From Doha To Cancun Delivering A Development Round Economic Paper:

The WTO and the Regulation of International Trade Nicholas Perdikis, Robert Read, International Economics Study Group, 2005-01-01 The book is an excellent introduction to understanding the principal trade disputes between the United States and EU over the last decade and a half International Trade Law and Regulation This book provides a critical overview and assessment of the WTO's dispute settlement procedures in the context of several recent trade related disputes between the EU and the US Doha Development Round: Why did it fail? Anna E. Richter, 2014-09-01 The Doha Development Agenda may go down in history as the slowest development round of all times Starting in 2001 negotiations have been going on for 13 years and collapsed on several occasions in the meantime With regards to its goal to ensure developing countries and especially the least developed among them a share in the growth of world trade barely any progress was made To the extent that one may question how legitimate it is to call the Doha Round a Development Round at all Especially the notorious point of trade liberalization in agriculture has delayed the negotiations While the WTO member states agreed on cutting tariffs and reducing agricultural subsidies opinions differ sharply on exemptions for certain products from these broad rules In another critical point services negotiations have hardly progressed The WTO negotiators have missed every deadline agreed upon and various observers suggested to drop the entire venture The aim of this paper is to find the reasons for the slow progress in order to see if the obstacles may be overcome and the Doha Round might be completed successfully

From Doha to Cancún Ivan Mbirimi, Bridget Chilala, Roman Grynberg, 2003 This paper brings together articles relating to key issues of trade liberalisation under negotiation in the Doha Development Round The focus is on the likely direction and outcome of negotiations on each issue and how the proposed outcomes could affect developing countries Published as part of the Secretariat's efforts to prepare developing countries for multilateral trade negotiations this title aims to bring fresh perspectives to the negotiations in Geneva Staying Together Nicholas Bayne, 2017-11-28 Following on from Hanging In There this comprehensive volume empirically covers the summits from the UK meeting in Birmingham in 1998 to the UK meeting in 2005 In essence this study reviews a full G8 cycle The analytical framework rests on three general summit objectives political leadership reconciling international domestic and collective management and six subject specific performance indicators leadership effectiveness solidarity durability acceptability consistency Including a detailed look at summits pre Birmingham it reviews developments from 1998 by examining each summit from the subsequent summit performances such as financial issues and debt trade issues and development to the most recent discussion on Africa terrorism and weapons of mass destruction Moreover it covers the development of the G8 apparatus the impact of Russia's membership and links with non G8 governments and non state actors It concludes with an assessment as to whether the G8 achieves its three general summit objectives Fisheries Subsidies under International Law Chen-Ju Chen, 2010-09-17 Subsidies to fisheries have been in existence for centuries However these remained outside the spotlight of the international community until the turn of this century when the negative effects that fisheries subsidies have on international trade the environment and sustainable development became increasingly clear As a result the Doha Round Negotiations set the parameters for an effective fisheries subsidies regime WTO Members thus embarked in intensive negotiations with the collaboration of various international organizations These negotiations culminated with publication of the legal text of the Chairman of the Negotiating Group on Rules in 2007 which reflects to a large extent the mandates of the Ministerial Conferences and reconciles the diverse interests of the negotiators The EU as a major WTO Member and with its own Common Fisheries Policy which has been in effect for a number of years can serve as the basis for comparison and improvement of the proposed regulations

The Development Round of Trade Negotiations in the Aftermath of Cancún Joseph E. Stiglitz, Andrew Charlton, Initiative for Policy Dialogue, Commonwealth Secretariat, 2004 The report takes a step back from the disputes and presents an alternative way forward for the Doha Round of trade negotiations approaching the issues with a fresh eye This report is by Nobel Laureate Joseph Stiglitz Columbia University and Andrew Charlton Oxford University

The Negotiations for a New Agreement on Agriculture Joseph A. McMahon, 2011-08-25 The Negotiations for a New Agreement on Agriculture presents a history of the negotiations towards a fair and market oriented international agricultural trading system After an introductory chapter outlining the provisions of the Agreement on Agriculture the book considers the analysis and information exchange process launched by the 1996 Singapore Declaration and the failed 1999 Seattle Ministerial The mandated Article 20 negotiations are discussed before consideration is given to the 2001 Doha Declaration The negotiations are considered in the context of the Cancun and Hong Kong Ministerials and the July 2008 mini ministerial before a discussion of the latest version of the Modalities for the Agreement issued in December 2008 The work ends with a look back over the negotiations and consideration of the development dimension of the Doha Round

The Power to Persuade Angela Geck, 2024-06-03 The Power to Persuade provides an innovative and eye opening analysis of strategic arguing as a means of power in global politics Based on an empirical case study of arguing processes in the World Trade Organization WTO the book shows how discursive contexts institutional norms and procedures and unequal human resources condition who has the power to persuade While accounts of arguing in international relations are typically based on a notion of arguing as a power free mode of interaction oriented towards understanding Angela Geck shows how such an approach precludes the question of persuasive power Drawing on in depth interviews with Geneva diplomats and a document based analysis of the negotiations on two Doha Round issues the book examines the practices governing strategic arguing in the WTO and uncovers two sources of persuasive power firstly prevalent discourses and connected regime norms empower some actors over others secondly their ability to debate is conditioned by exclusionary procedures and unequal human resources Offering a grounded theory of strategic arguing in trade politics The Power to Persuade presents a novel analysis of the relationship between arguing and power

Anti-Dumping Regulations and

Practice in Nigeria Violet Aigbokhaevbo, 2022-09-16 This book is an attempt to examine the WTO GATT anti dumping regulations within the ambit of the peculiar developmental circumstances of developing countries with Nigeria in perspective A combination of descriptive analysis and deductions are utilised with reference to the Nigerian experience as a developing country seeking relevance in the global trading system where non conforming states are regarded as pariahs The non availability of industries to cater for the needs of their populaces has rendered these countries viable global dumping ground for fake substandard and adulterated products The conclusion here that as far as developing countries are concerned anti dumping regulations as provided by GATT in Nigeria is akin to providing shoes for a man with no feet     Developing Countries and the Doha Development Agenda of the WTO Pitou van Dijck, Gerrit Faber, 2006-04-18 The Doha Development Agenda held the promise of substantial gains for developing countries However the realization of these gains is far from obvious the interests of various groups of countries differ greatly and technical complexities have hampered further progress since the very start of the negotiations Against the background of the agenda of the present trade negotiations of the World Trade Organization and its slow progress this enlightening book outlines the positions of the main players Its central focus is to analyze the main effects of these positions and to find a way to complete the Doha Round so a meaningful contribution to its main objective i e development is made Key issues discussed include the rise of the G20 group of developing countries led by Brazil China and India the reasons for the failure of the WTO Ministerial Conference at Canc n in 2003 the prospects for the poorer developing countries with emphasis on Africa in particular This timely and topical book enables the reader to monitor and evaluate the ongoing negotiations in the DDA and is a natural follow up to the bestselling 2001 Routledge title World Trade Organization Millennium Round edited by Deutsch and Speyer     Small States , 2004     Global Justice James Christensen, 2020-02-01 Do we have moral duties to people in distant parts of the world If so how demanding are these duties And how can they be reconciled with our obligations to fellow citizens Every year millions of people die from poverty related causes while countless others are forced to flee their homes to escape from war and oppression At the same time many of us live comfortably in safe and prosperous democracies Yet our lives are bound up with those of the poor and dispossessed in multiple ways our clothes are manufactured in Asian sweatshops the oil that fuels our cars is purchased from African and Middle Eastern dictators and our consumer lifestyles generate environmental changes that threaten Bangladeshi peasants with drought and famine These facts force us to re evaluate our conduct and to ask whether we must do more for those who have less Helping students to grapple with big questions surrounding justice human rights and equality this comprehensive yet accessible textbook features chapters on a variety of pressing issues such as Immigration International Trade War and Climate Change Suitable for undergraduate and graduate students alike the book also serves as a philosophical primer for politicians activists and anyone else who cares about justice     Journal of World Trade Law , 2008-02     Peace Research Abstracts Journal , 2005     European Union Trade Politics and Development Gerrit Faber, Jan Orbie, 2007-05-07 The

Everything But Arms EBA regulation of the European Union EU has been hailed as a groundbreaking initiative for developing countries Since 2001 EBA grants almost completely liberalized access to the European market for products from the least developed countries LDCs It quickly became the most symbolic European trade initiative towards the Third World since the first Lomé Convention in the 1970s Given its central position in EU discourse and its continuing relevance for the European and international trade agenda this book attempts to present a thorough analysis of EBA European Union Trade Politics and Development contains contributions from a diverse range of scholars who collectively present a comprehensive picture of EBA This volume also contains a broader analysis of EU trade politics towards the South focusing on agricultural policy reform Europe's evolving relationship with ACP countries ex colonies from Africa the Caribbean and the Pacific it links EBA with Europe's negotiating position within the World Trade Organization Contributions to this volume also consider the continuing negotiation leverage of EBA within the Doha Development Agenda make comparisons with United States trade policy vis vis the LDCs and focus on the economic effectiveness of EBA in terms of its stated objectives as well as on the institutional skirmishing within the EU

Achieving Economic Development in the Era of Globalization Shalendra D. Sharma, 2007-09-28 Challenging assumptions about the benefits of specific development practices this book provides readers with overview of how competing frameworks have developed and the ways that specific development practices reflect specific understandings of the main debates as well as offering a comprehensive historical overview of attempts to achieve economic development It offers a historical overview of the main debates and how they have evolved over time undertakes an examination or rather re examination of the relationship between agriculture and poverty alleviation presents an exploration of recent international development negotiations from the perspective of OECD countries Drawing on the lessons of some six decades of development experiences and illuminating theoretical insights and accumulated empirical knowledge this book is a key resource for all students of development studies and development economics

International Economic Law and the Digital Divide Rohan Kariyawasam, 2008-01-01 In this well researched book the author explains the digital divide and its repercussions for developed and developing nations In his view the overzealous disciplining at the WTO level of instruments affecting trade notwithstanding developing countries still have important tools in their hands intellectual property protection competition policies tax regimes that can help them attract foreign direct investment a crucial ingredient in reducing the current divide Borrowing from the institutions that we have seen developed in international economic relations is highly recommended as well In short whether the divide will continue to persist or conversely whether it will gradually become a historical feature of international relations critically depends on the political will on both sides of the divide The author makes a persuasive argument to support his thesis empirically researched and with strong foundations in theory Petros C Mavroidis Columbia Law School US and University of Neuchâtel Switzerland This path breaking book focuses on the WTO e commerce and information communications technologies It sheds light on how international economic law can be used as a tool in the application of technological processes to facilitate development in developing countries Rohan Kariyawasam begins by looking predominantly at the rise of international digital networks He offers an introduction to the networks used in the delivery of electronic products and network based transactions and the application of WTO law to the sector He then suggests how developing countries can use economic law and technology to tap digital markets in the developed world The book also argues that the advance of basic living standards in some developing countries can be achieved through technological processes but that this cannot happen without such states paying greater attention to the enforcement of economic social and cultural rights at home Picking up the property rights debate including through bilateral trade the author argues that ensuring beneficial technology transfer will require balancing foreign investor rights to protect intellectual property It will also involve restrictions imposed by competition law and WTO surveillance to check the possible misuse of market power by multinational companies The proposed mixture of measures should he argues provide incentives for Foreign Direct Investment Providing a thorough review of the application of WTO law to the telecommunications sector and the regulation of international digital networks this book will be of great interest to postgraduate students in international economic law and international development law as well as those interested in human rights law and technology It will also appeal to government regulators NGOs and technologists interested in ICTs and development

State Agency and the Patenting of Life in International Law Bitá Amani, 2016-12-05 How should a state respond to competing international obligations where the patenting of life is concerned Following the institutionalization of Intellectual Property in the world trading system under the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights TRIPS states face differing challenges and restraints on their freedom to develop biopatenting programmes Through a comparative review of patenting in two key but diverging jurisdictions Canada and the US this book considers how states might exercise the right of self determination in their domestic law and policy over biopatenting to promote objectives of human welfare and fair competition Departing from existing studies this timely and important volume offers a pragmatic two step approach to state agency to resolve apparent conflicts between the regulatory options afforded by economic globalization and the need to forge domestic laws that reflect community values In this approach rich and poor countries alike are invited to assert the primacy of human rights in their industrial and cultural policies World Trade Organization P. K. Vasudeva, 2005
