Economies Of Signs And Space:

Economies of Signs and Space Professor Scott M Lash, Scott Lash John Urry, Professor John Urry, 1993-12-09 This is a novel account of social change that supplants conventional understandings of society and presents a sociology that takes as its main unit of analysis flows through time and across space Developing a comparative analysis of the UK and US the new Germany and Japan Lash and Urry show how restructuration after organized capitalism has its basis in increasingly reflexive social actors and organizations The consequence is not only the much vaunted postmodern condition but also a growth in reflexivity In exploring this new reflexive world the authors argue that today's economies are increasingly ones of signs information symbols images desire and of space where both signs and social subjects refugees financiers tourists and flâneurs are mobile over ever greater distances at ever greater speeds Economies of Signs and Space, 1994 In exploring this new reflexive world Lash and Urry argue that today's economies are increasingly economies of signs information symbols images desire and of space where both signs and social subjects refugees financiers tourists flâneurs are mobile over ever greater distances They show how an understanding of such flows contributes to the analysis of changes in social relations from the organization of work to the culture industries from the formation of an underclass to new forms of citizenship Taking its point of departure from the authors influential The End of Organized Capitalism this is a book that no one in social and cultural theory geography and urban studies political economy and organization studies can afford to ignore

Economies of Signs and Space Scott Lash, 2002 Spaces of Culture Scott Lash, Mike Featherstone, 1999-03-28 In Spaces of Culture an international group of scholars examines the implications of questions such as What is culture What is the relationship between social structure and culture in a globalized and networked world Do critical perspectives still apply or does the speed and complexity of cultural production demand new forms of analysis They explore the key themes in social theory the nation state the city modernity and reflexivity post Fordism and the spatial logic of the informational city The contributors go on to analyze the public sphere questioning the reductive representation of technology as a form of instrumentality and demonstrating how new technologies can offer new spaces of culture This analysis Landscapes of a New Cultural Economy of Space Theano S. Terkenli, Anne-Marie d'Hautesserre, 2006-03-09 The purpose of the book is to tie together various perspectives insights and constructions pertaining to contemporary landscapes and landscape representations from different theoretical and methodological positions as well as from diverse geographical and historical contexts in order to elucidate and illustrate processes of cultural transformation inscribed in space The unifying theme as well as the main goal and prospective contribution then lies in the exploration of these developing forces and characteristics of the new cultural economy of space in the contemporary landscape's The primary objective of bringing together geographical perspectives from various subdisciplinary fields is to examine and discuss ways in which the complexities of this newly emerging cultural economy of space are applied on various sorts of landscapes i.e. urban and rural landscapes landscapes of everyday life landscapes of tourism and recreation postcolonial and hybrid landscapes landscapes of economic production landscapes of the street and of public life national landscapes and so on The overarching question thus is how do these processes work in different geographical contexts and contribute to place and landscape creation

The Future of Social Theory Nicholas Gane, 2004-03-02 The basic concept of society has come under attack political acts critical theory new media and even history itself have undermined what we think of as the social The Future of Social Theory brings together new interviews with the world's leading social theorists on what society means today Zygmunt Bauman John Urry Saskia Sassen Bruno Latour Scott Lash Nikolas Rose Judith Butler and Francoise Verges The topics covered include liquid modernization and the individualization of the society the shift towards global forms of chaos and complexity the displacement of the social into global city networks the shift away from a theory of the social to a theory of space the transformation of society with the rise of new technology the continuing influence of historical forms of political power society as a gendered idea and society as a product of Empire

Tourism Adrian Franklin, 2003-04-03 Résumé disponible à l'adresse

Strangers, Ambivalence and Social Theory Bülent Diken, 2018-12-20 First published in 1998 this volume dwells upon the socio-political problem of underrepresentation at great length within the context of immigration through analysis of Turkish immigrants within the cosy country of Denmark on the European Periphery The main purpose has been to show the fictitious and constructed character of the identities that are normally presupposed and taken for granted Bülent Diken attempts to defamiliarize the familiar notions of the immigrant and what is taken for granted in the field of immigration To counter this Diken allows the immigrant to speak throughout interviews In addition the study dwells on local and central state policies and planning This requires a merger of social theory with research on immigration as well as social and physical planning in this case in a Danish context with an examination on how the application of planning and urban politics are oriented toward immigrants Together with an interest in political and discursive strategies the tactics used by immigrants in coping with these strategies are focused on at length

The creative city does not exist Marianna d'Ovidio, 2016-09-30 Every city wants to become creative perhaps even the most creative ever But what does it mean to be a creative city What images take shape as a consequence What sort of city do we envisage Which one are we actually building In a journey that starts with Blade Runner and passes through English punk Milanese creative workers and Star Wars the book explores the features and outcomes of the creative city penetrating its dark side but also identifying its assets In the future cities must be guided by a vision of a creative city able to be inclusive yet competitive to open new public spaces and to be socially innovative This book presents some of the tools that allow us to look at the city as a place whose air makes people free

Mobilities and Complexities Ole B. Jensen, Sven Kesselring, Mimi Sheller, 2018-10-25 The new mobilities turn has become a powerful perspective in social theory John Urry's oeuvre has been very influential in the emergence of this new field and has had lasting impacts on many scholars This collection presents originally commissioned essays from leading scholars in the field who reflect on how Urry's writing influenced the course of their research and theorizing This volume gathers contributions in relation to John Urry's path breaking work The new mobilities turn made a strong imprint in European social theory and is beginning to make an impact in the Americas and Asia as well It challenges mainstream theoretical and empirical approaches that were grounded in a sedentary and bounded view of states It propels innovative thinking about social and media ecologies complex systems and social change It bridges many disciplines and methodologies leading to new approaches to existing problems while also resonating with questions about both history and the future Mobilities research marks the rise of academic and intellectual cooperation and collaboration beyond societies as nations around the world face the ecological limits of contemporary mobility and energy systems The contributors represent several national contexts including England Germany Denmark Finland Taiwan Brazil Canada Australia and the USA This book collects personal essays and gives insight into a vivid network of scientists who have connections of various degrees to the late John Urry as an academic figure an author and a person      Sociology of Education Today J. Demaine, 2001-03-13 It is almost twenty years since Macmillan published Jack Demaine's Contemporary Theories in the Sociology of Education This completely new book brings together important recent work of the most prominent sociologists working in the field of education today and reaffirms the reputation of sociology of education as an international discipline at the forefront of original research and analysis The book examines a wide range of empirical issues and different theoretical perspectives

Negotiating Postmodernism Wayne Gabardi, 2001 Joining the modern postmodern debate this book suggests that the polarizing polemics of the radical postmodernists who once dominated the discussion have given way to a new critical postmodernism characterized by dialogue accommodation and synthesis A comprehensive survey Negotiating Postmodernism also marks the arrival of a powerful critical presence on the scene one that advances the idea of a late modern postmodern social and cultural transition      Religion, Theology and the Human Sciences Richard H. Roberts, 2002 Religion Theology and the Human Sciences explores the religious consequences of the so called end of history and triumph of capitalism as they have impinged upon key institutions of social reproduction in recent times The book explores the imposition of managerial modernity upon successive sectors of society and shows why many people today feel themselves to be oppressed by systems of management that seem to leave them no option but to conform Richard Roberts seeks to challenge and outflank such seamless oppressive modernity through reconfiguration of the religious and spiritual field

The Cambridge Urban History of Britain Peter Clark, David Michael Palliser, Martin J. Daunton, 2000 The process of urbanisation and suburbanisation in Britain from the Victorian period to the twentieth century      Harold Innis in the New Century William Buxton, Charles R. Acland, 1999 A collection of original essays that moves beyond the prevalent view of Harold Innis as a technological determinist Harold Innis in the New Century brings his innovative ideas to bear upon a variety of contemporary issues such as postmodernism liberalism gender and cultural policy The book is divided into three sections Reflections on Innis provides a historical reassessment of Innis Gaps and Silences considers the limitations of both Innis's thought and his interpreters and Innis and Cultural Theory offers speculations on his influence on cultural analysis The interpretations offered reflect the changing landscape of intellectual life as boundaries between traditional disciplines blur and new interdisciplinary fields emerge Harold Innis in the New Century is a valuable resource for scholars and students of Canadian studies communication studies cultural studies economic history and political science

Culture, Society, Economy Don Robotham, 2005-03-23 Robotham offers here a clear headed exposé of the limits of classical liberalism in the face of world production today His theme is both urgent and iconoclastic There is an unusual clarity about the exposition and a drive that comes from passionate engagement combined with long experience reading and reflection Keith Hart Goldsmiths College London In Culture Society and Economy Don Robotham examines the failure of recent social theory to grasp the problems of globalization and the emergence of corporate monopoly capital and sets out his own argument for a radical solution In Don Robotham examines the failure of recent social theory to grasp the problems of globalization and the emergence of corporate monopoly capital and sets out his own argument for a radical solution He argues that the neglect of economics by both cultural studies and social theory has weakened the ability to develop viable alternatives to present day capitalist globalization With deep awareness of and reference to current events and contemporary trends the author presents a detailed critique of cultural studies in particular Stuart Hall and Paul Gilroy Giddens theory of risk society Scott Lash and John Urry's economies of signs and space Manuel Castells theory of network society The final chapters make a unique argument that the solution to the problems of globalization lies in more globalization rather than adopting an anti globalization or localization position Don Robotham proposes more effective centralized institutions for governing the world economy in other words world government
