Issues and Singularity in the British Media Volume 1 Renée Dickason, David Haigron, 2024-07-08 This book offers a historical cultural political and socio economic analysis of the British media It examines how facts and events are reported and interpreted but also how ideas and opinions circulate and are recycled with attention being paid to British traits and tropes in these domains This in depth study of issues and singularity aims at understanding how the British media have helped shape the country's culture and representations thereby providing its people with a sense of togetherness Volume 1 focuses on the press the internet and cinema as mass media from the prolific and innovative Victorian era the matrix of the modern world to the turn of the 21st century with the challenge of digitalisation Newspapers magazines films and music are studied as vehicles for fostering shared collective identities imagined communities and for projecting a certain image of Britain at home and abroad soft power Scotland in feature film Sandra-Elisabeth Haider, 2002-11-22 Inhaltsangabe Abstract At Glasgow s University Library I discovered a book about Scotland on film Scotch Reels Originally Scotch Reels is the title of a research carried out in 1982 about the depiction of Scotland on screen It was revealed then that the predominant image of Scotland was very much engaged with stereotypes defined as the heather and haggis image by one of the book s critics and had obviously nothing to do with the contemporary reality of Scotland Not surprisingly that radical view has found a lot of stern critics On superficial examination when I think of all the recent films set in Scotland ranging from the historical epos Braveheart to the contemporary fast paced drug story Trainspotting to mention two of the more popular examples it seems to me that contemporary films set in Scotland show a wider spectrum of Scottish life than they apparently did before the 1980s when the stories were mostly with a few exceptions only set in the Highlands or on an island in a community far away from contemporary modern and industrial life As a classic example of those films one can mention the musical Brigadoon by Vicente Minnelli from the year 1954 However in my thesis I want to concentrate on films set in the City of Glasgow since there would be far too much material concerned if I considered every single available recent film set in Scotland I would like to find out whether the image of Glasgow has improved or widened in its conception through the release of recent films compared to its depiction in older movies As I could not analyse all recent feature films set in Glasgow in this context I decided to concentrate on a few examples By taking a closer look at these films I hope to be able to demonstrate how varied or one sided as will be determined the contemporary portrayal of the city is I do not want to omit mentioning my awareness of the fact that my selection is very subjective Had I selected other movies the result would naturally have been a different one Also I have not taken into account television films or series set in the Glasgow area Especially in recent years a whole range of series has been produced and broadcasted for instance the surreal hospital drama Psychos starring Douglas Henshall the controversial Tinsel Town set in Glasgow s lively clubbing scene or Glasgow Kiss which portrays the city as a modern airy place inhabited by sympathetic educated middle class people

Community Filmmaking Sarita Malik, Caroline Chapain, Roberta Comunian, 2017-04-28 This book examines the role of community filmmaking in society and its connection with issues of cultural diversity innovation policy and practice in various places Deploying a range of examples from Europe North America Australia and Hong Kong the chapters show that film emerging from outside the mainstream film industries and within community contexts can lead to innovation in terms of both content and processes and a better representation of the cultural diversity of a range of communities and places The book aims to situate the community filmmaker as the central node in the complex network of relationships between diverse communities funding bodies policy and the film industries From Limelight to Satellite Eddie Dick, 1990 No Marketing

Blurb Scottish Cinema Now Fidelma Farley,Jonathan Murray,Rod Stoneman,2009-01-14 Cinema from Scotland has attained an unprecedented international profile in the decade or so since Shallow Grave 1995 and Trainspotting 1996 impinged on the consciousness of audiences and critics around the world Scottish Cinema Now is the first collection of essays to examine in depth the new films and filmmakers that have emerged from Scotland over the last ten years With contributions from both established names and new voices in British Cinema Studies the volume combines detailed textual analysis with discussion of industrial issues scholarship on new movies with historical investigation of unjustly forgotten figures and film from Scotland s cinematic past and a focus on international as well as indigenous images of Scottishness Responding to the ways in recent Scottish filmmaking has transformed the country s cinematic landscape Scottish Cinema Now reexamines established critical agendas and sets new ones for the study of Scotland s relationship with the moving image in the twenty first century
