Hearing Knowing Theological Reflecti:

Hearing and Knowing Mercy A. Oduyoye, 2009-07-01 I would urge everyone to receive this book with openness and understanding Written by an African Christian woman it is a serious attempt to speak of the fullness of the Gospel to the specific African context As one individual s struggle to give account of the hope that lies in her it is a passionate and sincere work and a welcome contribution to the growing genre of religious literature known as liberation theology The author seeks not only to speak to us but also to move us and bring us to different ways of hearing and knowing She has succeeded with me Lamin Sanneh Center for the Study of World Religions Harvard University This book is a remarkable synthesis of history theology and missions It is one of the most important books of the decade because it is written by a Ghanaian Christian woman who resides in Nigeria and has travelled the world over demanding that we no longer allow traditional theological puzzles to go unexamined Oduyoye s writings are like a breath of fresh air to women in ministry and in the church Katie G Cannon Episcopal Divinity School Amber Oduyoye is Africa s leading woman theologian In this book we meet a woman of faith reflecting in a scholarly and meditative way on Christianity in Africa Learned in both the Western and African theological traditions Professor Oduyoye brings constructive criticism to bear on each in the interest of promoting a wider community of wholeness Peter J Paris Princeton Theological Seminary Hearing and Knowing Mercy Amba Oduyoye, 2000 Proverbs and the African Tree of Life Dorothy BEA Akoto-Abutiate, 2014-08-07 In Proverbs and the African Tree of Life Dorothy BEA Akoto Abutiate juxtaposes chosen sayings from Proverbs and selected Ewe Folk proverbs using the agricultural metaphor of grafting which she calls a hermeneutic of grafting Though these two sets of sayings come from completely different cultural contexts Akoto argues that folk sayings proverbs which abound in Africa should be considered as an already mature established tree on to which a piece of the biblical tree is spliced or engrafted to produce hybridized fruits that have uniquely different tastes than the fruits of each tree individually This metaphorical grafting process allows the message of the Bible in Proverbs to be understood imbibed and appropriated in Africa Beads and Strands Mercy Amba Oduyoye, 2002 The Palgrave Handbook of African Social Ethics Nimi Wariboko, Toyin Falola, 2020-03-30 This Handbook provides a robust collection of vibrant discourses on African social ethics and ethical practices It focuses on how the ethical thoughts of Africans are forged within the context of everyday life and how in turn ethical and philosophical thoughts inform day to day living The essays frame ethics as a historical phenomenon best examined as a historical movement the dynamic ethos of a people rather than as a theoretical construct It thereby offers a bold incisive and fresh interpretation of Africa s ethical life and thought We Are Theologians Fredrica Harris Thompsett, 2004-09-01 All of us are natural theologians willing and able to think through questions of belief and relate the insights of theologians to our public and personal lives In this clear and engaging introduction Thompsett gives us the tools to think theologically by grounding us in the history theology spirituality and biblical foundations of Anglican belief particularly that of the Episcopal church Beginning with the Bible and what it reveals to us about the distinct calling of the People of God Thompson goes on to consider the insights of the Reformation regarding the importance of the laity and the contribution of lay people particularly women to the expansive mission of the nineteenth century in education and social work She then explores different aspects of Anglican identity and lay movements of liberation in the global South Aimed primarily at a lay and non specialist audience this book introduces key facets of Anglicanism and aspects of contemporary theology It is an excellent parish educational resource especially for adult forums and group study Mapping Systematic Theology in Africa Ernst M Conradie, Charl E Fredericks, 2004-08-01 The emergence of an indigenous African theology especially since the 1960s is well documented A wealth of literature has been published in the context of African theology especially over the last two or three decades This indexed bibliography contains a number of publications in and for the African context specifically relevant to the fields of systematic theology and ethics

An Introduction to Theology in Africa and the Kpelelogical Foundations of Christian Theology Charles Amarkwei, 2021-10-12 In this book African Christian theology is introduced as a Kpelelogical reflection about life in the context of Africa which exists in the context of the cosmos Kpelelogy is the ontological mode of being grasped by the agape of God in Christ by grace through faith in the power of the Holy Spirit By this mode African theology is introduced by way of a definition a principle of paradox and a description as well as a critical view of the works of African theologians It examines the issues of method criteria and sources of doing theology in Africa and introduces the method of Kpelelogy as an African theological method This is explored further as a holistic theological method that is conscious of its being in existence and its life in history that is driven by faith in the triune God in a pneumatic experience that has been termed in this book as the Kpelelogical ontological mode The book is ecumenical in view of its engagement with Christian tradition It presents a Kpelelogical theology that is concretely African and universally Christian in the Okpelejen Wulormor the cosmic Jesus Christ who is and was but beyond the munus triplex Priest King and Prophet threefold office of Jesus Christ that is to come Hence it is a theology which embraces elements of Reformed Lutheran Methodist Pentecostal Charismatic Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox theological insights in the African context The Dialectics of Transformation in Africa E.

Theology--Essays on Global Perspectives Dwight N. Hopkins, 2017-06-15 Since its start in 1966 black liberation theology in the United States has continually engaged international developments with Africa and the entire world But after Nelson Mandela was released from prison in February 1990 there has been an almost twenty year break in books on black theology and international affairs Black Theology Essays on Global Perspectives bridges that post 1990 gap and makes a vital contact with Africa again This book conceptualizes black theology to take on the global reconfigurations and opportunities brought about by the rapidly shrinking earth of fast paced worldwide contacts In other words in the specificity of the genealogy of black theology we need to reforge ties with Africa This claim is based on tradition And in the generality of the larger worldwide intertwining of technologies and economics we need a new type of black theological leadership for the twenty first century This claim is based on today s international challenges The essays in this book draw on tradition and point forward in the midst of today s worldwide challenges and favorable possibilities given the closeness of all nations and the varieties of cultures
