Public Opinion What We Think When We Think about Wealth historian and sociologist Rainer Zitelmann examines attitudes about wealth and the wealthy in four industrialized Western countries Germany the United States France and Great Britain Consisting of three parts this book first surveys the literature about stereotypes and prejudices Zitelmann then reports on never before seen data commissioned by the polling firm Ipsos MORI and from the Allensbach Institute which conducted identical surveys of residents of the four countries regarding various aspects of their attitudes toward wealth Lastly The Rich in Public Opinion looks at the portrayal of the rich in media and film People often admire the wealthy but Zitelmann shows that people can also envy them a sometimes toxic envy that can put lives at risk This book aims to examine how we think about a minority that while undeniably powerful can still be the subject of scapegoating often with dire effects for us all
