass support early coalitional decisions that created repressive institutions and planted the seeds for future unrest Only when they were secluded from larger geopolitical machinations did Middle Eastern regimes come to grips with their weaknesses and build broader coalitions The Oxford Encyclopedia of Economic

in its historical context Tribal Politics in Iran provides an overall assessment on the impact of this crucial period on the character of tribe state relations in Iran to the end of Pahlavi rule and in the Islamic Republic It analyzes the political and socio economic factors undermining tribal politics under the regime of Reza Shah and examines the division which took place regarding the tribal problem The author argues that on the one hand it lead to modern ethnic nationalism and on the other detribalization and absorption into wider class or ideology based organizations happened Looking particularly at the land reform of the early 1960s and the revolution of 1979 Cronin also discusses the final disappearance of the khans as a political force and the rise of a new tribal leadership loyal to and dependent upon the regime This innovative and important work challenges conventional political and scholarly approaches to tribal politics The Rite of Urban Passage Reza Masoudi,2018-08-17 The Iranian city experienced a major transformation when the Pahlavi Dynasty initiated a project of modernization in the 1920s The Rite of Urban Passage investigates this process by focusing on the spatial dynamics of Muharram processions a ritual that commemorates the tragic massacre of Hussein and his companions in 680 CE In doing so this volume offers not only an alternative approach to understanding the process of urban transformation but also a spatial genealogy of Muharram rituals that provides a platform for developing a fresh spatial approach to ritual studies

Recasting Iranian Modernity Kamran Matin,2013-11-07 Critically deploying the idea of uneven and combined development this book provides a novel non Eurocentric account of Iran s experience of modernity and revolution Recasting Iranian Modernity presents the argument that Eurocentrism can be decisively overcome through a social theory that has international relations at its ontological core This will enable a conception of history in which there is an intrinsic international dimension to social change that prevents historical repetition This hitherto under theorized international dimension is the book argues manifest in combined patterns of development which incorporate both foreign and native forms It is the tension prone and unstable nature of these hybrid developmental patterns that mark Iranian modernity and fuelled the socio political dynamics of the 1979 revolution and the rise of political Islam Challenging solely comparative approaches to the Iranian Revolution that explain it away as either a deviation from or a reaction to modernity on the grounds of its religious form this book will be valuable to those interested in an alternative theoretical approach to the Iranian Revolution modern Iran and political Islam working in the fields of International Relations Middle East and Islamic Studies History Political Science Political Sociology Postcolonialism and Comparative Politics Subalterns and Social Protest Stephanie Cronin,2012-09-10 The articles in this collection provide an alternative view of Middle Eastern history by focusing on the oppressed and the excluded offering a challenge to the usual elite narratives The collection is unique in its historical depth ranging from the medieval period to the present and its geographical reach including Iran the Ottoman Empire Turkey the Balkans the Arab Middle East and North Africa The first to focus on the oppressed and the excluded and their differing strategies of survival of negotiation and of protest and resistance the book covers both major social classes and sectors the working class the peasantry the urban poor women marginal groups such as gypsies and slaves Based on perspectives drawn from the work of the great European social historians and particularly inspired by Antonio Gramsci the collection seeks to restore a sense of historical agency to subaltern classes in the region and to uncover the politics of the people The Conceptualization of Guardianship in Iranian Intellectual History (1800-1989) Leila Chamankhah, 2019-09-03 This book is a study of the concept of wil ya and its developments among Sh scholars from the eighteenth to twentieth century Leila Chamankhah addresses a number of issues by delving into the conceptualizations of wil ya through the examination and interpretation of key texts She focuses on the influence of ibn Arab s mysticism with regard to the conception of wil ya on his Sh a successors and expositors in later centuries She also discusses the development and transformation of the conception of wil ya over two hundred years from the esoteric school of Shaykh sm to the politicization of wil ya in the theory of wil yat al faq h The Kurds and the State Denise Natali, 2005-11-11 In tracing the evolution of Kurdish nationalism Denise Natali shows that contrary to popular theories there is nothing natural or fixed about Kurdish identity or the configuration that Kurdish nationalism assumes Rather Kurdish nationalism has been shaped by the development of nation states in the region Although Kurdish communities have maintained some shared sense of Kurdishness Kurdayeti the mobilization of Kurdish identity is interwoven with a much larger series of identities within the political space of each Kurdish group Different notions of inclusion and exclusion have modified the political and cultural opportunities of Kurds to express their ethnic identities and opening the possibility of assuming alternative identities over time With this book Natali makes a significant contribution to theoretical empirical and policy based scholarship on the Middle East the plight of the Kurds ethnonationalism and ethnopolitical conflict Hers is the first comparative work to examine Kurdish nationalism as a function of diverse political spaces As a vital addition to the literature in the field this book will supplant a number of standard texts on the Kurds Urban Violence in the Middle East Ulrike Freitag, Nelida Fuccaro, Claudia Ghrawi, Nora Lafi, 2015-03-01 Covering a period from the late eighteenth century to today this volume explores the phenomenon of urban violence in order to unveil general developments and historical specificities in a variety of Middle Eastern contexts By situating incidents in particular processes and conflicts the case studies seek to counter notions of a violent Middle East in order to foster a new understanding of violence beyond that of a meaningless and destructive social and political act Contributions explore processes sparked by the transition from empires Ottoman and Qajar but also European to the formation of nation states and the resulting changes in cityscapes throughout the region Revolutions and the Collapse of Monarchy Zhand Shakibi, 2007-02-23 What causes revolution What brought about the end of the last major monarchies of the modern period Were Louis XVI Nicholas II and Mohammad Reza Pahlavi the unwitting victims of historical circumstance or did their own actions help to bring about the revolutions that overthrew them This powerful and original book is the first comparative study of the revolutions in Bourbon France Romanov Russia and Pahlavi Iran Zhand Shakibi analyses fully the timing and causes of these three revolutions and reveals the important similarities between them Revolutions and the Collapse of Monarchy argues provocatively that it is often the monarch's own personality that provides the vital spark which produces revolution. This ambitious and important book challenges the Marxist interpretation of history and adds a compelling new perspective to theories of revolution.
