Heartland No 1 Coming Home:

Breaking Free Lauren Brooke, 2000 Heartland is a horse farm nestled in the hills of Virginia but it's much more than that Heartland is like no other place it's a place where the scars of the past can be healed a place where frightened and abused horses learn to trust again Pegasus is all Amy has left of her past but he's steadily growing weaker Amy's trying to care for him and hold Heartland together She's striving to do just what her mother would have done but everything is beginning to unravel It will take all of Amy's courage to let go of her mother's legacy but it is the only way that she will break free and find her own

Taking Chances Lauren Brooke, 2001 Amy's life has drastically changed She's found herself taking on the huge responsibility of running Heartland the horse refuge that was her mother's life work The one constant for Amy has been her friendship with Ty Heartland's 17 year old stable hand But the arrival of a new hand Ben throws everything off balance By the time Amy realizes she's taken Ty for granted it could be too late

The Stranger from Omaha Jason Sperb, 2025 Alexander Payne's directorial career began with the satiric hit Citizen Ruth and continued with other successes such as Election About Schmidt The Descendants Nebraska and most recently The Holdovers Jason Sperb here provides the first monographic study on Payne's career and auteurship focusing on the theme of travel through his films Drawing on theories of tourism whiteness masculinity nostalgia and class Sperb structures his book using typical filmic plot points moving from Payne's backstory to the status quo his characters find themselves in before a catalyst spurs them to begin a journey that leads to a crisis and then of course resolution He uses each point to explore various of Payne's films such as exploring how the characters status quo in About Schmidt The Descendants and Downsizing lead them to a white savior mentality to help others with less privilege Through the characters' journeys Sperb is able to focus on the Midwesternness of Payne's films even those that are located elsewhere based on Payne's roots in Omaha and his love of Westerns He concludes by examining the ways in which Payne's characters finish their journeys not necessarily by addressing past crises or having a moment of growth but with fleeting moments of emotional release or experiencing moments of grace from others

Complex Systems Bernhelm Booß-Bavnbek, Jens Hesselbjerg Christensen, Katherine Richardson, Oriol Vallès Codina, 2024-04-02 Note to the interested reader to have a look at the companion to this volume Challenges for Sciences and Communication I ISBN 978 3 031 28048 1 This highly interdisciplinary volume brings together a carefully curated set of case studies examining complex systems with multiple time scales MTS across a variety of fields materials science epidemiology cell physiology mathematics climatology energy transition planning ecology economics sociology history and cultural studies The book addresses the vast diversity of interacting processes underlying the behaviour of different complex systems highlighting the multiplicity of characteristic time scales that are a common feature of many and showcases a rich variety of methodologies across disciplinary boundaries Self organizing out of equilibrium ever evolving systems are ubiquitous in the natural and social world Examples include the climate ecosystems living cells epidemics the human brain and many socio economic systems across history Their dynamical behaviour poses great challenges in the pressing context of the climate crisis since they may involve nonlinearities feedback loops and the emergence of spatial temporal patterns portrayed by resilience or instability plasticity or rigidity bifurcations thresholds and tipping points burst in excitation or slow relaxation and worlds of other asymptotic behaviour hysteresis and resistance to change Chapters can be read individually by the reader with special interest in such behaviours of particular complex systems or in specific disciplinary perspectives Read together however the case studies opinion pieces and meta studies on MTS systems presented and analysed here combine to give the reader insights that are more than the sum of the book s individual chapters as surprising similarities become apparent in seemingly disparate and unconnected systems MTS systems call into question na ve perceptions of time and complexity moving beyond conventional ways of description analysis understanding modelling numerical prediction and prescription of the world around us This edited collection presents new ways of forecasting introduces new means of control and perhaps as the most demanding task it singles out a sustainable description of an MTS system under observation offering a more nuanced interpretation of the floods of quantitative data and images made available by high and low frequency measurement tools in our unprecedented era of information flows

The American Midwest in Film and Literature Adam R. Ochonicky, 2021-12-22

A critical overview of the evolution contestation and fragmentation of the Midwest s symbolic and often contradictory meanings in American culture How do works from film and literature Sister Carrie Native Son Meet Me in St Louis Halloween and A History of Violence for example imagine reify and reproduce Midwestern identity And what are the repercussions of such regional narratives and images circulating in American culture In The American Midwest in Film and Literature Nostalgia Violence and Regionalism Adam R Ochonicky provides a critical overview of the evolution contestation and fragmentation of the Midwest s symbolic and often contradictory meanings Using the frontier writings of Frederick Jackson Turner as a starting point this book establishes a succession of Midwestern filmic and literary texts stretching from the late 19th century through the beginning of the 21st century and argues that the manifold properties of nostalgia have continually transformed popular understandings and ideological uses of the Midwest s place identity Ochonicky identifies three primary modes of nostalgia at play across a set of textual objects the projection of nostalgia onto physical landscapes and into the cultural sphere nostalgic spatiality nostalgia as a cultural force that regulates behaviors identities and appearances nostalgic violence and the progressive potential of nostalgia to generate an acknowledgment and possible rectification of ways in which the flawed past negatively affects the present nostalgic atonement While developing these new conceptions of nostalgia Ochonicky reveals how an under examined area of regional study has received critical attention throughout the histories of American film and literature as well as in related materials and discourses From the closing of the Western frontier to the polarized political and cultural climate of the 21st century this book demonstrates how film and literature have been and continue to be vital forums for illuminating the complex interplay of regionalism and nostalgia Ochonicky presents an important reading of how nostalgia shapes the Midwest in the American imagination as a place of identity and violence Past and present slip in this compelling and well researched approach to the workings of contemporary culture Vera Dika author of Recycled Culture in Contemporary Art and Film The Use of Nostalgia By centering

the concept of region Adam Ochonicky provides an insightful and refreshing reading of American popular culture In texts ranging from Richard Wright s Native Son to John Carpenter s Halloween Ochonicky demonstrates the complex terrain of the Midwest in our cultural imaginary and the diverse memories and meanings we project upon it Kendall R Phillips author of A Place of Darkness The Rhetoric of Horror in Early American Cinema Syracuse University
