Earhart, 2025-06-24 Though canon concerns seem to be a relic of 1990s academia we are once again at a historical moment when there is resistance to teaching texts by writers of color and texts that deal with race ethnicity and gender At the same time algorithmic bias scholars are locating systemic bias encoded into systems from policing software to housing software Bringing these divergent areas together Amy E Earhart examines how technological and institutional infrastructures construct and deconstruct race ethnicity and gender identities Focusing on two central infrastructures the database a commonly used technological infrastructure in the digital humanities and the anthology a scholarly and pedagogical infrastructure Earhart considers how such seemingly naturalized infrastructures impact the representation and modeling of identity The book draws upon the building and use of DALA a collection of almost 100 years of generalist American and African American literature anthologies constructed to investigate questions of identity and representation in literary anthologies and by extension the larger literary canon The resulting examination and its rigorous discussion of how identities are created and recreated within Black literary histories has important implications for contemporary cultural and political debates about canon formation literary scholarship and the bias embedded in technological infrastructures

The Birth and Unfolding of Phases in History Michael A. Susko, 2025-09-10 The Birth and Unfolding of Phases in History From Neolithic to World Pueblo and U S History brings together four major works into a single arc of human time Michael A Susko argues that the rhythm of history is not confined to the rise of empires but begins in the Neolithic with triadic 45 year generations that set the first phases of historical time in motion Using this framework the book explores Neolithic atal h y k as a non empire model of symbolic and generational phasing This Initial work is in progress World history through Egypt Judah Israel Rome and the Medieval Modern era contrasting empire based and prophetic alternatives Ancestral Pueblo history as a more egalitarian path outside empire s mold U S history as a largely empire driven model tempered by ideals of freedom and equality This panoramic view balances empire and non empire trajectories showing how civilizations universalize their visions either through force or through sharing covenant and inclusion Written in accessible language yet grounded in rigorous patterning it invites readers to see history not as inevitable empire but as a set of choices that continue to shape our present and future

West of Harlem Emily Lutenski, 2023-04-01 Luminaries of the Harlem Renaissance Langston Hughes Jean Toomer Wallace Thurman and Arna Bontemps among others are associated with well Harlem But the story of these New York writers unexpectedly extends to the American West Hughes for instance grew up in Kansas Thurman in Utah and Bontemps in Los Angeles Toomer traveled often to New Mexico Indeed as West of Harlem reveals the West played a significant role in the lives and work of many of the artists who created the signal urban African American cultural movement of the twentieth century Uncovering the forgotten histories of these major American literary figures the book gives us a deeper appreciation of that movement and of the cultures it reflected and inspired These recovered experiences and literatures paint a new picture of the American West one that better accounts for the disparate African American populations that dotted its landscape and shaped the multiethnic literatures and cultures of the borderlands Tapping literary biographical historical and visual sources Emily Lutenski tells the

New Negro movement's western story Hughes's move to Mexico opens a window on African American transnational experiences Thurman's engagement with Salt Lake City offers an unexpected perspective on African American sexual politics Arna Bontemps's Los Angeles constructed in conjunction with Louisiana provides a new vision of the Spanish borderlands Lesser known writer Anita Scott Coleman imagines black Western autonomy through domesticity The experience of others like Toomer invited to socialite Mabel Dodge Luhan's circle of artists in Taos present a more pluralistic view of the West It was this place with its transnational and multiracial mix of Native Americans Latinas Anglos and African Americans which buttressed Toomer's idea of a new American race Turning the lens elsewhere Lutenski also explores how Latina or Asian American and Native American western writers understood and represented African Americans in the early twentieth century borderlands The result is a new unusually nuanced and unexpectedly complex view of key figures of the Harlem Renaissance and the borderlands cultures that influenced their art in surprising and important ways

New Perspectives on James Weldon Johnson's "The Autobiography of an Ex-Colored Man" Noelle Morrisette, 2017-07-15 James Weldon Johnson 1871-1938 exemplified the ideal of the American public intellectual as a writer educator songwriter diplomat key figure of the Harlem Renaissance and first African American executive of the NAACP Originally published anonymously in 1912 Johnson's novel The Autobiography of an Ex-Colored Man is considered one of the foundational works of twentieth century African American literature and its themes and forms have been taken up by other writers from Ralph Ellison to Teju Cole Johnson's novel provocatively engages with political and cultural strains still prevalent in American discourse today and it remains in print over a century after its initial publication New Perspectives contains fresh essays that analyze the book's reverberations the contexts within which it was created and received the aesthetic and intellectual developments of its author and its continuing influence on American literature and global culture Contributors Bruce Barnhart Lori Brooks Ben Glaser Jeff Karem Daphne Lamothe Noelle Morrisette Michael Nowlin Lawrence J Oliver Diana Paulin Amritjit Singh Robert B Stepto

A Rosetta Key for U.S. History Michael A. Susko, 2023-12-21 This work explores a generational history from America's Colonial period to the United States of contemporary times A novel historical approach will rely on generational markers every 15th year rather than yearly astronomical dates This method will make history more accessible and its patterns more apparent Identified from cultures presented in an earlier volume the phasings are 1 Invisible Beginnings 2 Establishment and Testing 3 Novel Consolidation and Opening Up 4 Crisis and Creativity 5 Empire and Inclusion and 6 Rigidification or Renewal This history does not seek to hide or obscure the shadow side of America nor does it fail to present beauty and light especially during the 30s generational phase One discovery prompted by this generational time chart was to more fully consider the importance of New Spain in understanding U S history A second and related theme is inclusion of the Indigenous whose influence extends to all phases of American history Come journey with us and experience historical events and people's lives generation by generation and see how they fit into historical phases Such an awareness the author contents will help us to make the generational choice of our times Generational Mapping Through Phases Michael A. Susko, 2025-05-25 In Generational Mapping Through Phases Bridging Ancient Civilizations U S and Ancestral Pueblo History Complete Three Volume Edition the author presents a novel approach to understanding history through the lens of generational mapping which reveals distinct phases This comprehensive work explores the rise transformation and legacy of six important historical traditions Ancient Egypt Ancient Israel Ancient Rome Medieval Modern Europe U S History and the history of the Ancestral Pueblo peoples of the American Southwest Divided into three volumes the series introduces the theory that ancient civilizations U S history and Indigenous histories long viewed through static or compartmentalized frameworks can be studied instead as dynamic evolving processes marked by generational phases In brief they are 1 Invisible Beginnings 2 Establishment and Testing 3 Consolidation and Opening Up to outside influences 4 Crisis and Creativity 5 Universalizing and Inclusion and 6 Renewal or Rigidification The work redefines how we engage with the past weaving together archaeology anthropology and historical analysis to map the interconnectedness of civilizations and the generational forces that shape them From the achievements of Ancient Egypt to the enduring presence of the Ancestral Pueblo peoples the generational method offers fresh insight into how time identity and transformation shape the arc of human history This complete edition of Generational Mapping of World History is for readers seeking a deeper understanding of the structural rhythms that define civilizations across time including the living continuity of Indigenous peoples and their place in global history Gale Researcher Guide for: The Startling New Mary Pat Brady, Gale Researcher Guide for The Startling New is selected from Gale s academic platform Gale Researcher These study guides provide peer reviewed articles that allow students early success in finding scholarly materials and to gain the confidence and vocabulary needed to pursue deeper research Soundin' Canaan Paul db Watkins, 2025-01-21 Part exploration of a key group of Black Canadian poets part literary cultural and musical history Soundin Canaan demonstrates how music in Black Canadian poetry is not solely aesthetic but a form of social ethical and political expression Soundin Canaan refers to the code name often used for Canada during the Black migration to Canada The book analyzes the contributions of key Black Canadian poets including their poetic styles and their performances The book has several key objectives including recuperating the collision of the historical and the Biblically derived figure of Canaan the promised land of freedom and security for an African American population seeking to leave the shackles of slavery behind and the northern terminus of the underground railroad Centering around the poetry of George Elliott Clarke Dionne Brand M NourbeSe Philip Wayde Compton and rapper K naan it delves into how these poets draw inspiration from African American and Afro diasporic musical genres such as blues jazz reggae and dub hip hop and remix to reshape the notions of identity and citizenship Soundin Canaan asks what does Canadian citizenship sound like especially when voiced by Black Canadian poets who embrace a fluid and multicultural form of citizenship that moves between local and global spaces much like music does Using a DJ Methodology the author mixes in close readings of poetry music cultural and literary history as well as various interviews with the poets The book includes an accompanying soundtrack to further enhance the reading experience Listening to the poets in this book that is in listening closely to the poems sounds and musical samples they bring into the mix constitutes sonic citizenship This co performative act of reading listening and sounding serves as a reminder of how citizens inhabit and negotiate life in Canada beyond the formal legal framework of the nation state

Astronomical Pulses to History's Phases Michael A. Susko, 2025-09-26 Bringing together seven volumes of research Michael A Susko presents a grand synthesis of astronomical biological and cultural evolution Using a logarithmic model he shows how the universe has unfolded in accelerating pulses from galaxies and planets to the rise of life and symbolic humanity This rhythm of time is then extended through the Neolithic tells and into recorded history where generational phases reveal cultures growing and transforming in their own natural cycles Three distinct measures of time logarithmic pulses triadic generational units and fifteen year historical generations converge to reveal a patterned fabric of change Across billions of years and into the present moment the author demonstrates how time is not a smooth line but a structured unfolding marked by phases of complexity consciousness and cultural renewal The result is both a sweeping map of our past and a reflection on the nature of time itself its rhythms its surprises and its promise of transformations yet to come
